E. H. T. van Baest, 1998 The Stanzaic Poems written by Hadewijch of Antwerp in the 13th century are a body of 45 lyrical poems in stanzas They are daring God talk in the guise of courtly love songs Hadewijch uses the linguistic style of chivalry but her poems are by no means courtly poetry She shifts the current meaning of chivalry by transferring its context to a field of meaning focused on God Because of the view of Minne love that is embodied in them the Stanzaic Poems are an exponent of the age old tradition of women s songs of which the Song of Songs is the best known example and as such they are an expression of a particular manner of keeping company with God they celebrate a relationship of mutuality between partners equivalent in love An introductory essay highlights some of the striking points of lovers the raging desire of orewoet the gentility of humankind s origin This essay is followed by a rendering of the Stanzaic Poems from Middle Dutch into Modern English prose With an introduction by Edward Schillebeeckx

Saga emotions Gareth Lloyd Evans, Brynja Þorgeirsdóttir, Carolyne Larrington, 2025-06-10 Focusing particularly on historically oriented sagas Saga emotions identifies and examines a range of emotions from across Old Norse Icelandic saga literature Each chapter begins with a discrete emotion term such as rei i anger gle i joy or the peculiarly Old Norse v ghugr killing mood exploring its usages within the broad saga corpus and focusing on its contextual meanings and narrative purposes The contributions explore the specifics of the lexical terms used for different emotion states and offer in depth case studies that consider how various emotions manifest within particular examples of saga literature The book offers the emotional granularity lacking in current studies of Norse emotion and serves as an essential foundation for future research and study into emotional depiction in Old Norse Icelandic saga literature

Indian Angles Mary Ellis Gibson, 2011-05-13 A new historical approach to Indian English literature Mary Ellis Gibson shows that poetry not fiction was the dominant literary genre of Indian writing in English until 1860 and that poetry written in colonial situations can tell us as much or even more about figuration multilingual literacies and histories of nationalism than novels can Gibson re creates the historical webs of affiliation and resistance that were experienced by writers in colonial India writers of British Indian and mixed ethnicities Advancing new theoretical and historical paradigms for reading colonial literatures Indian Angles makes accessible many writers heretofore neglected or virtually unknown Gibson recovers texts by British women by nonelite British men and by persons who would in the nineteenth century have been called Eurasian Her work traces the mutually constitutive history of English language poets from Sir William Jones to Toru Dutt and Rabindranath Tagore Drawing on contemporary postcolonial theory her work also provides new ways of thinking about British internal colonialism as its results were exported to South Asia In lucid and accessible prose Gibson presents a new theoretical approach to colonial and postcolonial literatures
