The Myth of Romantic Love and Other Essays

Michael Novak, 2017-07-28 Written by noted Catholic philosopher Michael Novak the selections in The Myth of Romantic Love and Other Essays highlight the arc of his intellectual career Collectively demonstrating the fundamental unity of Novak's work the sixteen essays in this book span a broad range of political economic and social topics The selections offer clarity of thinking for the sake of concrete ends For example The Myth of Romantic Love the chapter from which the title of this work is drawn sharply distinguishes the love that popular culture portrays from the true Christian vision of love And The Family out of Favor argues if things go well with the family life is worth living when the family falters life falls apart Thus true Christian love manifest in marriage and family life is a greater resource for civilized society than any other institution Although this collection shows that Novak's viewpoints did evolve over time he remains a thinker that is clearly rooted in the ancient and medieval Catholic tradition From his discussions of gender relations to economics culture and politics his perspective honors the primacy of man and his immediate experience and thereby ultimately glorifies the Creator Novak's writing will infuriate some readers and inspire many others but both comrades in arms and intellectual opponents will find the clarity and intensity of his writings undeniable

My 1980s & Other Essays Wayne Koestenbaum, 2024-05-01 Wayne Koestenbaum returns with a zesty and hyper literate collection of personal and critical essays on the 1980s including essays on major cultural figures such as Andy Warhol and Brigitte Bardot Wayne Koestenbaum has been described as an impossible lovechild from a late night drunken three way between Joan Didion Roland Barthes and Susan Sontag Bidoun In My 1980s and Other Essays a collection of extravagant range and style he rises to the challenge of that improbable description My 1980s and Other Essays opens with a series of manifestos or perhaps more appropriately a series of impassioned disclosures intellectual and personal It then proceeds to wrestle with a series of major cultural figures the author's own lodestars and lodestones literary John Ashbery Roberto Bolaño James Schuyler artistic Diane Arbus Cindy Sherman Andy Warhol and simply iconic Brigitte Bardot Cary Grant Lana Turner And then there is the personal the voice the style the flair that is unquestionably Koestenbaum It amounts to a kind of intellectual autobiography that culminates in a string of passionate calls to creativity arguments in favor of detail and nuance and attention a defense of pleasure hunger and desire in culture and experience Koestenbaum is perched on the cusp of being a true public intellectual his venues are more mainstream than academic his style is eye catching his prose unfailingly witty and passionate his interests profoundly wide ranging and popular My 1980s should be the book that pushes Koestenbaum off that cusp and truly into the public eye National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1971 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 100 Successful College Application Essays (Second Edition) The Harvard Independent,2002-10-01 The largest collection of successful college application essays available in one volume These are the essays that helped their authors gain admission to Harvard Yale Brown Columbia Wellesley Colby and other outstanding schools followed by invaluable comments by experts in admissions placement and college counseling at some of the best learning institutions around the country This helpful guide includes 100 complete essays with professional commentary Examples of essays on common topics family background athletics work experience as well as the more offbeat Essays on the immigrant experience by foreign born students A section of drawing and cartoon essays Insider advice from a Princeton dean of admissions A What Not to Do chapter from a top college counselor And more Compiled by members from The Harvard Independent the weekly newsmagazine of Harvard University this is an invaluable resource for students who want to write the best possible essay and improve their chances of admission to the best possible school Rescuing Psychoanalysis from Freud and Other Essays in Re-Vision Peter L. Rudnytsky,2018-05-08 In his latest groundbreaking book the author examines the history of psychoanalysis from a resolutely independent perspective At once spellbinding case histories and meticulously crafted gems of scholarship Rudnytsky s essays are re visions in that each sheds fresh light on its subject but they are also avowedly revisionist in their scepticism towards all forms of psychoanalytic orthodoxy Beginning with a judicious reappraisal of Freud and ranging in scope from King Lear to contemporary neuroscience the author treats in depth the lives and work of Ferenczi Jung Stekel Winnicott Coltart and Little each of whom sought to rescue psychoanalysis by summoning it to live up to its highest ideals Self and Other: Essays in Continental Philosophy of Religion Eugene Thomas Long,2007-04-11 The essays in this volume focus on some of the topics that are shaping recent continental philosophy of religion These primary topics include self and other evil and suffering religion and society and the relation between philosophy and theology The articles are by an international group of leading contributors to recent continental philosophy of religion Essays on the Christian Worldview and Others Political, Literary, and Philosophical Andrew J. Schatkin,2012-07-10 This collection of essays and thoughts covers such areas as basic Christian thought which includes traditional family morality and a great concern for alleviating poverty and promoting social justice political thought comparing the need for a system which includes both socialist and capitalist elements and the need for values in our society which has come to emphasize money power and greed as philosophical goals and values though they are not The book also has thoughts concerning literature a consideration of what constitutes true progress the denial in our society of any absolute moral truth and the substitution of moral relativism as a mistaken ethical system 50 Successful Harvard Application Essays, 6th Edition Staff of the Harvard Crimson,2024-05-07 Fifty all new essays that got their authors into Harvard with updated statistics and analysis showing what worked what didn't and how you can do it too. With talented applicants coming from the top high schools as well as the pressure to succeed from family and friends it's no wonder that writing college application essays is one of the most stressful tasks high schoolers face. In addition, since our last edition of 50 Successful Harvard Application Essays, the application process has shifted toward a more widespread acceptance of the test optional model. The remaining components of the application are more heavily weighted, and the personal statement has never been a more important factor in the admissions process. It teaches students how to Get started, Stand out, Structure the best possible essay, Avoid common pitfalls. Each essay in this collection is from a Harvard student who made the cut and is followed by analysis by the staff of The Harvard Crimson, where strengths and weaknesses are detailed to show readers how they can approach their own stories and ultimately write their own high caliber essay. 50 Successful Harvard Application Essays all new essays and straightforward advice make it the first stop for applicants who are looking to craft essays that get them accepted to the school of their dreams.

A Victorian Educational Pioneer's Evangelicalism, Leadership, and Love Pauline A. Phipps, 2022-11-15 This book examines the relatively unknown English late Victorian educational pioneer Constance Louisa Maynard, 1849-1935, whose innovative London-based Westfield College produced the first female BAs in the mid 1880s. An atypical and powerful woman, Maynard is also notable for her unique knowledge of psychology and patriotic Evangelicalism, both of which profoundly shaped her ambitions and passions. In contrast to most history about an individual's life, this book builds a fascinating life story based upon evidence and clues from minutiae. The focus is on nine enigmatic actions motivated by Maynard in her quests for educational leadership, global conversion, and same-sex love. Maynard's acts that she called mistakes caused deep enmities with administrators and college women. Yet amid her trials and conflicts, Maynard made key decisions about her public and private life. Moreover, her so-called mistakes reveal astonishing new insights into a past mindset and the rapidly changing world in which Maynard lived.

Literary Education and Other Essays Joseph Epstein, 2014-06-01 Who invented the personal essay? That is hard to say. The ancient Roman philosopher and cynical power broker Seneca. The 16th-century French philosopher Montaigne certainly brought it to a peak of perfection. There were many 19th-century masters, not so many after that. Who is the greatest living essayist writing in English? That requires no debate at all. It is unquestionably Joseph Epstein. He is not only the best living essayist; he is right up there in the company of Seneca and Montaigne, but one of our own, living in our era and dealing with our pleasures and travails. Epstein is penetrating He is witty He has a magic touch with words that hard to define but immediately recognizable quality called style Above all he is impossible to put down Epstein reads omnivorously and brings us the best of what he reads passages that we would never have found on our own How easy it is today in the digital age drowning in emails and other ephemera to forget the simple delight of reading for no intended purpose Like any master essayist however this one brings us more than the shared experience of a lifetime of reading He brings us himself alternately scolding and charming sparkling and deep buoyant and sad zany and wise rebellious and conservative bookworm and sports fan clever and everyman debunker and preservationist deep into high culture deep into low culture curious fresh and settled in his ways This is the friend we all wish we could have the ideal humane companion who is completely comfortable in his own human skin Like Plutarch he gives us life teaching by example but with a wry smile and such a sure hand that we hardly notice the instruction It is pure pleasure
