Notre Dame H.S.

Mark Mathabane, author of the bestseller Kaffir Boy in America, grew up fearing and hating whites in a South African ghetto. Gail spent the first ten years of her life in lily-white communities in Ohio, and feared the people her Texas girlfriends casually called "niggers."

The two never dreamed of marrying outside their races. As many Americans gave up on the racial ideal of an integrated society, and two segregated, opposed, and hostile camps emerged — one black, one white — Mark and Gail fell in love.

Love in Black and White is the dramatic, revealing, and riveting story of how they overcame their own prejudices, society's disapproval, family opposition, and personal self-doubts to be together. Woven into their intimate account of falling in love, getting married, and raising children in the fishbowl of an interracial relationship are the beautiful, complex, and heartrending stories of other interracial couples in America and South Africa.

"A personal and candid account of what it means to break an intransigent taboo — and a heartwarming affirmation of love and commitment." — Kirkus Reviews

"Intriguingly structured with alternate accounts by husband and wife, Love in Black and White is a hymn of praise to the power of love in the face of deeply felt societal prejudices.... Highly recommended." — Library Journal

"The Mathabanes write well of the sweet, nervous first days of their love, and they don't flinch from the bad stuff.... As [they] show, all it takes is love, and defending yourself at nearly every turn." — front page, Washington Post Book World

"The honesty that is deeply rooted in every paragraph makes this book a moving one." — Birmingham

MARK AND GAIL MATHABANE live in Kernersville, North Carolina, with their two children, Bianca and Nathan. Mark is a much-sought-after lecturer on race relations and South Africa, where his family remains.

Interracial Intimacies Randall Kennedy, 2012-09-12 With the same piercing intelligence as the bestselling Say it Loud Interracial Intimacies hits a nerve at the center of American society race relations and our most intimate ties to each other The best book written on the subject an exhaustive source of deep rich scholarship and surefooted brilliant analysis Seattle Times Analyzing the tremendous changes in the history of America's racial dynamics Randall Kennedy challenges us to examine how prejudices and biases still fuel fears and inform our sexual marital and family choices He takes us from the injustices of the slave era up to present day battles over race matching adoption policies which seek to pair children with adults of the same race He tackles such subjects as the presence of sex in racial politics the historic role of legal institutions in policing racial boundaries and the real and imagined pleasures that have attended interracial intimacy A bracing much needed look at the way we have lived in the past Interracial Intimacies is also a hopeful book offering a potent vision of our future as a multiracial democracy

In the Name of Hate Barbara Perry, 2002-05-03 In The Name of Hate is the first book to offer a comprehensive theory of hate crimes arguing for an expansion of the legal definitions that most states in the U S hold Barbara Perry provides an historical understanding of hate crimes and provocatively argues that hate crimes are not an aberration of current society but rather a by product of a society still grappling with inequality difference fear and hate

Neither Black Nor White Yet Both Werner Sollors, 1999 Why can a white woman give birth to a black baby while a black woman can never give birth to a white baby in the United States What makes racial passing so different from social mobility Why are interracial and incestuous relations often confused or conflated in literature making miscegenation appear as if it were incest Werner Sollors examines these questions and others in Neither Black nor White yet Both a fully researched investigation of literary works that in the past have been read more for a black white contrast of either or than for an interracial realm of neither nor both and in between From the origins of the term race to the cultural sources of the Tragic Mulatto and from the calculus of color to the retellings of various plots Sollors examines what we know about race analyzing recurrent motifs in scientific and legal works as well as in fiction drama and poetry

Race Mixing Renee Christine Romano, 2009-06-30 Marriage between blacks and whites is a longstanding and deeply ingrained taboo in American culture On the eve of World War II mixed race marriage was illegal in most states Yet sixty years later black white marriage is no longer illegal or a divisive political issue and the number of such couples and their mixed race children has risen dramatically Renee Romano explains how and why such marriages have gained acceptance and what this tells us about race relations in contemporary America The history of interracial marriage helps us understand the extent to which America has overcome its racist past and how much further we must go to achieve meaningful racial equality Mixed Race Amnesia Minelle Mahtani, 2014-11-10 Mixed Race Amnesia is an ambitious and critical look at how multiraciality is experienced in the global north Drawing on a series of interviews acclaimed geographer Minelle Mahtani explores some of the assumptions and attitudes people have around multiraciality She discovers that in Canada at least people of mixed race are often romanticized as being the embodiment of a post racial future an ideal that is supported by government policy and often internalized by people of mixed race As Mahtani reveals this superficial celebration of multiraciality is often done without any acknowledgment of the freight and legacy of historical racisms Consequently a strategic and collective amnesia is taking place one where complex diasporic and family histories are being lost while colonial legacies are being reinforced Mahtani argues that in response a new anti colonial approach to multiraciality is needed and she equips her readers with the analytical tools to do this Working through Whiteness

Cynthia Levine-Rasky, 2012-02-01 What is whiteness What is gained by claiming it as a critical perspective in anti racism work How do whiteness studies both redeem and assert the white subject Working through Whiteness explores these questions through essays by Canadian American British and Australian scholars reflecting the broad array of academic inquiry into whiteness in the areas of law ethics education feminism politics psychology sociology criminology and social geography Rarely has knowledge of whiteness as the practice of social domination been drawn from this far and wide By embracing the leading edge in critical theory this book is a crucial addition to the growing literature on whiteness

Navigating Interracial Borders Erica Chito Childs, 2005-05-24 One of the best books written about interracial relationships to date Childs offers a sophisticated and insightful analysis of the social and ideological context of black white interracial relationships Heather Dalmage author Tripping on the Color Line A pioneering project that thoroughly analyzes interracial marriage in contemporary America Eduardo Bonilla Silva author of Racism without Racists Color Blind Racism and the Persistence of Racial Inequality in the United States Is love color blind or at least becoming increasingly so Today s popular rhetoric and evidence of more interracial couples than ever might suggest that it is But is it the idea of racially mixed relationships that we are growing to accept or is it the reality What is the actual experience of individuals in these partnerships as they navigate their way through public spheres and intermingle in small close knit communities In Navigating Interracial Borders Erica Chito Childs explores the social worlds of black white interracial couples and examines the ways that collective attitudes shape private relationships Drawing on personal accounts in depth interviews focus group responses and cultural analysis of media sources she provides compelling evidence that sizable opposition still exists toward black white unions Disapproval is merely being expressed in more subtle color blind terms Childs reveals that frequently the same individuals who attest in surveys that they approve of interracial dating will also list various reasons why they and their families wouldn t shouldn t and couldn t marry someone of another race Even college students who are heralded as racially tolerant and open minded do not view interracial couples as acceptable when those partnerships move beyond the point of casual dating Popular films Internet images and pornography also continue to reinforce the idea that sexual relations between blacks and whites are deviant Well researched candidly written and enriched with personal narratives Navigating Interracial Borders offers important new insights into the still fraught racial hierarchies of contemporary society in the United States

Race, Crime, and Justice Shaun Gabbidon, Helen Taylor Greene, 2013-10-18 A comprehensive collection of the essential writings on race and crime this important Reader spans more than a century and clearly demonstrates the long standing difficulties minorities have faced with the justice system The editors skillfully draw on the classic work of such thinkers as W E B DuBois and Gunnar Myrdal as well as the contemporary work of scholars such as Angela Davis Joan Petersilia John Hagen and Robert Sampson This anthology also covers all of the major topics and issues from policing courts drugs and urban violence to inequality racial profiling and capital punishment This is required reading for courses in criminology and criminal justice legal studies sociology social work and race

Exotic No More Jeremy MacClancy, 2010-04-08 Since its founding in the nineteenth century social anthropology has been seen as the study of exotic peoples in faraway places But today more and more anthropologists are dedicating themselves not just to observing but to understanding and helping solve social problems wherever they occur in international aid organizations British TV studios American hospitals or racist enclaves in Eastern Europe for example In Exotic No More an initiative of the Royal Anthropological Institute some of today s most respected anthropologists demonstrate in clear unpretentious prose the tremendous contributions that anthropology can make to contemporary society They cover issues ranging from fundamentalism to forced migration child labor to crack dealing human rights to hunger ethnicity to environmentalism intellectual property rights to international capitalisms But Exotic No More is more than a litany of gloom and doom the essays also explore topics usually associated with leisure or high culture including the media visual arts tourism and music Each author uses specific examples from their fieldwork to illustrate their discussions and 62 photographs enliven the text Throughout the book the contributors highlight anthropology s commitment to taking people seriously on their own terms paying close attention to what they are saying and doing and trying to understand how they see the world and why Sometimes this bottom up perspective makes the strange familiar but it can also make the familiar strange exposing the cultural basis of seemingly natural behaviors and challenging us to rethink some of our most cherished ideas about gender free markets race and refugees among many others Contributors William O Beeman Philippe Bourgois John Chernoff E Valentine Daniel Alex de Waal Judith Ennew James Fairhead Sarah Franklin Michael Gilson Faye Ginsburg Alma Gottlieb Christopher Hann Faye V Harrison Richard Jenkins Melissa Leach Margaret Lock Jeremy MacClancy Jonathan Mazower Ellen Messer A David Napier Nancy Scheper Hughes Jane Schneider Parker Shipton Christopher B Steiner
