Silverman, 2019-08-27 Thirty five years ago Alasdair MacIntyre's After Virtue established virtue ethics as a major challenger to competing visions of morality but there is still considerable disagreement concerning which version of virtue ethics provides the best approach The Supremacy of Love describes and advocates an agape centered vision of Aristotelian virtue ethics that portrays love as the most important moral virtue and the goals of love as a partial constituent of every genuine virtue This structural improvement to Aristotelian virtue ethics found originally in the ethics of Thomas Aquinas enables this account to address several controversial topics in contemporary virtue ethics including why the virtues cannot be used badly in what sense is there a unity between the virtues how the virtues benefit the virtuous person and how virtues provide action guidance Eric J Silverman demonstrates how and why a distinctly love centered approach to virtue ethics should make the view widely attractive in comparison to alternative accounts of virtue ethics duty based deontological theories as well as results based consequentialist views Galatians Martinus C. de Boer, 2011-07-29 This new commentary in the New Testament Library series is not a systematic study of Pauline theology rather the aim of this study is to trace Paul's theology as it unfolds in his letter to the church at Galatia and to attempt to illuminate as far as possible how the Galatians likely comprehended it at the time they received it The author asks readers to imagine themselves as silent witnesses to Paul's dictation of the letter and to observe through a historical perspective how the Galatian Christians might have understood Paul's words The Complete Concordance to Shakespeare Mary Cowden Clarke, 1886 Journal for the Evangelical Study of the Old Testament, 7.2 Russell Meek, 2021-09-02 Journal for the Evangelical Study of the Old Testament JESOT is a peer reviewed journal devoted to the academic and evangelical study of the Old Testament The journal seeks to fill a need in academia by providing a venue for high level scholarship on the Old Testament from an evangelical standpoint The journal is not affiliated with any particular academic institution and with an international editorial board open access format and multi language submissions JESOT cultivates and promotes Old Testament scholarship in the evangelical global community The journal differs from many evangelical journals in that it seeks to publish current academic research in the areas of ancient Near Eastern backgrounds Dead Sea Scrolls Rabbinics Linguistics Septuagint Research Methodology Literary Analysis Exegesis Text Criticism and Theology as they pertain only to the Old Testament JESOT also includes up to date book reviews on various academic studies of the Old Testament Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
