Love Of Shopping Is Not A Gene Problems With Darwinian Psychology:

"Love of Shopping" is Not a Gene Anne Innis Dagg, 2005 Based on Darwin's theory of evolution and natural selection Evolutionary Psychology claims that it's all in our genes "Love of Shopping" is Not a Gene Anne Innis Dagg, 2005 Based on Darwin's theory of evolution and natural selection Evolutionary Psychology claims that it's all in our genes At the beginning of the 21st century genes are used to explain almost every aspect of human life from social inequalities to health sexuality and criminality This book is a critique of Darwinian psychology alias evolutionary psychology alias sociobiology the study of the social behavior of animals and people based on evolution In this provocative work Innis Dagg an eminent and outspoken critic of this ideology first presents an overview of the theory and its popularity both among professionals and lay people then she examines concepts of social behavior based on genes vs culture including aggression in the form of rape infanticide homicide gang violence and war and general criminality homosexuality in both the human and the animal world and race IQ and environment Focusing on the problems present in much Darwinian psychological research flawed data faulty analysis and political motives this controversial book offers the first comprehensible critique of the most popular scientific theory of the late 20th century Evolutionary Psychology In the end Innis Dagg presents a new perspective which acknowledges the complexity of life by placing at its center the living organism in its environment rather than the gene

The Oxford Handbook of Evolutionary Perspectives on Violence, Homicide, and War Todd K. Shackelford, Viviana A. Weekes-Shackelford, 2012-08-23 This volume synthesizes the theoretical and empirical work of leading scholars in the evolutionary sciences to produce an extensive and authoritative review of this literature The Psychology of Criminal Conduct D.A. Andrews, James Bonta, 2014-09-19 This book provides step by step procedures to help police administrators execute their duties and fulfill their responsibilities more effectively efficiently and productively Divided into sections behavioral aspects of police management functional aspects of police management and modern police management major issues it introduces the reader to a broad range of topics with which all police managers should be familiar The Psychology of Criminal Conduct James Bonta, D. A. Andrews, 2016-11-10 The Psychology of Criminal Conduct Sixth Edition provides a psychological and evidence informed perspective of criminal behavior that sets it apart from many criminological and mental health explanations of criminal behavior Drawing upon the General Personality and Cognitive Social Learning theory James Bonta and Donald Andrews provide an overview of the theoretical context and major knowledge base of the psychology of criminal conduct discuss the eight major risk need factors of criminal conduct examine the prediction and classification of criminal behavior along with prevention and rehabilitation and summarize the major issues in understanding criminal conduct This book also offers the Risk Need Responsivity RNR model of offender assessment and treatment that has guided developments in the subject throughout the world In this edition the first since Andrews' death Bonta carefully maintains the book's original contributions while presenting these core concepts succinctly clearly and elegantly Appropriate for advanced undergraduates and graduate students as well as for scholars researchers and practitioners The Psychology of Criminal Conduct Sixth Edition further extends and refines the authors body of work A Critical History and Philosophy of Psychology Richard T. G. Walsh,Thomas Teo,Angelina Baydala,2014-03-20 In line with the British Psychological Society s recent recommendations for teaching the history of psychology this comprehensive undergraduate textbook emphasizes the philosophical cultural and social elements that influenced psychology s development The authors demonstrate that psychology is both a human i e psychoanalytic or phenomenological and natural i e cognitive science exploring broad social historical and philosophical themes such as the role of diverse cultures and women in psychology and the complex relationship between objectivity and subjectivity in the development of psychological knowledge The result is a fresh and balanced perspective on what has traditionally been viewed as the collected achievements of a few great men With a variety of learning features including case studies study questions thought experiments and a glossary this new textbook encourages students to critically engage with chapter material and analyze themes and topics within a social historical and philosophical framework Evolution's Empress Maryanne L. Fisher,Justin R. Garcia,Rosemarie Sokol Chang,2013-01-30 Over the last decade there has been increasing debate as to whether feminism and evolutionary psychology can co exist Such debates often conclude with a resounding no often on the grounds that the former is a political movement while the latter is a field of scientific inquiry In the midst of these debates there has been growing dissatisfaction within the field of evolutionary psychology about the way the discipline and others have repeatedly shown women to be in passive roles when it comes to survival and reproduction Evolutionary behavioral research has made significant strides in the past few decades but continues to take for granted many theoretical assumption that are perhaps in light of the most recent evidence misguided As a result the research community has missed important areas of research and in some cases will likely come to inaccurate conclusions based on existing dogma rather than rigorous theoretically driven research Bias in the field of evolutionary psychology echoes the complaints against the political movement attached to academic feminisms This is an intellectual squabble where much is at stake including a fundamental understanding of the evolutionary significance of women s roles in culture mothering reproductive health and physiology mating female alliances female aggression and female intrasexual competition Evolution s Empress identifies women as active agents within the evolutionary process The chapters in this volume focus on topics as diverse as female social interactions mate competition and mating strategies motherhood women s health sex differences in communication and motivation sex discrimination and women in literature The volume editors bring together a diverse range of perspectives to demonstrate ways in which evolutionary approaches to human behavior have thus far been too limited By reconsidering the role of women in evolution this volume furthers the goal of generating dialogue between the realms of women s studies and evolutionary psychology The Social Behavior of Older Animals Anne Innis Dagg,2009-02-02 A groundbreaking study on the lives of senior mammals and birds from the aging of alphas to the role of grandmothers by the author of Animal Friendships How do young and old social animals view each other Are aged animals perceived by others as weaker Or wiser What is the relationship between age and power among social animals Taking a cue from Frans de Waal's seminal work examining the lives of chimpanzees Anne Innis Dagg in this pioneering study probes the lives of older mammals and birds Synthesizing the available scientific research and anecdotal evidence she explores how aging affects the lives and behavior of animals ranging from elk to elephants and gulls to gorillas examining such topics as longevity how others in a group view senior members in regard to leadership wisdom and teaching mating success interactions with mates and offspring how aging affects dominance changes in aggressive behavior and adaptability and death and dying At once instructive and compelling this theme spanning book reveals the complex nature of maturity in scores of social species and shows that animal behavior often displays the same diversity we find in ourselves Dagg's book should be a corrective to us all species that lose or ignore the contributions of their older members do so at their peril

Literary Review of Canada Humans and chimps it turns out value age in sexual partners very differently In our species youth is prized but among chimps the reverse is the case The New York Review of Books Liars and Outliers Bruce Schneier, 2012-01-27 In today's hyper connected society understanding the mechanisms of trust is crucial Issues of trust are critical to solving problems as diverse as corporate responsibility global warming and the political system In this insightful and entertaining book Schneier weaves together ideas from across the social and biological sciences to explain how society induces trust He shows the unique role of trust in facilitating and stabilizing human society He discusses why and how trust has evolved why it works the way it does and the ways the information society is changing everything The Nature-Nurture Debates Dale Goldhaber, 2012-07-09 How is it possible that in more than one hundred years the nature nurture debate has not come to a satisfactory resolution The problem Dale Goldhaber argues lies not with the proposed answers but with the question itself In The Nature Nurture Debate Goldhaber reviews the four major perspectives on the issue behavior genetics environment evolutionary psychology and developmental systems theory and shows that the classic reductionist strategies behavior genetics and environmental approaches are incapable of resolving the issue because they each offer a false perspective on the process of human development It is only through a synthesis of the two holistic perspectives of evolutionary psychology and developmental systems theory that we will be able to understand the nature of human behavior Darwinism, Democracy, and Race John Jackson, David Depew, 2017-07-06 Cover Half Title Title Page Copyright Page Dedication Table of Contents Acknowledgments 1 Introduction in the footsteps of Franz Boas 2 Franz Boas and the argument from presumption 3 Demarcating anthropology the boundary work of Alfred Kroeber 4 Theodosius Dobzhansky and the argument from definition 5 Unifying science by creating community the epideictic rhetoric of Sherwood Washburn 6 A kairos moment unmet and met the controversy over Carleton Coon's The Origin of Races 7 Epilogue the roots of the Sociobiology controversy the infirmities of Evolutionary Psychology and the unity of anthropology Index EBOOK:
