Family Life and

Sociability in Upper and Lower Canada, 1780-1870 Françoise Noël, 2003 Drawing on diaries and letters exchanged between family members Françoise Noël considers the nature of family the couple during courtship and after marriage parents and children in childhood and after the children leave home and the social life of the family in terms of both leisure time and entertainment and the mutual assistance provided by social networks of kin neighbours and friends She notes that courtship usually took place within the social network of interactions with kin and neighbours and shows that family life was located in a broad social space that included people of various ages By examining the correspondence and diaries of francophone and anglophone middle class families of various faiths No 1 presents touching stories of family life in the Canadas in the early nineteenth century

A History of Domestic Space Peter Ward,1999-10-07 This is a history of domestic space in Canada Peter Ward looks at how spaces in the Canadian home have changed over the last three centuries and how family and social relationships have shaped and been shaped by these changing spaces A fundamental element of daily life for individuals and families is domestic privacy that of individuals and that of the family or household There are also two facets of privacy privacy from and privacy to Personal privacy sets the individual apart from the group creating opportunities for seclusion Family privacy draws boundaries between the household and the community defending the solidarity of the home and providing a basis for family relationships In both ways privacy is intimately involved with the history of the house Over time the changing size shape and location of the home have created widely different opportunities for family and personal privacy Together with major shifts in household composition family size and domestic technology they have gradually altered the conditions of everyday domestic life But the pattern of change has been far from uniform for the nature meaning and experience of privacy in Canadian have varied widely over the past 300 years This book explores some of those experiences and meanings reflecting on their implications for family and social life historically as well as in the recent past

Evangelical Balance Sheet B. Anne Wood,2010-10-26 Using the journals of W Norman Rudolf 1835 1886 a Victorian merchant Evangelical Balance Sheet Character Family and Business in Mid Victorian Nova Scotia explores the important role of character ideals and evangelicalism in mid Victorian culture Rudolf s diary with its daily weather observations its account of family matters of social and business happenings and of his own experiences as well as occasional literary or naturalistic forays attempts to follow a disciplined regime of writing but also has elements of a Bildungsroman The diary reveals an obvious and significant tension between his inner spiritual search for meaning in his life evangelical inwardness and his outward stewardship duties Rudolf s concept of character then involved a type of balance sheet of his evangelical service record to his God his family his business and his community Needing God s help to transform his will and to interpret the world in a constructive rational manner the underlying intent of his daily journal writing was to keep his commitment to an ethic of benevolence and of the affirmation of the goodness of human beings Wood elucidates the cultivation of civic minded masculinity in the context of Victorian Maritime Canada analyzing the multiple facets of the character ideal and emphasizing its important role in Victorians understanding of their life experiences In the process Wood reveals many underlying assumptions about social change and about civic discourse The book also describes how the tremendous economic upheavals experienced by many entrepreneurs in the late 1860s to 1880s tempered their evangelical zeal and made it increasingly difficult for them to achieve a balanced and humane perspective on their own lives Evangelical Balance Sheet will appeal to a broad audience interested in social history imperial studies gender studies especially changing ideas of masculinity and manhood Atlantic Canada studies and local history of the Pictou region Histoire populaire de l'amour au Québec —
