

Building relationships, strong and true,
will help you become a better you.

Strive each day to do your best,
and let your spirit be at rest,
for a better person you will be,
when you embody love and unity.

To start, look deep within your heart,
and let go of fear that keeps you apart,
from others, and from yourself, depart,
and find the love that is in your heart.

Be kind to those that you may meet,
and spread love in every heartbeat.

purpose and permanence in art. Constantly trying to undo his art education, he would set up systems that discouraged the conventional and the consistent. He drew with both hands at once, preserved the discarded and revealed in the transitory. Grease stains, mold formations, insect borings, and rotting foodstuffs were just some of the materials used, both out of a fascination with their painterly textural aspects and for their innate ability to make time visible and play to chance. More is better, he once said, and more there always was. Roth never stopped working, and he believed that everything could be art, from his sketch pad to the table he sat at, the telephone he talked on, or his friend's kitchen. The kitchen was later sold to a museum. Roth Time A Dieter Roth Retrospective is published to mark the first major survey exhibition of the artist's work since his death in 1998. Five decades of drawings, graphics, books, paintings, objects, installations, films, and video works are represented. The publication offers a window into Roth's creative world, reflecting him and his era. The exhibition is organized by the Schaulager with The Museum of Modern Art, New York, and the Museum Ludwig, Cologne. The Court Magazine and Monthly Critic, and Lady's Magazine and Museum, 1833 The Publisher, 1903
