Love Poems And Other Revolutionary Actions:

Love Poems and Other Revolutionary Actions Roberta B. Sykes, 1988 Brief introduction as to how she became a poet second introduction is about what she has done and how she has developed since the first edition Love poems and other revolutionary actions Bobbi Sykes, 1990 Resourceful Reading Katherine Bode, Professor Robert Dixon, 2010-01-11 This collection provides the first comprehensive account of eResearch and the new empiricism as they are transforming the field of Australian literary studies in the twenty first century By the Book Patrick Buckridge, Belinda McKay, 2007-09 Queensland a place of barren land and wild politics with subtropical weather beaches and natural wonders is the subject of this rich literary history Chronicling a wide range of literature from the first days of European settlement to the present day this collection touches upon thematic topics such as travel stories writing for children and indigenous writings The role of institutions such as schools public libraries the press and publishers as well as how they have contributed to the shaping of Queensland's literary development is also included The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry Entangled Subjects Michèle Grossman, 2013 Indigenous Australian cultures were long known to the world mainly from the writing of anthropologists ethnographers historians missionaries and others Indigenous Australians themselves have worked across a range of genres to challenge and reconfigure this textual legacy so that they are now strongly represented through their own life narratives of identity history politics and culture Even as Indigenous authored texts have opened up new horizons of engagement with Aboriginal knowledge and representation however the textual politics of some of these narratives particularly when cross culturally produced or edited can remain haunted by colonially grounded assumptions about orality and literacy Through an examination of key moments in the theorizing of orality and literacy and key texts in cross culturally produced Indigenous life writing Entangled Subjects explores how some of these works can sustain rather than trouble the frontier zone established by modernity in relation to talk and text Yet contemporary Indigenous vernaculars offer radical new approaches to how we might move beyond the orality literacy frontier and how modernity and the a modern are Productively entangled in the process Indigenous Literature of Oceania Nicholas J. Goetzfridt, 1995-02-28 Oceania has a rich and growing literary tradition The imaginative literature that emerged in the 1960s often reflected the forms and structures of European literature though the ideas expressed were typically anticolonial After three decades the literature of Oceania has become much more complex in terms of style as well as content and authors write in a multiplicity of styles and voices While the written literature of Oceania is continuously gaining more critical attention questions about the imposition of European literary standards and values as a further extension of colonialism in the Pacific have become a central issue This book is a detailed survey of the expanding amount of critical and interpretive material written about the imaginative literature of authors from Oceania It focuses on commentary and scholarship concerned with the poetry fiction and drama written in English by indigenous peoples of the Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia The criticisms have appeared in academic books and journals since the mid 1960s They have developed to the point at which critical issues related to decolonization and the expression of ideas without having to first satisfy foreign expectations often determine the direction of such discussions Entries are grouped in topical chapters and each entry includes an extensive annotation An introductory essay summarizes the evolution of Pacific literature

The Spinifex Quiz Book Susan Hawthorne,1993 Who invented hieroglyphics Who did Einstein s mathematics Who led the defence of Viet Nam in 40 AD Who invented the first computer Who built the pyramid at Giza Who developed the merino sheep Who was the first writer in the world Who invented the wheel All were women When the next person asks Where are all the famous women artists inventors architects writers scientists this book will make it easy to find their names Women who do and women who don't join the women's movement Robyn Rowland,2024-02-29 First published in 1984 Women who do and women who don t join the women s movement asks a variety of women some of whom chose to align themselves with the women s movement others who chose not to to write about their lives and the reasons for choices they have made Where do the differences lie in the experience of feminists and antifeminists Can clear dividing lines be drawn which place two groups of strong intelligent women on opposing sides in the battle to survive in a man s world In tackling these questions the contributors create a diverse pattern of women s interpretations of being female with surprisingly similarities emerging between the two groups particularly in terms of their experience of self This book will be of interest to students of women s studies gender studies and sociology
