Poems John Bayley, 1992 Although Housman's three collections of poems the third published posthumously have remained continuously popular they have not received much serious critical attention Bayley makes up for the omission in this thorough and comprehensive reappraisal of the whole oeuvre placing Housman's achievement in the context of the poetry of his own time and of more recent European and American poetry Close analysis and comparison with other poets Hardy Frost Edward Thomas Larkin and Paul Celan prove illuminating in relation to a poet who has usually been considered something of an odd man out and even an anachronism in the modern era Bayley explores and explains the continuing appeal of the poetry to present day readers and the nature of craftsmanship and psychology which lie behind its deceptive simplicities The book is a valuable introduction to Housman's achievement for the specialist and the poetry lover alike The Queerness of Native American Literature Lisa Tatonetti, 2014-11-30 With a new and more inclusive perspective for the growing field of queer Native studies Lisa Tatonetti provides a genealogy of queer Native writing after Stonewall Looking across a broad range of literature Tatonetti offers the first overview and guide to queer Native literature from its rise in the 1970s to the present day In The Queerness of Native American Literature Tatonetti recovers ties between two simultaneous renaissances of the late twentieth century queer literature and Native American literature She foregrounds how Indigeneity intervenes within and against dominant interpretations of queer genders and sexualities recovering unfamiliar texts from the 1970s while presenting fresh cogent readings of well known works In juxtaposing the work of Native authors including the longtime writer activist Paula Gunn Allen the first contemporary queer Native writer Maurice Kenny the poet Janice Gould the novelist Louise Erdrich and the filmmakers Sherman Alexie Thomas Bezucha and Jorge Manuel Manzano with the work of queer studies scholars Tatonetti proposes resourceful interventions in foundational concepts in queer studies while also charting new directions for queer Native studies Throughout she argues that queerness has been central to Native American literature for decades showing how queer Native literature and Two Spirit critiques challenge understandings of both Indigeneity and sexuality Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1993 Twentieth-century Theatre and Drama in English Heinz Kosok, Jürgen Kamm, 1999 Critical Survey of Poetry: Holmes Frank Northen Magill, 1992 Vol 8 includes guidelines to poetry explication Poems Sextus Propertius, 2018-09-27 The Poetry Book Society Autumn 2018 Recommended Translation Asked to name the great Latin love poets today's reader is likely to offer Catullus Ovid Virgil Horace Propertius a successor of the first and influential peer to the others has not been blessed by posterity Yet at their best his poems match any of the period They are poems of love of desire of insecurity and obsession of struggle too as they resist the Augustan Empire's attempts to turn its love poets into propagandists The result is a highly refined irony a subtlety of tone and humour that is unique Patrick Worsnip's translations bring out Propertius playfulness and his psychological acuity reinstating his poems at the heart of Latin literature's golden age Andrew Marvell, Sexual Orientation, and Seventeenth-Century Poetry George Klawitter, 2017-09-01 Andrew Marvell Sexual Orientation and Seventeenth Century

Poetry examines the important Interregnum Restoration poet Andrew Marvell against a background of his contemporary lyric poets His major works from the early elegies to the later political pieces are discussed with a view to unmasking the poet's own sexuality and his reflection of prevailing sexual attitudes Popular poems like the Mower poems and The Nymph Complaining for the Death of her Fawn are explicated in depth as well as lesser known poems like The Unfortunate Lover and The Gallery Marvell often described as a chameleon has teased readers for hundreds of years This new book will help both new readers as well as established Marvellians to understand cryptic sexual meanings and references in the verses Poems are explicated against current heteronormative theory as well as recent work on homoeroticism autoeroticism and celibacy George Klawitter has devoted much of his recent scholarly life to a study of Marvell's lyric pieces and brings to this new book fresh insights into the suggestive intent of the poet's works

A Shaping Joy Cleanth Brooks, 2024-10-31 In A Shaping Joy originally published in 1971 Cleanth Brooks writes about modern literature and the criticism that has been developed to deal with it Most of the essays concern poets and novelists of the twentieth century but there are also discussions of nineteenth century American writers such as Mark Twain and Edgar Allen Poe and of traditional English poets such as Wordsworth Milton and Marlowe Among the functions of literature described in the first essay are those of nourishing the imagination and keeping the language alive and the channels of communication open The criticism contained in the essays that follow admirably exemplifies these concerns Whether writing on the world of William Faulkner and the literature of the American South or on subjects more familiar to the British reader Joyce Auden and T S Eliot for example Professor Brooks keeps the methods of communication marvelously unblocked It is criticism of the rarest kind alert imaginative and wholly invigorating This book will be a beneficial read for students and researchers of English literature particularly of literary criticism

Jane Ford, Kim Edwards Keates, Patricia Pulham, 2015-10-14 This volume marks the first sustained study to interrogate how and why issues of sexuality desire and economic processes intersect in the literature and culture of the Victorian fin de siècle At the end of the nineteenth century the move towards new models of economic thought marked the transition from a marketplace centred around the fulfilment of needs to one ministering to anything that might potentially be desired This collection considers how the literature of the period meditates on the interaction between economy and desire doing so with particular reference to the themes of fetishism homoeroticism the literary marketplace social hierarchy and consumer culture Drawing on theoretical and conceptual approaches including queer theory feminist theory and gift theory contributors offer original analyses of work by canonical and lesser known writers including Oscar Wilde A E Housman Baron Corvo Vernon Lee Michael Field and Lucas Malet The collection builds on recent critical developments in fin de siècle literature including major interventions in the areas of Decadence sexuality and gender studies and asks for instance how did late nineteenth century writing schematise the libidinal and somatic dimensions of economic exchange How might we define the relationship between eroticism and the formal economies of literary production performance And what relation exists between advertising consumer culture and dissident sexuality in fin de siecle literary discourses This book marks an important contribution to 19th Century and Victorian literary studies and enhances the field of fin de si cle studies more generally
