those who ran it in its heyday and who helped to turn it into a universal byword for terror on the screen Monsters in the Closet Harry M. Benshoff, 1997-11-15 Monster in the Closet is a history of the horror film that explores the genre's relationship to the social and cultural history of homosexuality in America Drawing on a wide variety of films and primary source materials including censorship files critical reviews promotional materials fanzines men's magazines and popular news weeklies the book examines the historical figure of the movie monster in relation to various medical psychological religious and social models of homosexuality While recent work within gay and lesbian studies has explored how the genetic tropes of the horror film intersect with popular culture's understanding of queerness this is the first book to examine how the concept of the monster queer has evolved from era to era From the gay and lesbian sensibilities encoded into the form and content of the classical Hollywood horror film to recent films which play upon AIDS related fears Monster in the Closet examines how the horror film started and continues to demonize or quite literally monsterize queer sexuality and what the pleasures and costs of such representations might be both for individual spectators and culture at large Horror Film Stars, 3d ed. Michael R. Pitts, 2024-10-09 John Carradine Jamie Lee Curtis Yvonne De Carlo Faith Domergue Boris Karloff Otto Kruger Bela Lugosi Jack Palance Vincent Price Santo and George Zucco are just a few of the 80 horror film stars that are covered in this major standard reference work now in its third edition The author has revised much of the information from the two previous editions and has added several more performers to the lineup of horror film stars The performers are given well rounded career bios and detailed horror film write ups with complete filmographies provided for those most associated with horror science fiction and fantasy movies and genre oriented filmographies for the lesser stars

Psychoanalysing Ambivalence with Freud and Lacan Stephanie Swales, Carol Owens, 2019-11-27 Taking a deep dive into contemporary Western culture this book suggests we are all fundamentally ambivalent beings A great deal has been written about how to love to be kinder more empathic a better person and so on But trying to love without dealing with our ambivalence with our hatred is often a recipe for failure Any attempt therefore to love our neighbour as ourselves or even for that matter to love ourselves must recognise that we love where we hate and we hate where we love Psychoanalysis beginning with Freud has claimed that to be in two minds about something or someone is characteristic of human subjectivity Owens and Swales trace the concept of ambivalence through its various iterations in Freudian and Lacanian psychoanalysis in order to question how the contemporary subject deals with its ambivalence They argue that experiences of ambivalence are in present day cultural life increasingly excised or foreclosed and that this foreclosure has symptomatic effects at the individual as well as social level Owens and Swales examine ambivalence as it is at work in mourning in matters of sexuality and in our enjoyment under neoliberalism and capitalism Above all the authors consider how today's ambivalent subject relates to the racially religiously culturally or sexually different neighbour as a result of the current societal dictate of complete tolerance of the other In this vein Owens and Swales argue that ambivalence about one's own jouissance is at the very roots of xenophobia Peppered with relevant and stimulating examples from clinical work film television politics and everyday life Psychoanalysing Ambivalence breathes new life into an old concept and will appeal to any reader academic or clinician with an interest in psychoanalytic ideas Roy Ward Baker Geoff Mayer, 2004 This book traces the career of Roy Ward Baker one of the great survivors of the British film and television industry He directed the landmark British film Morning Departure 1949 worked at Twentieth Century Fox in Hollywood in the early 1950s where he directed Marilyn Monroe and the best version of the Titanic disaster A Night to Remember in 1958 He then moved to television series such as The Avengers The Saint and Minder Later Baker re emerged as a major director of science fiction Quatermass and The Pit and horror films Asylum Geoff Mayer provides an industrial and aesthetic context in which to understand the interrelationship between a skilled classical director and the transformation of the British film industry in the 1950s

British Horror Film Locations Derek Pykett, 2014-01-10 Designed as a source for enthusiasts of British horror films this guide reveals the shooting locations of more than 100 films released between 1932 and 2006 from The Abominable Doctor Phibes 1971 to Witchfinder General 1968 Each entry includes cast crew credits a brief plot synopsis and a description of the film s in studio or on site shooting locations many include modern day photographs of the sites Separate chapters provide in depth accounts of individual locations For the studio locations the writeups include a complete list of the films produced at each studio and a brief description of the studio s historical development Accounts of the on site locations feature an in depth physical description of the location and any available information on its present purpose and ownership
