Luttrell Psalter:

Luttrell Psalter Jane Backhouse,1990 Written and illuminated in the early 14th century for Sir Geoffrey Luttrell of Irnham in Lincolnshire it is known for its long series of attractive marginal illustrations showing scenes of rural life in medieval England The Luttrell Psalter ,1992 The World of the Luttrell Psalter Michelle P. Brown,2006 One of the most appealing arresting of medieval manuscripts the Luttrell psalter was commissioned in the 1320s by a wealthy Lincolnshire landowner Sir Geoffrey Luttrell of Irnham Painted in vibrant colour embellished with gold silver the vitality inventiveness of its decoration is almost unique Fourteenth Century England IV J. S. Hamilton,2000 This series provides a forum for the most recent research into the political social and ecclesiastical history of the 14th century Catalogue of the Luttrell Psalter and the Bedford Horae ... Sotheby & Co. (London, England),1929 Mirror In Parchment Michael Camille,2013-06-01 What is the status of visual evidence in history Can we actually see the past through images Where are the traces of previous lives deposited Michael Camille addresses these important questions in Mirror in Parchment a lively searching study of one medieval manuscript its patron producers and historical progeny The richly illuminated Luttrell Psalter was created for the English nobleman Sir Geoffrey Luttrell 1276 1345 Inexpensive mechanical illustration has since disseminated the book s images to a much wider audience hence the Psalter s representations of manorial life have come to profoundly shape our modern idea of what medieval English people high and low looked like at work and at play Alongside such supposedly truthful representations the Psalter presents myriad images of fantastic monsters and beasts These patently false images have largely been disparaged or ignored by modern historians and art historians alike for they challenge the credibility of those pictures in the Luttrell Psalter that we wish to see as real In the conviction that medieval images were not generally intended to reflect daily life but rather to shape a new reality Michael Camille analyzes the Psalter s famous pictures as representations of the world imagined and real of its original patron Addressed are late medieval chivalric ideals physical sites of power and the boundaries of Sir Geoffrey s imagined community wherein agricultural laborers and fabulous monsters play a similar ideological role The Luttrell Psalter thus emerges as a complex social document of the world as its patron hoped and feared it might be Medieval Rural Life in the Luttrell Psalter Janet Backhouse,Ralph William Sackville,2000-01-01 Attractive marginal illustrations in this celebrated psalter show scenes of life in medieval England the annual cycle of growing crops domestic animals sports pastimes entertainers and musicians The Luttrell psalter Catholic Church,2006 The Luttrell psalter Michelle P. Brown,2006 The Luttrell Psalter is one of the British Library s greatest treasures It is an illustrated manuscript dating from the fourteenth century and originally made for wealthy landowner Sir Geoffrey Luttrell 1276 1345 The superbly detailed illustrations provide a rare glimpse on to daily medieval life in Lincolnshire as well as depicting some truly fantastical creatures and grotesques This facsimile edition reproduces this magnificent manuscript in full and also contains a scholarly introduction by Professor Michelle P Brown putting the work in its historical context British Library 2006 Very few people before have had the chance to turn and admire these wonderful pages now it is open to everyone to do so in the comfort and leisure of their own home This is a rare opportunity to own a superlative facsimile of one of the greatest medieval manuscripts anywhere in the world and we anticipate demand to be high Heraldry, Pageantry and Social Display in Medieval England Peter R. Knights and Warhorses Andrew Ayton, 1999 Dr Ayton has transformed understanding of Edward III's armies compulsory reading for anyone interested in the Hundred Years War

WAR IN HISTORY Michael Prestwich The mounted armoured knight is one of the most potent symbols of medieval civilisation indeed for much of the middle ages the armoured warhorse was what defined a man as a member of the military class However despite the status of the knightly warrior in medieval society the military service of the later medieval English aristocracy remains an unaccountably neglected subject and the warhorse itself has never attracted a major study based upon archival sources This book seeks to open up new fields of research it focuses on the horse inventories documents which offer detailed lists of men at arms and their appraised warhorses the valuation of which is a measure of its owner's social and military status Dr Ayton is primarily concerned with the inventories and related records for Edward III's reign a period which witnessed significant changes in the organisation of the English fighting machine The documents produced during this period of military revolution cast valuable light on the character and attitudes of the aristocratic military community at a time when its traditional role was in the course of re-evaluation Dr ANDREW AYTON is senior lecturer in history at the University of Hull

The Idea of the Castle in Medieval England Abigail Wheatley, 2015 Medieval castles have traditionally been examined as feats of military engineering tools of feudal control This book presents a different perspective by exploring the castle as a cultural reflection of the society that produced it seen through art literature
