The Sacred Combe Simon Barnes,2016-01-14 Reflections on the natural world and our place within it from one of our finest natural history writers nature writing at its very best We ve all got one A secret special place Hidden Enclosed A little greener and more fertile than the world outside Here the birds are slightly more exotic slightly more confiding the grass greener and the fruit sweeter To know such a place to love such a place is part of being human Sometimes it s a place of myth like the Garden of Eden Sometimes it exists in fictional form like Narnia or Shangri La Sometimes it comes in memories of a golden day in childhood or in a glorious doomed love affair Sometimes it s a real place that we daren t go back to for fear that it or we had changed And just occasionally it s a real place A place where you leave a small piece of your heart and return as often as you can so as not to lose it It s a place of privilege Simon Barnes found such a place when he woke in his first morning in the Luangwa Valley in Zambia to find elephants eating the roof of his hut It was a homecoming and he has been faithful to that passion ever since Here he has known peace danger discomfort fear and a profound sense of oneness with the Valley with all nature and with the world With the Valley he found completion This book explores the special places of the mind and the world with special reference to the Luangwa Valley and the glorious support of the Valley s great artist Pam Carr It s a book about the quest for paradise and the eternal human search to find such a paradise everywhere
