Machine Sex And Other Stories:

Machine Sex and Other Stories Candace Jane Dorsey, 1990 And Other Stories George Bowering, 2001 Canada's first Poet Laureate takes the theme of postmodernity one step further with 23 short stories from across the nation Sex, machines and navels Fred Botting, 2024-07-30 Available again in paperback this study offers a rigorous critical re-reading of fictions of humanity, history, technology and postmodern culture. Taking psychoanalysis into cyberspace, the book develops an innovative theoretical perspective on the relationship between bodies and machines to offer a focused re-examination of notions of desire, metaphor, sexed identity and difference and the process of technological transformation. The book unravels one figure in a detailed, lucid and extensive revision of Lacanian psychoanalysis in association with postmodern theory, feminism and deconstruction. Problematising the easy conjunction of human bodies and inhuman technology, the novel opens into networks of desire, history, culture and machines. Linked to the unconscious, to jokes and dreams, navels appear on the bodies of replicants and in the technological matrix, a strange excess in a future imagined in terms of corporeal meat or posthuman machine. Exploring the significance of this omphalic excess, the book closely examines postmodern and cyberpunk texts by Thomas Pynchon, Graham Swift, Julian Barnes, William Gibson, Rudy Rucker alongside detailed readings of contemporary cultural critics and theorists He Wasn't There Again Today Candace Jane Dorsey, 2023-10-10 The witty, queer, accidental detective of the Epitome Apartments is back. While helping to solve a community murder, she also needs to convince police that she didn't revenge-kill the man who took everything from her. The nameless amateur sleuth of The Adventures of Isabel and What's the Matter with Mary Jane has often said that death is too good for Lockwood Chiles, who is in prison for killing her beloved partner Nathan and her close friend Pris, and makes no secret that she hates the man who massacred her. Shot at happiness. So when Chiles ends up dead in his cell, it's no wonder she becomes a prime suspect. Meanwhile, an aggressive band of men in military-adjacent garb turn a string of assaults against nameless's unhoused neighbors into full-bore murder right behind the Epitome Apartments, and she rashly promises to help bring them to law. As if that's not enough, unscrupulous parties are scheming to strip her of her inheritance money she and Nathan had intended would address the city's lack of harm-reduction services and low-income housing. Now it is nameless's mission to clear her name and to hold her tattered community together all while she's coming apart herself Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature R. This pathbreaking work uses the approaching conclusion of the second millennium as a context for discussing questions concerning temporal division and narrative continuity It investigates assumptions about teleology and eschatology while exploring the ways in which temporal division affects the creation and production of cultural texts and reciprocally the ways in which narrative techniques forms and conventions shape explain and justify history Through this exploration the volume examines how temporal thresholds tend simultaneously to reinforce and to disrupt conceptual boundaries The sixteen essays use the significance typically invested in historical junctures marked by a centenary advance to investigate perceived paradigm shifts and the consequent reactions to these implicit and explicit transitions By doing so they also seek to illuminate the relations between narrative and history and to enhance understanding of our present historical moment
