F. Benson,2015-11-10 E F Benson s beloved Mapp and Lucia novels are sparkling classic comedies of manners set against the petty snobberies and competitive maneuverings of English village society in the 1920s and 1930s Benson s series revolves around two unforgettable characters both forceful and irrepressible women who dominate their respective villages in southern England and who will eventually end up hilariously at war with each other Lucia is the more deadly of the two with her pretentious tastes treacherous charm and lust for power Miss Elizabeth Mapp on the other hand is younger and more forceful and able to terrify her opponents into submission Benson introduces these splendid comic creations in the first two novels of the series Queen Lucia 1920 and Miss Mapp 1922 Miss Mapp E. F. E. F. Benson,2013-11 Miss Elizabeth Mapp might have been forty and she had taken advantage of this opportunity by being just a year or two older Her face was of high vivid colour and was corrugated by chronic rage and curiosity but these vivifying emotions had preserved to her an astonishing activity of mind and body which fully accounted for the comparative adolescence with which she would have been credited anywhere except in the charming little town which she had inhabited so long Anger and the gravest suspicions about everybody had kept her young and on the boil She sat on this hot July morning like a large bird of prey at the very convenient window of her garden room the ample bow of which formed a strategical point of high value This garden room solid and spacious was built at right angles to the front of her house and looked straight down the very interesting street which debouched at its lower end into the High Street of Tilling Exactly opposite her front door the road turned sharply so that as she looked out from this projecting window her own house was at right angles on her left the street in question plunged steeply downwards in front of her and to her right she commanded an uninterrupted view of its further course which terminated in the disused graveyard surrounding the big Norman church Anything of interest about the church however could be gleaned from a guide book and Miss Mapp did not occupy herself much with such coldly venerable topics Far more to her mind was the fact that between the church and her strategic window was the cottage in which her gardener lived and she could thus see when not otherwise engaged whether he went home before twelve or failed to get back to her garden again by one for he had to cross the street in front of her very eyes
