Missed Connections 1-3 Jeffe Kennedy, 2018-02-01 The first three books of the Missed Connections romance series now combined into a single volume Last Dance It was five minutes His hand on the small of her back His eyes watching like there was no one else in the crowded club His body a breath away from hers A kiss full of heat and need and promise But then the stranger disappears And Charlotte Emory can't forget him Worse according to the dating Rules she and her four best friends swear by all she can do is post an ad online No names no numbers Just a missed connection and the hope he'll meet her and see where another dance leads Except Mr Mystery has his game too and he isn't playing for only one night He tempts Charley into a daring exploration of power lust and suspense where even the most innocent requests sound indecent and the indecent ones make her burn all night If she plays by the Rules they'll never get past teasing each other But rules were made to be broken With a Prince The guy on the train is just Marcia's type A face like an angel a scent like raw honey treats her like he has a white horse and suit of armor stowed in his messenger bag Perfect Too perfect No guy like that would be interested in prim awkward Marcia notorious goody goody and a twentysomething still clutching her v card She's been following rules her whole life but somewhere the game changed And left her behind So when she meets Damien with his rumbling motorbike gleaming piercings and wicked imagination she doesn't care that he's the exact opposite of her type Her type would never dare her into such shocking fiendishly inventive adventures and she can't wait to say yes Yes to whiskey in the middle of a workday Yes to letting her hands roam over his body from the back of his bike Yes to a fling full of wild abandon and absolutely no long term potential Except Damien's not just the straightforward bad boy she imagined And as they burn through Chicago's nights Marcia can't shake the fear that this happiness is just another fairy tale Since Last Christmas This Christmas Amy is getting what she wants Her career in fashion design is taking off Her boyfriend Brad is the dictionary definition of a catch Soon he'll buy the massive diamond that makes it official she's nobody's hard luck case anymore Her old friend Jon ought to understand A decade ago he was the other scholarship kid with a crap family He got her quirks her insecurities her rules her passions Now he swears she's not really happy and she's forgotten something that proves it When Amy throws away everything she's worked for with one impulsive impossible word she's horrified she's proved Jon right and strangely secretly excited That he knows more than the past she wants to forget he knows what heats her up what makes her heart race But remembering what she's forgotten since last Christmas might mean breaking all the rules Missed Connections Elaine Ford, 1984

Emancipatory Perspectives on Madness Marie Brown, Robin S. Brown, 2020-12-28 This collection offers a diverse range of perspectives that seek to find meaning in madness Mainstream biomedical approaches tend to interpret experiences commonly labelled psychotic as being indicative of a biological illness that can best be ameliorated with prescription drugs In seeking to counter this perspective psychosocial outlooks commonly focus on the role of trauma and environmental stress Although an appreciation for the role of trauma has been critical in expanding the ways in which we view madness an emphasis of this kind may nevertheless continue to perpetuate a subtle form of reductivism madness continues to be understood as the product of a deficit In seeking to move beyond causal reductivism this book explores a variety of perspectives on the question of finding inherent meaning in madness and extreme states Contributors to this book are distinguished writers and researchers from a variety of international and interdisciplinary perspectives Topics span the fields of depth psychology and psychoanalysis creativity Indigenous and postcolonial approaches neurodiversity mad studies and mysticism and spirituality This collection will be of interest to mental health professionals students and scholars of the humanities and social sciences and people with lived experience of madness and extreme states Readers will come away with an appreciation of the more generative aspects of madness and a recognition that these experiences may be important for both personal and collective healing
