Missing Believed Lost The Great British Film Search:

Missing Believed Lost Allen Eyles, David Meeker, 1992 No Marketing Blurb British Popular Films 1929-1939 Stephen Shafer, 2003-09-02 Challenges the conventional assumption that British feature films of the Thirties were oriented mostly towards the middle class and demonstrates that far from being alienated working class men and women flocked to the cinema Historical Dictionary of British Cinema Alan Burton, Steve Chibnall, 2013-07-11 British cinema has been around from the very birth of motion pictures from black and white to color from talkies to sound and now 3D it has been making a major contribution to world cinema Many of its actors and directors have stayed at home but others ventured abroad like Charlie Chaplin and Alfred Hitchcock Today it is still going strong the only real competition to Hollywood turning out films which appeal not only to Brits just think of Bridget Jones while busily adding to franchises like James Bond and Harry Potter So this Historical Dictionary of British Cinema has a lot of ground to cover This it does with over 300 dictionary entries informing us about significant actors producers and directors outstanding films and serials organizations and studios different films genres from comedy to horror and memorable films among other things Two appendixes provide lists of award winners Meanwhile the chronology covers over a century of history These parts provide the details countless details while the introduction offers the big story And the extensive bibliography points toward other sources of information The British Horseracing Film Stephen Glynn, 2019-01-05 This book constitutes the first full volume dedicated to an academic analysis of horseracing in British cinema Through comprehensive contextual histories of film production and reception together with detailed textual analysis this book explores the aesthetic and emotive power of the enduringly popular horseracing genre its ideologically inflected landscape and the ways in which horse owners and riders bookmakers and punters have been represented on British screen The films discussed span from the 1890s to the present day and include silent shorts quota quickies and big budget biopics A work of social and film history The British Horseracing Film demonstrates how the so called sport of kings functions as an accessible institutional structure through which to explore cinematic discussions about the British nation but also and equally national approaches to British cinema A Light Affliction: a History of Film Preservation and Restoration Michael Binder, 2014 A history of film preservation and restoration telling the story from the earliest days of the cinema to the modern days of digital restorations The cinema was invented in the Victorian era but for the first four decades of its existence almost no effort was made to preserve the millions of feet of celluloid which rolled through the cameras and projectors of the world As a result thousands of movies were lost forever In the 1930s the first concerted attempts at film preservation were begun by pioneering individuals such as Iris Barry at New York's Museum of Modern Art Ernest Lindgren at the British Film Institute and the indomitable Henri Langlois at the Cin math que fran aise a man who performed heroics in occupied France to save the world's cinematic heritage from destruction by the Nazis The 1980s video boom encouraged the studios finally to instigate asset protection programmes and in the digital age new methods of producing exhibiting and restoring motion pictures emerged Film Restoration L. Enticknap, 2013-11-13 This is the first monograph length work intended to enable readers with a humanities background and the general public to understand what the processes and techniques of film restoration do and do not involve attempting to integrate systematically a discussion about related technological and cultural issues Ghost Images Tom Ruffles, 2015-03-07 The possibility of life after death is a significant theme in cinema in which ghosts return to the world of the living to wrap up unfinished business console their survivors visit lovers or just enjoy a well wreaked scaring This work focuses on film depictions of survival after death from meetings with the ghost of Elvis to AIDS related ghosts apparitions hauntings mediumship representations of heaven angels near death experiences possession poltergeists and all the other ways in which the living interact with the dead on screen The work opens with a historical perspective which outlines the development of pre cinematic technology for projecting phantoms and discusses the use of these skills in early ghost cinema English language sound films are then examined thematically with topics ranging from the expiation of sins to hungry ghosts Six of the most significant films Dead of Night A Matter of Life and Death The Innocents The Haunting The Shining and Jacob's Ladder are given a detailed analysis A conclusion filmography and bibliography follow Visual Methods in Social Research Marcus Banks, David Zeitlyn, 2015-05-18 The Second Edition of this popular text confirms the book's status as an important forerunner in the field of visual methods Combining the theoretical practical and technical the authors discuss changing technologies the role of the internet and the impact of social media Presenting an interdisciplinary guide to visual methods they explore both the creation and interpretation of visual images and their use within different methodological approaches This clear articulate book is full of practical tips on publishing and presenting the results of visual research and how to use film and photographic archives This book will be an indispensable guide for anyone using or creating visual images in their research Cheer Up! Adrian Wright, 2020 Who will remember Our Gracie waving goodbye Jack Buchanan constantly bumping into Elsie Randolph Bobby Howes celebrating the invention of the Belisha Beacon doing a cat duet with Wylie Watson and giving ideas to Rene Ray about ham sandwiches John Wood and Claire Luce climbing the steps of the lighthouse and breathing on windows in Over She Goes these accompanied by some of the most deft British and American composers of their time their work lighter and freer than air We catch those airs still breathing on windows and wondering what became of it all Book jacket British Film Institute Film and Television Handbook 1993 David Leafe, 1992-12-01 No Marketing Blurb The SAGE Handbook of Intellectual Property Matthew David, Debora Halbert, 2014-11-18 This Handbook brings together scholars from around the world in addressing the global significance of controversies over and alternatives to intellectual property IP today It brings together over fifty of the leading authors in this field across the spectrum of academic disciplines from law economics geography sociology politics and anthropology This volume addresses the full spectrum of IP issues including copyright patent trademarks and trade secrets as well as parallel rights and novel applications In addition to addressing the role of IP in an increasingly information based and globalized economy and culture it also challenges the utility and viability of IP today and addresses a range of alternative futures Directors in British and Irish Cinema Robert Murphy, 2019-07-25 A guide to directors who have worked in the British and Irish film industries between 1895 and 2005 Each of its 980 entries on individuals directors gives a resume of the director's career evaluates their achievements and provides a complete filmography It is useful for those interested in film making in Britain and Ireland Film History, 1994
