No Shame for the Sun Shahla Haeri, 2002-11-01 This groundbreaking work sheds new light on the status conflicts and social realities of educated Muslim women in Pakistan Six candid interviews introduce readers to a class of professional Muslim women that is rarely if ever acknowledged in the West These women tell of conflicts and compromises with family kin and community while facing violence archaic marriage rules and locally entrenched codes of conduct With brave eloquence they speak of human dignity and gender equality of economic deprivation and social justice and of feminism and fundamentalism Challenging stereotypes No Shame for the Sun reveals the uniqueness of each person and diversity in the life experience of Pakistani Muslim women including their world views and the struggles to change their society Through their struggles professional Pakistani women have become conscious of their own and other women's situations in their country Because they exercise power and authority in their chosen fields

they risk losing their families support and antagonizing their communities Carefully detailed and meticulously researched this book offers a much needed perspective on the changing circumstances of Pakistani women along with a view of established patterns and structural constraints within Pakistan On a broader level it examines Western misconceptions regarding Islam a religion that crosses many borders and cultures Women of Jordan Amira El-Azhary

Sonbol,2022-04-12 In the first book to address the dilemma faced by Jordanian women in the workforce Amira El Azhary Sonbol delineates the constraints that exist in a number of legal practices namely penal codes that permit violence against Muslim women and personal status laws that require a husband s permission for a woman to work Leniency in honor crimes and early marriage and motherhood for girls are other factors that extend the patriarchal power throughout a woman s life and ultimately deny her full legal competency Significantly Sonbol notes that society s accepting as Islamic the legal constraints that control women s work constitutes a major barrier to any effort to change them even though historically the Islamic sharia actually encourages women s work and despite the fact that Muslim women have contributed materially to their society s economy The author covers new ground as she effectively illustrates how Jordanian laws governing gender family and work combine with laws and legal philosophies derived from tribal traditional Islamic and modern laws to form a strict patriarchal structure Pioneers Or Pawns? Marina de Regt,2007-10-22 Marina de Regt provides an invaluable analysis of gender health care training and globalization demonstrating women s positive impact on the complex workings of Yemeni health institutions Using the Hodeida Urban Primary Health Care Project as a case study the author looks at how development policies of the state interconnect with agendas of global donor organizations and the employment of women in the face of social disapproval and barriers to advancement Her highly accessible writing blends keen observations steeped in personal experience with a thorough grounding in theoretical literature Through interviews and the experience of working directly with the women she writes about De Regt gives voice to her subjects and offers an extraordinary portrait of the lives emotions and work of women dedicated to healing in a time of great political change This vitally important work challenges not only preconceived notions of the way in which health care is distributed in the Middle East but also questions the way women participate facilitate and resist the political change around them Resistance, Repression, and Gender Politics in Occupied Palestine and Jordan Frances S. Hasso,2020-12-22 Open access no commercial reuse Emissaries in Early Modern Literature and Culture Gitanjali Shahani,2016-04-29 With its emphasis on early modern emissaries and their role in England s expansionary ventures and cross cultural encounters across the globe this collection of essays takes the messenger figure as a focal point for the discussion of transnational exchange and intercourse in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries It sees the emissary as embodying the processes of representation and communication within the world of the text itself an emissary that strives to communicate and re present certain perceptions of the real Drawing attention to the limits and licenses of communication the emissary is a reminder of the alien quality of foreign language and the symbolic power of performative gestures and rituals Contributions to this collection examine different kinds of cross cultural activities e g diplomacy trade translation espionage missionary endeavors in different world areas e g Asia the Mediterranean the Levant the New World via different critical methods and approaches They take up the literary and cultural productions and representations of ambassadors factors traders translators spies middlemen merchants missionaries and other agents who served as complex conduits for the global transport of goods religious ideologies and socio cultural practices throughout the early modern period Authors in the collection investigate the multiple ways in which the emissary became enmeshed in emerging discourses of racial religious gender and class differences They consider how the emissary s role might have contributed to an idealized progressive vision of a borderless world or conversely permeated and dissolved borders and boundaries between peoples only to further specific group interests

Taken for Wonder Naghmeh Sohrabi, 2012-05-17 Taken for Wonder focuses on nineteenth century travelogues authored by Iranians in Europe and argues for a methodological shift in the way scholars interpret travel writing

Orientalism Versus Occidentalism Laetitia Nanquette, 2017-02-28 This book highlights the role of cultural representations and perceptions such as when Iran is represented in the French media as a rogue state obsessed with its nuclear programme and when France is portrayed in the Iranian media as a decadent and imperialist country Here Laetitia Nanquette examines the functions processes and mechanisms of stereotyping and imagining the other that have pervaded the literary traditions of France and Iran when writing about each other She furthermore analyzes Franco Iranian relations by exploring the literary traditions of this relationship the ways in which these have affected individual authors and how they reflect socio political realities With themes that feed into popular debates about the nature of Orientalism and Occidentalism and how the two interact this book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those working on the cultures of the Middle East      Resistance in Contemporary Middle Eastern Cultures Karima Laachir, Saeed Talajooy, 2013 This study highlights the connections between power cultural products resistance and the artistic strategies through which that resistance is voiced in the Middle East Exploring cultural displays of dissent in the form of literary works films and music the collection uses the concept of cultural resistance to describe the way culture and cultural creations are used to resist or even change the dominant political social economic and cultural discourses and structures either consciously or unconsciously The contributors do not claim that these cultural products constitute organized resistance movements but rather that they reflect instances of defiance that stem from their peculiar contexts If culture can be used to consolidate and perpetuate power relations in societies it can also be used as the site of resistance to oppression in its various forms gender class ethnicity and sexuality subverting existing dominant social and political hegemonies in the Middle East      England Re-Oriented Humberto Garcia, 2020-11-19 What does the love between British imperialists and their Asian male partners reveal about orientalism s social origins To answer this question Humberto Garcia focuses on westward bound Central and South Asian travel writers who have long been forgotten or dismissed by scholars This bias has obscured how Joseph Emin Sake Dean Mahomet Shaykh I tesamuddin Abu Talib Khan Abul Hassan Khan Yusuf Khan Kambalposh and Lutfullah Khan found in their conviviality with Englishwomen and men a strategy for inhabiting a critical agency that appropriated various media to make Europe commensurate with Asia Drama dance masquerades visual art museum exhibits music postal letters and newsprint inspired these genteel men to recalibrate Persianate ways of behaving and knowing Their cosmopolitanisms offer a unique window on an enchanted third space between empires in which Europe was peripheral to Islamic Indo Eurasia Encrypted in their mediated homosocial intimacies is a queer history of orientalist mimic men under the spell of a powerful Persian manhood      American-Iranian Dialogues Matthew K. Shannon, 2021-10-07 Bringing together historians of US foreign relations and scholars of Iranian studies American Iranian Dialogues examines the cultural connections between Americans and Iranians from the constitutional period of the 1890s through to the start of the White Revolution in the 1960s Taking an innovative cultural approach chapters are centred around major themes in American Iranian encounters and cultural exchange throughout this period including stories of origin cultural representations nationalism and discourses on development Expert contributors draw together different strands of US Iranian relations to discuss a range of path breaking topics such as the history of education heritage exchange oil development and the often overlooked interactions between American and Iranian non state actors Through exploring the understudied cultural dimensions of US Iranian relations this book will be essential reading for students and scholars interested in American history international history Iranian studies and Middle Eastern studies      Rethinking Iranian Nationalism and Modernity Kamran Scot Aghaie, Afshin Marashi, 2014-07-01 While recent books have explored Arab and Turkish nationalism the nuances of Iran have received scant book length study until now Capturing the significant changes in approach that have shaped this specialization Rethinking Iranian Nationalism and Modernity shares innovative research and charts new areas of analysis from an array of scholars in the field Delving into a wide range of theoretical and conceptual perspectives the essays all previously unpublished encompass social history literary theory postcolonial studies and comparative analysis to address such topics as Ethnicity in the Islamic Republic of Iran Political Islam and religious nationalism The evolution of U S Iranian relations before and after the Cold War Comparing Islamic and secular nationalism s in Egypt and Iran The German counterrevolution and its influence on Iranian political alliances The effects of Israel s image as a Euro American space Sufism Geocultural concepts in Azar s Atashkadeh Interdisciplinary in essence the essays also draw from sociology gender studies and art and architecture Posing compelling questions while challenging the conventional historiographical traditions the authors many of whom represent a new generation of Iranian studies scholars give voice to a research approach that embraces the modern era s complexity while emphasizing Iranian nationalism s contested multifaceted and continuously transformative possibilities

Women and Islam in Early Modern English Literature Bernadette Andrea,2008-01-17 In this innovative study Bernadette Andrea focuses on the contributions of women and their writings in the early modern cultural encounters between England and the Islamic world She examines previously neglected material such as the diplomatic correspondence between Queen Elizabeth I and the Ottoman Queen Mother Safiye at the end of the sixteenth century and resituates canonical accounts including Lady Mary Wortley Montagu s travelogue of the Ottoman empire at the beginning of the eighteenth century Her study advances our understanding of how women negotiated conflicting discourses of gender orientalism and imperialism at a time when the Ottoman empire was hugely powerful and England was still a marginal nation with limited global influence This book is a significant contribution to critical and theoretical debates in literary and cultural postcolonial women s and Middle Eastern studies

The A to Z of Iran John H. Lorentz,2010-04-14 Iran is a country with a deep and complex history Over several thousand years Iran has been the source of numerous creative contributions to the spiritual and literary world and the site of many remarkable manifestations of material culture The special place that Iran has come to hold in contemporary historical events most recently as a center stage actor in the unfolding and interconnected drama of worldwide nuclear arms proliferation and terrorism is all the more reason to explore the characters and personality of Iran and Iranians The A to Z of Iran is designed to give the reader a quick and understandable overview of specific events movements people political and social groups places and trends Through its extensive chronology introduction bibliography appendixes and more than double the number of cross referenced dictionary entries as in the previous edition the work allows for considerable exploration of a number of historical and contemporary topics and issues In particular the modern period defined as 1800 present is covered extensively

Heroes to Hostages Firoozeh Kashani-Sabet,2023-08-24 It is easy to forget given the oppositional dynamic between Iran and the United States of the last 50 years that these two countries once shared productive partnership Tracing US Iran relations over two turbulent centuries Firoozeh Kashani Sabet considers when and how this relationship went awry With careful attention to social and cultural as well as diplomatic developments Kashani Sabet shows that the rift did not originate in flashpoints of crisis like the 1953 coup or the 1979 Islamic Revolution but was instead long in the making Drawing from a wealth of English and Persian language sources many of which were previously unavailable or unacknowledged this book considers the relationship from the vantage point of Iranian society and the experiences of an evolving Iran that strived to accommodate American and great power politics Following these two nations through wars decolonization and revolution Kashani Sabet presents an invaluable history of a diplomatic rivalry that informs geopolitics to this day

Theater State and the Formation of Early Modern Public Sphere in Iran Babak Rahimi, 2011-11-11 This first systematic study of a wide range of Persian and European archival and primary sources analyzes how the Muharram rituals changed from being an originally devotional practice to public events of political significance setting the stage for the emergence of the early modern Iranian public sphere in the Safavid period

Mapping the Role of Intellectuals in Iranian Modern and Contemporary History Ramin Jahanbegloo, 2020-12-10 In Mapping the Role of Intellectuals in Iranian Modern and Contemporary History Jahanbegloo and contributors examine the role of Iranian intellectuals in the history of Iranian modernity They trace the contributions of intellectuals in the construction of national identity and the Iranian democratic debate analyzing how intellectuals balanced indebtedness to the West with the issue of national identity in Iran Recognizing how intellectual elites became beholden to political powers the contributors demonstrate the trend that intellectuals often opted for cultural dissent rather than ideological politics

Unveiling Men Wendy DeSouza, 2019-01-25 For years Iranian academics writers and scholars have equated national development and progress with the reform of men s sexual behavior Modern intellectuals repudiated native sexuality in Iran just as their European counterparts in France and Germany did arguing that transforming male identity was essential to the recovery of the nation DeSouza offers an alternate narrative of modern Iranian masculinity as an attempt to redraw social hierarchies among men Moving beyond rigid portrayals of Islamic patriarchy and female oppression she analyzes debates about manhood and maleness in early twentieth century Iran particularly around questions of race and sexuality DeSouza presents the larger implications of Pahlavi hegemonic masculinity in creating racialized male subjects and productive sexualities In addition she explores a cross pollination with Europe identifying how the East shaped visions of European male identity
