Missing Sarah A Vancouver Woman Remembers Her Vanished Sister:

Missing Sarah : a Vancouver Woman Remembers Her Vanished Sister ,2015 On April 14 1998 Sarah de Vries disappeared from her usual spot on the corner of Princess and Hastings in Vancouver She became one of the many women who had vanished from the Downtown Eastside women most of them sex workers and drug addicts whose DNA would later be found on the Pickton farm Reflecting on her adopted sister s story through Sarah s own poetry and journals and the recollections of those close to her at home and downtown Maggie uncovers the portrait of a bright charismatic woman who found herself trapped in a downward spiral of self loathing prostitution drugs and violence In this achingly honest book the reader is drawn into revelations and understanding just as Maggie was Tragic though it was in many ways Sarah s life had meaning Missing Sarah Maggie De Vries,2003 Remembering Vancouver's Disappeared Women Amber

Dean,2016-01-27 Between the late 1970s and the early 2000s at least sixty five women many of them members of Indigenous communities were found murdered or reported missing from Vancouver s Downtown Eastside In a work driven by the urgency of this ongoing crisis which extends across the country Amber Dean offers a timely critical analysis of the public representations memorials and activist strategies that brought the story of Vancouver s disappeared women to the attention of a wider public Remembering Vancouver s Disappeared Women traces what lives on from the violent loss of so many women from the same neighbourhood Dean interrogates representations that aim to humanize the murdered or missing women asking how these might inadvertently feed into the presumed dehumanization of sex work Indigeneity and living in the Downtown Eastside of Vancouver Taking inspiration from Indigenous women s research activism and art she challenges readers to reckon with our collective implication in the ongoing violence of settler colonialism and to accept responsibility for addressing its countless injustices Missing Women, Missing News David Hugill,2020-05-06T00:00:00Z Missing Women Missing News examines newspaper coverage of the arrest and trial of Robert Pickton the man charged with murdering 26 street level sex workers from Vancouver s Downtown Eastside It demonstrates how news narratives obscured the complex matrix of social and political conditions that made it possible for so many women to simply disappear from a densely populated urban neighborhood without provoking an aggressive response by the state Grounded in a theory of ideology this book argues that the coverage offers a series of coherent explanations that hold particular individuals and practices accountable but largely omit conceal or erase the broader socio political context that renders those practices possible

Torn from Our Midst A. Brenda Anderson,Wendee Kubik,Mary Rucklos Hampton,2010 More than 300 women and men gathered in August 2008 at a conference entitled Missing Women Decolonization Third Wave Feminisms and Indigenous People of Canada and Mexico Here personal stories and theoretical tools were brought together as academics activists family members of missing and murdered women police media policy makers justice workers and members of faith communities offered their perspectives on the issue of racialized sexualized violence Back cover Killing Women Annette Burfoot,Susan

Lord, 2011-04-07 The essays in Killing Women The Visual Culture of Gender and Violence find important connections in the ways that women are portrayed in relation to violence whether they are murder victims or killers The book's extensive cultural contexts acknowledge and engage with contemporary theories and practices of identity politics and debates about the ethics and politics of representation itself Does representation produce or reproduce the conditions of violence Is representation itself a form of violence This book adds significant new dimensions to the characterization of gender and violence by discussing nationalism and war feminist media and the depiction of violence throughout society Burlesque West Becki Ross, 2009-07-25 After the Second World War Vancouver emerged as a hotbed of striptease talent In Burlesque West the first critical history of this notorious striptease scene Becki Ross delves into the erotic entertainment industry at the northern end of the dancers west coast tour the North South route from Los Angeles to Vancouver that provided rotating work for dancers and variety for club clientele Drawing on extensive archival materials and fifty first person accounts of former dancers strip club owners booking agents choreographers and musicians Ross reveals stories that are deeply flavoured with an era before striptease fell from grace because the world stopped dreaming in the words of ex dancer Lindalee Tracey Though jobs in this particular industry are often perceived as having little in common with other sorts of work retired dancers accounts resonate surprisingly with those of contemporary service workers including perceptions of unionization and workplace benefits and hazards Ross also traces the sanitization and subsequent integration of striptease style and neo burlesque trends into mass culture examining continuity and change to ultimately demonstrate that Vancouver's glitzy nightclub scene often condemned as a quasi legal strain of urban blight in fact greased the economic engine of the post war city Provocative and challenging Burlesque West combines the economic the social the sexual and the personal and is sure to intellectually tantalize The West and Beyond Sarah Carter, Alvin Finkel, Peter Fortna, 2010 The West and Beyond evaluates and appraises the state of Western Canadian history acknowledging and assessing the contributions of historians of the past and present while showcasing the research interests of a new generation of scholars It charts new directions for the future and stimulates further interrogations of our past This collection encourages dialogue among the generations of historians of the West and among practitioners of diverse approaches to the past It also reflects a broad range of disciplinary and professional boundaries suggesting a number of different ways to understand the west Learn, Teach, Challenge Deanna Reder, Linda M. Morra, 2016-07-15 This is a collection of classic and newly commissioned essays about the study of Indigenous literatures in North America The contributing scholars include some of the most venerable Indigenous theorists among them Gerald Vizenor Anishinaabe Jeannette Armstrong Okanagan Craig Womack Creek Kimberley Blaaser Anishinaabe Emma LaRocque M'tis Daniel Heath Justice Cherokee Janice Acoose Saulteaux and Jo Ann Episkenew M'tis Also included are settler scholars foundational to the field including Helen Hoy Margery Fee and Renate Eigenbrod Among the newer voices are both settler and Indigenous theorists such as Sam McKegney Keavy Martin and Niigaanwewidam Sinclair

The volume is organized into five subject areas Position the necessity of considering where you come from and who you are Imagining Beyond Images and Myths a history and critique of circulating images of Indigenouness Debating Indigenous Literary Approaches Contemporary Concerns a consideration of relevant issues and finally Classroom Considerations pedagogical concerns particular to the field Each section is introduced by an essay that orients the reader and provides ideological context While anthologies of literary criticism have focused on specific issues related to this burgeoning field this volume is the first to offer comprehensive perspectives on the subject

Remembering Women Murdered by Men Cultural Memory Group,2006 Women are murdered by men every day yet these acts of femicide barely make the news Across Canada there are over fifty memorials to women who have been murdered Each one tells at least two stories the terrible one of unrelenting violence against women and the triumphant one of women claiming public space naming the violence and insisting that society remember This book is the first to record thirty of these and in so doing names the women remembered and the circumstances of their deaths The authors document the feminist community's response and the initiative taken to build memorials along with the official attempts to keep them out of public view The memorials documented include those in Vancouver Calgary Edmonton Winnipeg The Pas Toronto Montreal London Ottawa and Moncton Remembering Women Murdered by Men features the voices of memorial makers and the struggle of bringing public attention to the issue of femicide It inspires all of us to speak out Visit the companion website The Global Women's Memorial a dynamic and interactive forum dedicated to ending violence against women www.globalwomensmemorial.org
