101 in Missing You Sarah Patricia Condor,2010-02 Although we may come from different worlds we have a lot in common We hate the Sins of this World and strive to improve We want to love for this World is ruled by Love unprejudiced by discipline knowledge adroit rhetoric and Hollywood ectoplasm I encompass multitudes as I too am Walt s child My Heart is large my Mind carries centuries I muse and meditate and stand by you in your daily struggle You may not want to read the dead poet you may not want to peruse a stale insipid saga you may not want but peace and quiet for the Soul Come with me then and we shall fly on a morrow chirp we shall dissolve with dew inside a rosebud stretching its arms reaching for You and I The I which is a part of You The Wind from Heaven's Window Pat Mitchell,2013-11 This collection is a combination of romantic philosophic mystical and spiritual poetry written to warm even the coldest of hearts They come from a very inspired place that speaks of a great desire to understand ourselves The elusive butterfly in all of us that out of its innate curiosity to learn and experience things by necessity transforms itself They also speak of the unique place that we all share in the divine tapestry we call life and how we are all intimately connected The poems reflect on the betrayal and hypocrisy that we all inevitably encounter on our journey through life Most importantly a message of hope and joy runs through them so that we are always reminded that even in our darkest moments the light of truth and love has never abandoned us The book also shares some of the stories that inspired and motivated some of the poems They run the gamut from gut wrenching tearjerkers to deeply impassioned pleas for universal kindness to the whimsical frolic of a playful little child Included is a section titled Musings on Life These are philosophic perspectives intended to be life lessons for the reader It s been said that not all men are masters but all masters have been men Along that same line of thinking the author feels that although not all philosophers are poets all poets are philosophers Spirit Journey Philip Wesley Comfort,2007-09-01 When the Lioness Roars...Again and Again A. Hines, They say that words have the power to heal to comfort and to soothe the soul And in the midst of grief and loss these words can offer us the most profound solace Mending the Grieving Heart is a powerful and moving collection of poems on grief and healing Through these words we explore the full spectrum of emotions that come with the loss of a loved one from the raw intense feelings of anger and despair to the comforting healing power of acceptance and hope Each poem is a unique and personal reflection on grief written by someone who has walked this path and come out the other side These words offer comfort and support to anyone who is struggling with loss and seeking to find their way through the darkness With a deep sense of empathy and understanding Mending the Grieving Heart is a collection that speaks to the heart and soul of the human experience It s a book that reminds us that grief is not just about pain but also about the love that we shared with those who have passed on Denial crashes in Like tumultuous waves at sea Churning emotions within Grief follows close behind An undertow that pulls and tugs Leaving emptiness in its find Acceptance takes time A gentle ebb and flow Bringing peace to the mind May we ride these waves with grace Navigating through the highs and lows Finding strength in each new space For the truth is not always easy But it brings us closer to shore Where love and healing are waiting And our spirits can be restored Sentiments in Verse Kevin Robinson,2014 When an occasion demands words as they do it s all too easy to blabber on and never actually say what we mean to say Being a blabber myself I decided to apply a little restraint and employ the economy of words when writing this collection Saying all you need and making the point with four short lines has been the order of the day well for this day at least Kevin Robinson Provocations Susan Bordo,M.
