Missiology And The Social Sciences Contributions Cautions And Conclusions Evangelical Missiological Society Series No 4:

Missiology and the Social Sciences Edward Rommen, Gary Corwin, 1996-09-15 Experts in various branches of social science address the reader explaining the scope and limitations of their discipline in the science of missiology Find the balance between those who discount the value of the sciences for missions and those who use them without discernment

Contextualization of the Gospel Andrew James Prince, 2017-06-07 There has been heightened interest and prolific publication by missiologists about contextualization since the term was first coined in 1972 There has been ongoing debate particularly amongst evangelicals themselves regarding which of these meanings methods and models of contextualization are acceptable to use Much of the debate has been carried out by academics and practitioners whose observations and conclusions have been largely shaped by the social sciences and practical theology In contrast the disciplines of biblical studies and Christian thought have not featured significantly in the debate The purpose of this research is to establish that biblical studies and Christian thought in general and Scripture and the church fathers in particular have an essential contribution to make in the contextualization debate and should form part of an evangelical approach to contextualization of the gospel alongside the social sciences and practical theology Following a review of the literature on contextualization over the past forty years the research examines the book of Acts as representative of Scripture and the work of John Chrysostom as a representative church father Contextual principles that are consistent with an evangelical approach to contextualization of the gospel are drawn from each work establishing the value of biblical studies and Christian thought in contextualization

Invitation to World Missions Timothy C. Tennent, 2010 A primary resource introducing missions for the passionate follower of Christ

New Frontiers in Missiology (EMS 33) Larry W. Caldwell, Enoch Wan, Marty Shaw, Jr., 2025-09-17 Shaping tomorrow's mission today Missiology should be a dynamic discipline always adapting to a changing world Today's trends global demographic shifts digital frontiers and rising indigenous voices demand more than minor adjustments They call for reimagining what mission looks like New Frontiers in Missiology rises to this challenge offering fresh insight into emerging trends and innovative ideas that are reshaping the global mission landscape From AI and gaming to urbanization and animistic practices this book charts the expanding boundaries of mission with depth and clarity Written by diverse scholars and frontline practitioners this volume is for those who care about the future of God's mission This book offers thoughtful analysis and practical wisdom to help you faithfully serve in new contexts It will equip you to discern where the Spirit is moving and how to join in wherever the gospel is needed next

Communication in Mission Marcus Dean, Scott Moreau, Sue Russell, Rochelle Scheuermann, 2022-10-07 Communicating the Gospel To All People By All Means Communication has always been the heartbeat of God's interaction with humankind and without thoughtful communication mission is not fully effective With the rise of technology and social media the church faces a unique set of opportunities At the same time our shrinking world presents challenges and requires an increased sensitivity to social cultural and geopolitical triggers With case studies that span the globe from Australia and Asia to the Black church and Muslim youth diaspora in the United States this book closely considers what is working in the twenty first century and what isn't From post colonial contexts to creative access countries this collection doesn't shy away from today's complex issues Communication in Mission pulls together diverse voices some seem like shouts and others like gentle whispers but each has an important contribution for all who will listen and learn This synthesis of personal experiences from field practitioners and theoretical concepts from scholars lays a foundation for application calling for careful and intentional communication in the ongoing work of missions Full of hope this book looks forward to the gospel being received as Good News around the globe

Between Past and Future Evangelical Missiological Society, 2003 This volume traces its origins to the 2001 annual meeting of the Evangelical Missiological Society with the theme of Lessons in Mission from the Twentieth Century The papers from this meeting combined with insightful essays by other EMS members reflect upon the history of evangelical missions and upon its future Contributors Dwight P Baker Jonathan J Bonk Luis Bush Bruce K Camp Charles L Chaney Michael Jaffarian Todd M Johnson Gary B McGee John Moldovan Paul E Pierson John Mark Terry Ambassadors of Reconciliation Geoff Hartt, Michael A. Ortiz, Manuel Böhm, 2023-08-15 Reconciling Practice and Theology What does reconciliation have to do with the work of missions In today's conflict ridden world the concept of reconciliation has gained traction and Christian missions is being rethought The whole world cries out for holistic transformation with eternal value and God's people are called to be his ambassadors Ambassadors of Reconciliation lays the groundwork for exploring a new paradigm for missions Divided into three parts the book first establishes the theological foundations of reconciliation The second part then shows how theory and practice go hand in hand Finally the third part uses case studies to highlight the importance of understanding brokenness conflict and culture for effective ministry in reconciliation The contributors challenge readers to consider the church's role in God's mission and how every Christian can become an envoy of his restoration work They emphasize the spiritual dimension of reconciliation and offer practical guidance for effectively engaging in ministry Whether you are a missionary pastor or someone interested in promoting restoration in the world this book provides valuable insights and tools for your journey Church Planting in the Secular West Stefan Paas, 2016-11-03 An expert study of church planting in the most secular part of contemporary Europe In this book Stefan Paas offers thoughtful analysis of reasons and motives for missionary church planting in Europe and he explores successful and unsuccessful strategies in that post Christian secularized context Drawing in part on his own involvement with planting two churches in the Netherlands Paas explores confessional motives growth motives and innovation motives for church planting in Europe tracing them back to different traditions and reflecting on them from theological and empirical perspectives He presents examples from the European context and offers sound advice for improving existing missional practices Paas also draws out lessons for North America in a chapter coauthored with Darrell Guder and John Franke Finally Paas weaves together the various threads in the book with a theological defense of church planting Presenting new research as it does this critical missiological perspective will add significantly to a fuller understanding of church planting in our contemporary context Reflecting God's Glory Together A. Scott Moreau, Beth Snodderly, 2011-09-15 The true story of mission has been deeper wider and far more diverse than many Christians in countries with long histories of church presence have realized The authors in Reflecting God's Glory Together Diversity in Evangelical Mission drive that point home in a variety of ways From Filipino and Ghanaian missionary work in North American cities to Canadian work among the Chinese diaspora to African American work in Zimbabwe the authors help us begin to grasp just how many ways evangelicals in mission are truly going from and coming to everywhere as they follow Christ's mandate to reach the nations Diverse voices utilizing diverse strategies pursuing a common call these result in a mosaic whose larger pattern glorifies the God who came to live among us and who continues to send us out in the pattern God so clearly established As editors Beth and Scott invite you to explore the stories embedded in that marvelous mosaic that we have been privileged to collect for this volume The Missionary

Family Dwight P. Baker, Robert J. Priest, 2014-08-29 The title of this book points to a feature the missionary family often considered to be a distinctive of the Protestant missionary movement Certainly the presence of missionary families in the field has been a central factor in enabling configuring and restricting Protestant missionary outreach What special concerns does sending missionary families raise for the conduct of mission What means are available for extending care and support to missionary families These issues are the focus of the chapters in part 1 of this book In recent years an increasing number of reports have surfaced of sexual abuse in mission settings Some reports have been based on recovered memories the assessment of which raises difficult questions Clearly sexual abuse in mission settings and how to understand allegations of abuse based on recovered memories are matters of grave concern to mission agencies and mission supporters as well as to missionary families Part 2 serves the mission community by scrutinizing such matters offering legal historical and psychological perspectives on the topic In a new feature Forum on Sexual Orientation and Mission An Evangelical Discussion the Evangelical Missiological Society takes up a pressing issue of our day Fourteen evangelical scholars participate in the discussion found in part 3 Far from being the final word this forum is presented with the prayer that it will serve as an opening to and basis for ongoing missiological conversation about an urgent and timely topic Equipping for Global

Mission Linda P. Saunders, Gregory Mathias, Edward L. Smither, 2024-08-13 From Cognitive Teaching to Connected Learning Given the landscape of global Christianity and the variety of approaches to theological and missiological training today how do we equip the global church for the mission of God Should mission organizations or sending churches conduct their own in house training What is the role of Bible colleges and seminaries in equipping for mission today What about informal approaches to theological and ministry training Equipping for Global Mission offers insights from seasoned scholars and practitioners Beginning with theological convictions and practical reflections our authors make a case for what equipping for mission could look like in the present global church Case studies from India China North America and Britain further challenge the reader to reflect on this critical issue The full scope of educating for mission is far too broad of a task for any single organization This is why the contributors serve the church so well by enlarging a much needed conversation This book is a clarion call to all who care about missions and the global church Join world leaders in reshaping missions education today by using the practical and strategic wisdom in these pages      Christianity and Culture Martin S. Reed,2002 In over 2 000 years Christianity has made the overwhelming impact on the culture of the Western world in particular But culture has also helped to shape the development and form of Christianity since the interaction of two such powerful phenomena cannot help but change the other This new book brings together over 1200 citations on Christianity and Culture which are indexed by subject title and author for easy access      Advanced Missiology Kenneth Nehrbass,2021-04-02 Advanced Missiology draws the connections between the theory and practice of missions Using the metaphor of a river the book shows how theories upstream such as theology education anthropology community development and history have exerted an influence on missiology and missiology in turn has gone back upstream to influence those disciplines What causes these disciplines to converge in missiology is the goal of making disciples across cultures Whereas missiologists are not always explicit about how their abstract theories actually relate to the task of making disciples across cultures each chapter in Advanced Missiology shows how numerous theories sub fields models and strategies of missiology ultimately facilitate the Great Commission The book argues that by using interdisciplinarity for this fundamental purpose missiological studies will be more credible and useful With contributions from Rebecca Burnett Leanne Dzubinski Julie Martinez      International Mission Bibliography Norman E. Thomas,2003-10-16 This massive reference is the key to finding the most important works on missiology published from 1960 2000 Representing the research of more than 30 sub editors in mission related disciplines including history theology social aspects education evangelism spirituality and political life and includes sections on Africa the Americas Asia Europe and Oceania Complete publication details and ISBNs are given for each entry      American Book Publishing Record ,1997      Books in Print ,1991      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1997      Missiology (majalah) American Society of Missiology,1973
