Annual Report of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. Meeting,1869 The Romance of Missions. Or, Inside Views of Life and Labor, in the Land of Ararat Maria Abigail West,2025-07-14 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Panoplist ,1859 Missions ,1949 Democracy, Militarism, and Nationalism in Argentina, 1930-1966 Marvin Goldwert,2014-11-06 Until 1930 Argentina was one of the great hopes for stable democracy in Latin America Argentines themselves believed in the destiny of their nation to become the leading Latin American country in wealth power and culture But the revolution of 1930 unleashed the scourges of modern militarism and chronic instability in the land Between 1930 and 1966 the Argentine armed forces or factions of the armed forces overthrew the government five times For several decades militarism was the central problem in Argentine political life In this study Marvin Goldwert interprets the rise growth and development of militarism in Argentina from 1930 to 1966 The tortuous course of Argentine militarism is explained through an integrating hypothesis The army is viewed as a power factor torn by a permanent dichotomy of values which rendered it incapable of bringing modernization to Argentina Caught between conflicting drives for social order and modernization the army was an ambivalent force for change First frustrated by incompetent politicians 1916 1943 the army was later driven by Colonel Juan D Per n into an uneasy alliance with labor 1943 1955 Peronism initially represented the means by which army officers could have their cake nationalistic modernization and still eat it in peace with the masses organized in captive unions tied to an authoritarian state After 1955 when Per n was overthrown a deeply divided army struggled to contain the remnants of its own dictatorial creation In 1966 the army dedicated to staunch anti Peronism again seized the state and revived the dream of reconciling social order and modernization through military rule Although militarism has been a central problem in Argentine political life it is also the fever that suggests deeper maladies in the body politic Marvin Goldwert seeks to relate developments in the military to the larger political social and economic developments in Argentine history The army and its factions are viewed as integral parts of the whole political spectrum during the period under study The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Collection of Federal Affirmative Action Goals and Timetables and Enforcement of Federal Sector EEO Complaints United States.
