China Watch John King Fairbank, 1987 America's top China watcher the renowned pundit of modern Chinese history here provides an unrivaled overview of revolutionary China and Chinese American relations His reviews and critical commentary scrutinize our always fascinated often puzzled attitude toward this newly emergent superpower John Fairbank distinguishes two major motifs in recent Chinese American connections the American expectation of highly profitable trade and investment which so far have not materialized and the deep rooted missionary impulse to give the Chinese the best of our culture which includes our efforts to promote human rights The possibility of grafting our ideas of individual endeavor and God given prerogatives onto two thousand years of Confucianism with its emphasis on duty and collective harmony seems remote In contrast the outlook for mutually enriching economic dealings is much brighter Yet Fairbank cautions that we are dealing with a huge and disoriented nation struggling to enter the modern world with its own cultural identity intact and at least in the current period with its Communist Party in power Confucian tenets still prevail theory and practice are a unity policies are a form of conduct manifesting one's character and attacks on policy equal attacks on the ruling party These writings concern China in the mind's eye of America as it is interpreted through the works of American merchants diplomats missionaries and reporters observing China's travail of revolution For generalist scholar and sage alike China Watch offers many insights Religion in China and Its Modern Fate Paul R. Katz, 2014-04-01 Paul R Katz has composed a fascinating account of the fate of Chinese religions during the modern era by assessing mutations of communal religious life innovative forms of religious publishing and the religious practices of modern Chinese elites traditionally considered models of secular modernity The author offers a rare look at the monumental changes that have affected modern Chinese religions from the first all out assault on them during the 1898 reforms to the eve of the Communist takeover of the mainland Tracing the ways in which the vast religious resources texts expertise symbolic capital material wealth etc that circulated throughout Chinese society during the late imperial period were reconfigured during this later era Katz sheds new light on modern Chinese religious life and the understudied nexus between religion and modern political culture Religion in China and Its Modern Fate will appeal to a broad audience of religionists and historians of modern China

The Changing Face of Women's Education in China Xiaoyan Liu, 2017 This book offers a critical study on the history of Shanghai No 3 Girls Middle School from its missionary predecessors St Mary's Hall and McTyeire School to its present form as a public school By bringing together three historical periods late imperial the Republic of China and the People's Republic of China and their respective political regimes into one project and tracing continuities and discontinuities in terms of education between the Nationalists and Communists the book argues that education in Chinese modern history affords another example of continuous revolution

Chinese Encyclopaedias of New Global Knowledge (1870-1930) Milena Doleželová-Velingerová, Rudolf G Wagner, 2013-08-04 This is a set of pioneering studies on Chinese encyclopaedias of modern knowledge 1870 1930 At a transitional time when modern knowledge was sought after yet few modern schools were available these works were crucial sources of information for an entire generation This volume investigates many of these encyclopaedias which were never reprinted and are hardly known even to specialists for the first time The contributors to this collection all specialize in the period in question and have worked together for a number of years The resulting studies show that these encyclopaedias open a unique window onto the migration and ordering systems of knowledge across cultural and linguistic borders The Chinese Face of Jesus Christ: Roman Malek, 2017-07-05 This volume provides an annotated bibliography of the Western and Chinese literature on Jesus Christ in China It is a sequel to the interdisciplinary collection on the manifold faces and images of Jesus throughout Chinese history from the Tang dynasty 618 907 to the present time The present bibliography broadens and deepens the above mentioned subject matter and also points out aspects which have been addressed in the contributions and anthologies of the previous volumes of The Chinese Face of Jesus Christ but which have not been treated thoroughly Another aim of this bibliography is to initiate and enable further research particularly in China It includes bibliographical data from the beginning of the introduction of Christianity to China until the year 2013 occasionally also until 2014 A list of Key References enables the reader to identify important works on main topics related to Jesus Christ in China Some examples of book covers and title pages are included in the section of Illustrations Other volumes of the collection The Chinese Face of Jesus Christ are in preparation Vol 3c will present longer quotations from the sources listed in the present bibliography Vol 4b will contain a general index with glossary and Vol 5 will deal with the iconography of Jesus Christ in China Christianity and the Modern Woman in East Asia Garrett L. Washington, 2018-09-04 This edited volume explores the complex roles that Christian ideas and institutions played in the construction of modern womanhood in East Asia While contributing to gender dynamics that disprivileged women in China Japan and Korea Christianity was also instrumental in women's efforts to empower themselves and participate in the public sphere Many literate East Asian women mobilized Christian beliefs knowledge institutions and networks to raise the profile of The Woman Question frame the contours of the related debate and craft original responses These chapters examine East Asian women who were markedly influenced by Christianity as students trainees educators professionals and activists Using their increased visibility and resources they addressed the dilemmas and promises of modernity for women in their countries China Bibliography Harriet T. Zurndorfer, 2021-12-06 This volume serves as a guide to all facets of China study from advice on choosing an appropriate literary dictionary to finding the most recent yearbooks that offer statistical data about the contemporary economy China

Bibliography does not restrict itself to one particular discipline but considers the development of Chinese civilization as a whole from its imperial beginnings to the present and therefore demonstrates how one would find information about Chinese history literature religion linguistics collectanea as well as present day PRC economic and political policies Because this book also explains how bibliographical data on China has accumulated over the last 300 years including within China itself it also may help the reader understand the significance of a particular type of reference work From Christ to Confucius

Albert Monshan Wu, 2016-11-22 A bold and original study of German missionaries in China who catalyzed a revolution in thinking among European Christians about the nature of Christianity itself In this accessibly written and empirically based study Albert Wu documents how German missionaries chastened by their failure to convert Chinese people to Christianity reconsidered their attitudes toward Chinese culture and Confucianism In time their increased openness catalyzed a revolution in thinking among European Christians about the nature of Christianity itself At a moment when Europe's Christian population is falling behind those of South America and Africa Wu's provocative analysis sheds light on the roots of Christianity's global shift Historical Dictionary of United States-China Relations Robert G. Sutter, 2005-11-15 The relationship between the United States of America and the People's Republic of China is traced in this dictionary containing hundreds of cross referenced entries on the presidents and prime ministers the secretaries of state and foreign ministers other key players and the more significant institutions and events Everything from the Boxer Uprising in the late 19th Century to Nixon's historic visit to China in 1972 from the crisis over U.S. arms sales to Taiwan in 1982 to the U.S. bombing of the Chinese Embassy at Belgrade in 1999 is covered in this highly accessible scholarly work The book's introduction and chronology delineate the many differences in political military and ideological issues between the two countries Two appendixes list all the United States Presidents and Secretaries of State as well as all the Republic of China Presidents and Prime Ministers and the People's Republic of China Presidents and Prime Ministers respectively Supplementing the material is an extremely detailed bibliography of related materials The Evangelical Tradition in America Leonard Sweet, Leonard I.

Sweet, 1997 The essays collected in The Evangelical Tradition in America range over a vast plain of historical inquiry Yet they are linked by a common purpose and vision of the exploration through ever widening avenues of research into one of the most important movements in American culture and the uncovering of forgotten ill conceived or half perceived features of the Evangelical tradition This volume opens up new territory recharts the old and challenges and corrects several gaps in the historical topography of American Evangelicalism Emerging from the Charles G. Finney Historical Conference at Colgate Rochester Divinity School Bexley Hall Crozer Theological Seminary in October 1981 these essays offer exciting interdisciplinary insights into the role of Evangelical religion in American society As major contributions to scholarship in American religion these investigations forge beyond the borders of Evangelicalism's role in issues now being explored by many American historians on the South blacks women urban centers millennialism and organizational structures They also provide directions from which to view Evangelicalism's impact on American history from the perspective of Southern popular religion the psychological aspects of black evangelicalism the stream of intellectual history and the Enlightenment and evangelical roots of millenarian ideology Western Technology and China's Industrial Development Hsien-ch'un Wang, 2022-04-22 This book explores how steam engine technology was transferred into nineteenth century China in the second half of the nineteenth century by focusing on the transmission of knowledge and skills It takes on the long term problem in historiography that puts too much emphasis on politics but ignores the techno scientific and institutional requirements for launching such an endeavor It examines how translations broke linguistic and conceptual barriers and brought new a understanding of heat to the Chinese readership It also explores how the Fuzhou Navy Yard's shipbuilding and training program trained China's first generation of shipbuilding workers and engineers It argues that conservatism against technology was not to blame for China's slow development in steamship building Rather it was government officials failure to realize the scale of institutional and techno scientific changes required in importing and disperse new knowledge and skills The Chinese Rites Controversy D. E. Mungello, 2024-12-11 This collection presents the proceedings of an international conference on the significance of the Rites Controversy in Sino Western history held in San Francisco in 1992 It contains fifteen articles by contemporary mainstream China scholars from four continents including some of the most eminent names in Sinology today Salt and Light, Volume 1 Carol Lee Hamrin, Stacey Bieler, 2009-01-01 Salt and Light presents the life stories of outstanding Chinese Christians who as early modernizers promoted China's nation building and moral progress in the early twentieth century Lively anecdotes and photographs highlight the strong character of ten pioneers in the modern professions of education medicine journalism and diplomacy These professionals were motivated by faith to introduce practical social reforms and build up China's civil society They modeled and promoted virtues essential to social progress during the golden age of Chinese Protestantism Their stories touch on themes important in today's global era patterns of cooperation between foreign and Chinese partners the contributions to China of Western educated professionals Christianity's role in furthering East West understanding and exchanges and the transnational nature of modern Chinese Christianity The editors and authors articulate the importance of recovering China's Christian heritage as part of world Christianity Contributors Connie Shemo Fuk Tsang Ying Elizabeth Littell Lamb Guowei Wright Peter Tze Ming Ng and Mary Jo Waelchli China through the Lens of Comparative Education Ruth Hayhoe, 2014-11-20 In the World Library of Educationalists series international experts compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field Ruth Hayhoe is a distinguished scholar in comparative education and higher education as well as one of the most highly regarded experts on Chinese education in the world Extremely well respected

Vlahakis, Isabel Maria Coelho de Oliveira Malaquias, Nathan M. Brooks, M. François Regourd, Feza Gunergun, David Wright, 2006-04-26 A unique resource that synthesizes existing primary and secondary sources to provide a fascinating introduction to the development and dissemination of science within history s great empires as well as the complex interaction between imperialism and scientific progress over two centuries Imperialism and Science is a scholarly yet accessible chronicle of the impact of imperialism on science over the past 200 years from the effect of Catholicism on scientific progress in Latin America to the importance of U S government funding of scientific research to America s preeminent place in the world Spanning two centuries of scientific advance throughout the age of empire Imperialism and Science sheds new light on the spread of scientific thought throughout the former colonial world Science made enormous advances during this period often being associated with anti Imperialist struggle or as in the case of the science brought to 19th century China and India by the British with Western cultural hegemony On Their Own Terms Benjamin A. Elman, 2009-07-01 Since the mid 19th century imperial reformers Republicans Guomindang party cadres and Communists have all prioritized science and technology Elman offers an account of the evolution of native Chinese science over four centuries under the influence of missionaries In the end he argues the Chinese produced modern science on their own terms The Discovery of Chinese Logic Joachim Kurtz, 2011-07-27 Until 1898 Chinese and foreign scholars agreed that China had never known needed or desired a field of study similar in scope and purpose to European logic Less than a decade later Chinese literati claimed that the discipline had been part of the empire s learned heritage for more than two millennia This book analyzes the conceptual ideological and institutional transformations that made this drastic change of opinion possible and acceptable Reconstructing the discovery of Chinese logic as a paradigmatic case of the epistemic shifts that continue to shape interpretations of China s intellectual history it offers a fresh view of the formation of modern academic discourses in East Asia and adds a neglected chapter to the global histories of science and philosophy Art Worlds Roberta Wue, 2014-12-09 The growth of Shanghai in the late nineteenth century gave rise to an exciting new art world in which a flourishing market in popular art became a highly visible part of the treaty port s commercialized culture Art Worlds examines the relationship between the city's visual artists and their urban audiences. Through a discussion of images ranging from fashionable painted fans to lithograph illustrated magazines, the book explores how popular art intersected with broader cultural trends. It also investigates the multiple roles played by the modern Chinese artist as image maker, entrepreneur, celebrity, and urban sojourner. Focusing on industrially produced images, mass advertisements, and other hitherto neglected sources, the book offers a new interpretation of late Qing visual culture at a watershed moment in the history of modern Chinese art. Art Worlds will be of interest to scholars of art history and to anyone with an interest in the cultural history of modern China. By focusing on objects, sites, social networks, and technologies, this elegantly conceived book enriches our understanding of art production and consumption in nineteenth-century Shanghai. The author makes masterful use of newspapers, guidebooks, diaries, and advertisements, as well as paintings, to present readers with the compelling story of a city and its artists. Tobie Meyer Fong, author of What Remains Coming to Terms with Civil War in 19th Century China and Building Culture in Early Qing Yangzhou. Rich in findings, forensic in visual analysis, and not least elegantly crafted, Wu's book on painting, printing, and the social worlds of art in late Qing Shanghai is an exemplary contribution. A must-read volume. Shane McCausland, author of Zhao Mengfu: Calligraphy and Painting for Khubilai's China.
