Missionary Responses To Tribal Religions At Edinburgh 191:

Missionary Responses to Tribal Religions at Edinburgh, 1910 John Stanley Friesen, 1996 One of the most notable achievements of Christian missionaries during the last quarter of the nineteenth century was their contribution to the emerging disciplines of anthropology and the comparative study of religion particularly in tribal societies This study focuses on the twentieth century missionary landmark the First World Missionary Conference at Edinburgh in 1910 This study breaks new ground by describing five models that demonstrate the range with which missionaries of the Imperialist Era 1880 1920 interpreted tribal religious traditions in relation to the Christian message Friesen s study reflects both an interdependence and a critique of the political religious and anthropological spirit of the times The Imperial Horizons of British Protestant Missions, 1880-1914 Andrew N. Porter, 2003 Christian missions have long been associated with the growth of empire and colonial rule For just as long the nature and consequences of that association have provoked animated debate over such themes as culture and identity This volume brings together studies of changing attitudes and practices in Protestant missions during the hectic decades of European imperial and territorial expansion between 1880 and 1914 Written by acknowledged experts The Imperial Horizons of British Protestant Missions includes chapters on the imperial and ecclesiastical ambitions of the high church Society for the Propagation of the Gospel the role of empire as an arena for working out Christian understandings of atonement the international politics of the missionary movement conflicting understandings of race missionary strategies and the transfer of Western scientific knowledge Indian nationalist responses to Christian teaching and changing interpretations of Western missionary methods in China and of female missionary roles in South Africa Contributors D W Bebbington John W de Gruchy Deborah Gaitskell John M MacKenzie Chandra Mallampalli Steven Maughan Lauren F Pfister Andrew Porter Andrew C Ross Brian Stanley Sanskriti, 2007 Thấu Hiểu Sứ Mạng Stanley H. Hjelm, 2017-12-20 The way in which the world s religions are intertwined in the dynamics of global development has become obvious in the twenty first century This also applies to Christianity In view of the fact that its historiography is still predominantly regional or national however little is known about Christianity s historical process of development to become a religion that is globally active and plurally differentiated The second volume presents a comprehensive interdenominational and interdisciplinary history of global Christianity in the nineteenth century for the first time in the German speaking countries Renowned theologians church historians and historians trace the numerous upheavals associated with the long nineteenth century that brought Christianity into the modern age Bibliographic Index ,1997 American Book Publishing Record ,1995 Hope in Times of Crisis Marina Ngursangzeli Behera, Michael Biehl, Risto Jukko, Kenneth R. Ross, 2025-06-06 The early twenty first century has dashed hopes for a more peaceful harmonious and prosperous world order as many societies have been plunged into conflict and living conditions for many have become ever more precarious The crisis is compounded by the advance of damaging climate change that jeopardizes the future of life on earth Where can the imagination be found to meet such an unprecedented crisis This book mines one hundred years of ecumenical reflection on mission affirming the strengths of this tradition It does so in a spirit of metanoia repentance recognizing that churches and missions were often complicit in trends that have proved to be damaging At the same time it draws on elements of renewal in thinking about mission cherishing of life environmental responsibility action for justice deepening of spirituality working from a basis in ecumenical Christianity to make common cause with people of all faiths and convictions who share similar concerns While the book is unflinching in confronting the injustice and destructiveness of the prevailing world order its final message is one of hope proposing that a retrieval and renewal of the ecumenical vision holds the promise of a brighter future Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 The rapid growth of Christianity in the global south is not just a demographic shift it is transforming the faith itself The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the history and the contemporary themes of Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions It includes maps images and a detailed timeline of key events African Identities and World Christianity in the Twentieth Century Klaus Koschorke, Jens Holger Schjørring, 2005 The map of global Christianity continues to undergo dramatic changes and on this map Africa comes to the fore The proceedings of the Third International Conference at Munich Freising on the History of Christianity in the Non Western World seek to respond to the growing importance of Africa in the context of World Christianity Prominent scholars from Africa and Europe deal with the manifold manifestations of African Christianity in the 20th century and the various ways in which African and Christian identities were formulated and interacted with each other The negotiation of the local and the global in the process of forming African churches is discussed as is the question of the impact of internal African debates and developments on global ecumenical discussions From the table of contents 16 contributions O U Kalu A Trail of Ferment in African Christianity Ethiopianism Prophetism Pentecostalism K Ward African identities in the historic Mainline Churches A case study of the negotiation of local and global within African Anglicanism A Anderson African Independent Churches and Global Pentecostalism Historical Connections and Common Identities E Kamphausen African Cry Anmerkungen zur Entstehungsgeschichte einer kontextuellen Befreiungstheologie in Afrika A Adamavi Aho Ekue Troubled but not destroyed The development of African Theologies and the paradigm of the Theology of reconstruction K Hock Appropriated Vibrancy Immediacy as a Formative Element in African Theologies Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Book Review Index Dana Ferguson, 2001 Prayer, providence and empire Joseph Hardwick, 2021-08-10 European settlers in Canada Australia and South Africa said they were building better Britains overseas But their new societies were frequently threatened by devastating wars rebellions epidemics and natural disasters It is striking that settlers turned to old traditions of collective prayer and worship to make sense of these calamities At times of trauma colonial governments set aside whole days for prayer so that entire populations could join together to implore God's intervention assistance or guidance And at moments of celebration such as the coming of peace everyone in the empire might participate in synchronized acts of thanksgiving Prayer providence and empire asks why occasions with origins in the sixteenth century became numerous in the democratic pluralistic and secularised conditions of the British world Missions and Unity Norman E. Thomas, 2010-11-01 This study is the first comprehensive history of the impact of the modern missionary movement on the understanding of and work toward Christian unity It tells stories from all branches of the church Roman Catholic Orthodox and Protestant in its many types conciliar evangelical Pentecostal and independent Part 1 Historical highlights the contribution of modern missions to Christian unity from William Carey and his antecedents and peers to present day missions Part 2 Ten Models of Unity takes an inductive approach to history asking not how should Christians cooperate but how has the missionary movement helped Christians to work together at the local national regional and global level Part 3 Wider Ecumenism broadens the evidence to include how the missions movement has helped not only institutional churches but also broader society to have concern for the unity of the entire human family Included here is the story of how the Protestant missionary movement influenced the forming of the United Nations as well as the drafting of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights The study also covers the movement's impact on Christian attitudes toward and relations with persons of other faiths Mission and Unity is the standard reference work in the field for persons studying modern history modern church history missions and ecumenics Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1996-06 Contextualization and the Old Testament Jerry Hwang, 2022-09-26 Christianity is often viewed in Asia as a Western imposition Challenging this Dr Jerry Hwang examines the Old Testament's cultural engagement of its ancient Near Eastern context arguing that Scripture itself provides the ultimate model for contextualizing theology in Asia While it is common for missiological studies to ignore the Old Testament in their discussion of contextualization truly biblical contextualization must include the whole Bible not simply the New Testament This study provides insightful discourse between the Old Testament and various Asian contexts while demonstrating how Asian perspectives can help overcome the Eurocentrism prevalent in Old Testament scholarship This is an ideal resource for scholars and practitioners interested in a biblical perspective of contextualization especially as related to constructing theology that honors the truth of Scripture in the context of Asia      International Christian Literature Documentation Project Douglas W.
