The American Missionary, 1922 Vols 13 62 include abridged annual reports and proceedings of the annual meetings of the American Missionary Association 1869 1908 v 38 62 include abridged annual reports of the Society's Executive committee 1883 84 1907 1908      Jonathan Goble of Japan Franklin Calvin Parker, 1990 This is a readable and entertaining account of the most colorful and eccentric missionary in nineteenth century Japan Jonathan Goble 1827 1926 Goble first visited Japan as a marine in Commodore Matthew C Perry's expedition of 1853 54 He won acclaim in the official Narrative of the Expedition for befriending the Japanese castaway Sam Patch After returning to Japan as a missionary of the American Baptist Free Mission Society Goble translated more than half the New Testament into Japanese His Gospel of Matthew is the oldest extant Scripture portion printed in Japan He preached to samurai and merchants to outcasts and the blind Goble led an exciting life not only as a missionary but also as an interpreter translator writer lecturer inventor merchant and builder He rubbed shoulders with Iwakura Tomomi prime minister Yamanouchi Yodo leading daimyo Iwasaki Yataro founder of the Mitsubishi financial empire and other notables Strong willed and prone to violence his maverick ways got him consigned to a Baptist limbo In this work the first biography of Goble his fascinating life illuminates the strange world of Christian missions in nineteenth century Japan      Facing West David R. Swartz, 2020-04-09 In 1974 nearly 3 000 evangelicals from 150 nations met at the Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Amidst this cosmopolitan setting and in front of the most important white evangelical leaders of the United States members of the Latin American Theological Fraternity spoke out against the American Church Fiery speeches by Ecuadorian Ren Padilla and Peruvian Samuel Escobar revealed a global weariness with what they described as an American style of coldly efficient mission wedded to a myopic right leaning politics Their bold critiques electrified Christians from around the world The dramatic growth of Christianity around the world in the last century has shifted the balance of power within the faith away from traditional strongholds in Europe and the United States To be sure evangelical populists who voted for Donald Trump have resisted certain global pressures and Western missionaries have carried Christian Americanism abroad But the line of influence has also run the other way David R Swartz demonstrates that evangelicals in the Global South spoke back to American evangelicals on matters of race imperialism theology sexuality and social justice From the left they pushed for racial egalitarianism ecumenism and more substantial development efforts From the right they advocated for a conservative sexual ethic grounded in postcolonial logic As Christian immigration to the United States burgeoned in the wake of the Immigration Act of 1965 global evangelicals forced many American Christians to think more critically about their own assumptions The United States is just one node of a sprawling global network that includes Korea India Switzerland the Philippines Guatemala Uganda and Thailand Telling stories of resistance accommodation and cooperation Swartz shows that evangelical networks not only go out to but also come from the ends of the earth The Victorian Translation of China N.
