

A vintage-style globe sits on a dark stand, positioned over a large, detailed map. The map shows various geographical features and labels, including "INDIAN" and "OCT" in the lower right corner. The entire scene is dimly lit, with a warm, sepia-toned aesthetic. Overlaid on this background is the text "WE WILL BE the Lord's missionaries TO BRING THE WORLD His Truth" in a mix of white serif and script fonts.

Missionary Messages:

Missionary Messages A. B. Simpson, 1987-01-01 Things are wrong between the world and God says A B Simpson in Missionary Messages and we are the ones to set them right Christ has brought salvation to mankind and those who know Him must tell this good news to a lost world This was Simpson's urgent message It consumed his energies It caused him to found a worldwide missionary movement known today as The Christian and Missionary Alliance Early 20th century America was stirred to action by these words when they were first preached as sermons Here at last was an advocate before the conscience of North American Christians for the lost millions around the world And Simpson's message will still compel thoughtful readers today Christ is the world's answer The Bible a Missionary Message William Owen Carver, 1921

Missionary Messages James Franklin Love, 1922 Missionary Messages Albert B. Simpson, 1925 Loma Linda Messages Ellen G. White, 2004 This 1935 collection of Ellen G White's admonitions is reprinted in the hope of arousing God's people to follow the divine blueprint of the medical work The content of this book is briefly summarized in these two statements Loma Linda is to be not only a sanitarium but an educational center With the possession of this place comes the mighty responsibility of making the work of the institution educational in character The school that is to be established at Loma Linda is to stand in the freedom of the truth Shall we represent before the world that our physicians must follow the pattern of the world before they can be qualified to be successful physicians This is the question that is now testing the faith of some of our brethren Let not any of our brethren displease the Lord by advocating in their assemblies the idea that we need to obtain from unbelievers a higher education than that specified by the Lord Missionary Magazine and Chronicle London Missionary Society, 1901 Woman's Missionary Friend, 1906 Missionary Messages Albert B. Simpson, 1940 The Missionary Review of the World, 1919 Missionary Messages (Classic Reprint) James F. Love, 2015-07-20 Excerpt from Missionary Messages As indicated by the title this book is for the most part composed of missionary messages which have been delivered by the author on various occasions They are issued in the present form for the single purpose that they were at first delivered orally namely to quicken interest in Foreign Missions In the main they have to do with Foreign Missions as a common Christian enterprise but at points they deal specifically with the Baptist foreign mission program There was in the delivery and there is here no disposition to evade the distinctive views and policies which characterize Southern Baptists and control their foreign mission work An effort has been made to state the denominational viewpoint as inoffensively as frankly and to use this to strengthen the foreign mission motive No man ought to hold a religious opinion or alliance of which he is ashamed Neither should one state his personal or denominational views in irreligious spirit or manner Thoughtful men will agree that the only certain course to better understanding mutual respect and concord among the Christian forces which are engaged In this commanding world enterprise of Foreign Missions is for each group to state with proper Christian decorum those views and principles which it holds and would have obtained in the conduct of the work and thus allow others to examine these on their merit Respect of one Christian denomination for another will be promoted and that Christian unity about which so much is said in foreign mission circles will be the more certainly realized by clear and frank confession rather than by sentimental slurring of the comparatively few points of difference between the evangelical forces of Christendom About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Missionary Intelligencer ,1918

Advanced Missiology Kenneth Nehrbass,2021-04-02 Advanced Missiology draws the connections between the theory and practice of missions Using the metaphor of a river the book shows how theories upstream such as theology education anthropology community development and history have exerted an influence on missiology and missiology in turn has gone back upstream to influence those disciplines What causes these disciplines to converge in missiology is the goal of making disciples across cultures Whereas missiologists are not always explicit about how their abstract theories actually relate to the task of making disciples across cultures each chapter in Advanced Missiology shows how numerous theories sub fields models and strategies of missiology ultimately facilitate the Great Commission The book argues that by using interdisciplinarity for this fundamental purpose missiological studies will be more credible and useful With contributions from Rebecca Burnett Leanne Dzubinski Julie Martinez The Church Missionary Intelligencer ,1899 Church Missionary Intelligencer and Record ,1899 The American Missionary ,1906 Vols 13 62 include abridged annual reports and proceedings of the annual meetings of the American Missionary Association 1869 1908 v 38 62 include abridged annual reports of the Society's Executive committee 1883 84 1907 1908 Missionary Review of the World ,1903

Men and Religion Forward Movement,1912 The Missionary Review ,1915 Diné dóó Gáamalii Farina King,2023-10-27 Navajo Latter day Saints are Din d G amalii writes Farina King in this deeply personal collective biography We are Din who decided to walk a Latter day Saint pathway although not always consistently or without reappraising that decision Din d G amalii is a history of twentieth century Navajos including author Farina King and her family who have converted and joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints LDS becoming Din d G amalii both Din and LDS Drawing on Din stories from the LDS Native American Oral History Project King illuminates the mutual entanglement of Indigenous identity and religious affiliation showing how their Din identity made them outsiders to the LDS Church and conversely how belonging to the LDS community made them outsiders to their Native community The story that King tells shows the complex ways that Din people engaged with church institutions in the context of settler colonial power structures The lived experiences of Din in church programs sometimes diverged from the intentions and expectations of those who designed them In this empathetic and richly researched study King explores the impacts of Navajo Latter day Saints who seek to bridge different traditions peoples and communities She sheds light on the challenges and joys they face in following both the Din teachings of Si a h Naagh Bik eh H zh live to old age in beauty and the teachings of the church
