Missionarys Wife:

A Missionary Heart and a Missionary Life Zacharias Tanee Fomum, 2015-02-17 Professor Zacharias Tanee Fomum through this book communicates his burden of bringing the people of God back to the missionary purposes of God. The heart of the missionary and the life of the missionary find their origin basis and model in the Heart of God. He is a missionary God. The heart of the missionary and the life of the missionary is to be judged seen and appreciated by the way God judges sees and appreciates them. God wants to produce people who see the world as He sees it, people who continually live under the constraint of God's missionary needs, people who dream of God's mission fields every night and work there every day to make sure that the missionary purposes of God are fulfilled. The Purpose of this Book is for many to go out as missionaries with correct hearts and correct lives equipped for permanent and productive work. This book is highly recommended to all believers. The Home Missionary, 1855 No 3 of each volume contains the annual report and minutes of the annual meeting.

Taking the family as a legitimate unit of historical analysis in its own right for the first time, Missionary families traces changing familial policies and lived realities throughout the nineteenth century and powerfully argues for the importance of an historical understanding of the missionary enterprise informed by the complex interplay between the intimate, the personal and the professional. By looking at marriage, parenting and childhood, professionalism, vocation and domesticity, race, gender and generation, this first in-depth study of missionary families reveals their profound importance to the missionary enterprise and concludes that mission history can no longer be written without attention to the personal, emotional and intimate aspects of missionary lives.
