Feasting Our Eyes Laura Lindenfeld, Fabio Parasecoli, 2016-11-29 Big Night 1996 Ratatouille 2007 and Julie and Julia 2009 are more than films about food they serve a political purpose In the kitchen around the table and in the dining room these films use cooking and eating to explore such themes as ideological pluralism ethnic and racial acceptance gender equality and class flexibility but not as progressively as you might think Feasting Our Eyes takes a second look at these and other modern American food films to emphasize their conventional approaches to nation gender race sexuality and social status Devoured visually and emotionally these films are particularly effective defenders of the status quo Feasting Our Eyes looks at Hollywood films and independent cinema documentaries and docufictions from the 1990s to today and frankly assesses their commitment to racial diversity tolerance and liberal political ideas Laura Lindenfeld and Fabio Parasecoli find women and people of color continue to be treated as objects of consumption even in these modern works and despite their progressive veneer American food films often mask a conservative politics that makes commercial success more likely A major force in mainstream entertainment American food films shape our sense of who belongs who has a voice and who has opportunities in American society They facilitate the virtual consumption of traditional notions of identity and citizenship reworking and reinforcing ingrained ideas of power Critics and Writers Speak Igor Maver, 2006-01-01 This book of new critical essays and interviews with writers interrogates the current usage of the term and the category of the post colonial as a theoretical concept discourse and state of mind By looking at contemporary writing in English throughout the world it critically revises the current practice of post colonial studies and calls attention to its significant weaknesses Race and Culture Sumita Dutta, Reenee Singh, 2018-04-24 Race and Culture Tools Techniques and Trainings is a practical resource for trainers who wish to work with the issues raised by racial and cultural diversity in their own agency settings It is intended as an easy guide and a hands on tool for practitioners family therapists clinical psychologists social workers GPs nurses health visitors counsellors teachers etc academics educators and students It brings together contributions from professional trainers working in multiple and diverse settings It is aimed both at those who would like to initiate training on diversity in their agency contexts or those who wish to include the important dimensions of race and culture into their existing trainings This book emerged directly from training developed by the authors for professionals working with refugees in their own communities at the Centre for Cross Cultural Studies at the Institute of Family Therapy Transnational America Inderpal Grewal, 2005-06-28 A study of South Asian Americans which views both their identity and that of America as constructed transnationally between the U S and India Diasporic Consciousness in the select novels of Chitra anarjee Divakaruni Dr. P. Prasanna Kumari, 2018-09-14 The story of the Indian English novel is about the story of changing India There was a time when education was a rare opportunity and speaking English was not considered necessary The stories were already there spread all over the subcontinent in the myths in the folklore and the umpteen languages and cultures that gossiped conversed laughed and cried India has always been a land of stories      Desi Dreams Ashidhara Das,2012 Desi Dreams focuses on the construction of self and identity by Indian immigrant professional and semi professional women who live and work in the US The focus in this anthropological fieldwork is on Indian immigrants in the San Francisco Bay Area They have often been defined as a model minority Indian immigrant women who have achieved entry into the current technology based economy in the Silicon Valley value the capital accumulation status transformation socio economic autonomy and renegotiation of familial gender relations that are made possible by their employment However this quintessential American success story conceals the psychic costs of uneasy Americanization long drawn out gender battles and incessant cross cultural journeys of selves and identities The outcome is a diasporic identity through the recomposition of Indian culture in the diaspora and strengthening of transnational ties to India      Salman Rushdie in the Cultural Marketplace Ana Cristina Mendes,2016-03-23 Taking up the roles that Salman Rushdie himself has assumed as a cultural broker gatekeeper and mediator in various spheres of public production Ana Cristina Mendes situates his work in terms of the contemporary production circulation and consumption of postcolonial texts within the workings of the cultural industries Mendes pays particular attention to Rushdie as a public performer across various creative platforms not only as a novelist and short story writer but also as a public intellectual reviewer and film critic Mendes argues that how a postcolonial author becomes personally and professionally enmeshed in the dealings of the cultural industries is of particular relevance at a time when the market is strictly regulated by a few multinational corporations She contends that marginality should not be construed exclusively as a basis for understanding Rushdie s work since a critical grounding in marginality will predictably involve a reproduction of the traditional postcolonial binaries of oppressor oppressed and colonizer colonized that the writer subverts Rather she seeks to expand existing interpretations of Rushdie s work itineraries and frameworks in order to take into account the actual conditions of postcolonial cultural production and circulation within a marketplace that is global in both orientation and effects      Fairy Tales and Feminism Donald Haase,2004 In the 1970s feminists focused critical attention on fairy tales broke the spell that had enchanted readers for centuries by exposing the role of the fairy tale in the cultural struggle over gender This book revisits feminist criticism offers a new evaluation of its merits      Maiz Y Coca-Cola Diane Terezakis,2001-05-03 Whether sharing knowledge attained through a sacred plant ritual the romance she finds with a leader of the Huaorani or the tarantulas that frighten her while she bathes Diane Terezakis authentically shares her experiences as if unashamedly talking to a best friend Diances quest for the elusive yet eclectic state of enlightenment is an inner and outer journey where she seeks to acquire shamanic wisdom as well as to learn about herself and although she has a game plan in mind Diane follows the path that the Universe governs Part One Civilization chronicles the introductory voyage that takes the author through the Ecuadorian Amazon and Andes meeting shamans she wants to return and study with the indigenous and the gringos she befriends along the way the scrapes she gets into and the reflections on significant episodes in her life In

Part Two Ecuador Colombia and Peru the authors mentor a shaman in the Ecuadorian Andes Dr Valentin Hampejs helps point the way toward other medicine men for her to supplement her studies with after her disappointing stay with the Secoya shaman Don Cesario Enlightening rituals with Dr Hampejs a romantic relationship with the Huaorani Moi and fun times with her quasi cousins help balance her disappointment Chauvinism greed and alcohol have marred many of the medicine men that the author finds Journeying through the Andes while El Ninos ravishing of roads has made travel dangerous Terezakis precariously makes her way into the Peruvian Andes plagued by recurring dreams with important messages that eventually lead her back home Elixir qualities aside inhabitants of the Amazon jungle and the Andes Mountains symbolized by Maiz are becoming perpetually Westernized symbolized by Coca Cola emblems throughout South America and the terrain is sadly changing Oil companies decimate the Amazon daily and cultures in both vicinities are losing their hold As if catching fleeting moments on film Diane attempts through her memoir to immortalize the beauty of the jungle and the mountains while capturing comic moments vulnerable endearing episodes thought provoking tragedies and painful disillusionment Dianas passages weave into an unforgettable scrapbook of her travels in South America

Encyclopedic Dictionary of Diasporic Indian English Writing Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, Natasha Vashisht, 2025-05-15 The Handbook of Diasporic Indian Writing in English is an essential reference to Indian literature It features alphabetical entries of Indian writers who have bridged the gap between cultures and redefined language boundaries As the field of diasporic writing continues to expand and intersect with various branches of English and Cultural studies it anticipates a growing market It offers a unique and compelling perspective on the global tapestry of literature It draws on various interdisciplinary approaches including postcolonial theory cultural studies and digital humanities to offer fresh and innovative perspectives on the literature It is an indispensable resource for research scholars of literary studies and related disciplines like cultural studies and postcolonial studies

Bridges, Borders and Bodies Christine Vogt-William, 2014-10-02 South Asian diasporas can be considered transcultural legacies of colonialism while constituting transcultural forms of postcolonial reality in today's globalised world The main focus of investigation here is South Asian women's fiction where diverse forms of identity negotiation undertaken by the protagonists in a number of contemporary novels from the 1990s to the early 2000s are read as transgressions The themes of early gendered experiences of South Asian indentured labour migration female genealogies and transmissions of cultural heritages down female lines as well as negotiations of patriarchal violence are read using a framework culled from postcolonial and feminist criticism The literary representations of South Asian diasporic female experience in these texts are forms of commentary and critique by contemporary South Asian diasporic women writers Hence these novels can be viewed as feminist strategies of textual creativity with distinct political aims of presenting transformative narratives addressing the tensions of diaspora and patriarchy This book is intended to contribute to the current spectrum of academic work being done in diaspora studies in that it brings together the concepts of diaspora transculturality contemporary women's writing and transnational feminist critical approaches to bear on South Asian women's diasporic literature. Contrary to the celebratory notion of the concept in much theory, transculturality as represented in these texts is fraught with ambivalence.

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer Mark Twain, Susan Hill, 2008

Ways of Belonging Andrea Dworkin, 1999. This is a wonderful book, the product of much love, sense and sensibility and dedication. Its starting point is the Americanization of writer Bharati Mukherjee. Its thesis is that in Mukherjee's case, Americanization or the gradual integration into American society of a student who originated from India took the form of a trauma of self-transformation. It was an experience that has also found a lasting expression in Mukherjee's fiction.
