La plenitud del hombre Raimon Panikkar, 1999-10-14 Como el propio autor indica al comienzo de este libro estas páginas son una reflexión sobre la condición humana en su dimensión más profunda y menos condicionada por las vicisitudes históricas aquella que busca un deseo de plenitud y de vida de felicidad y de infinito de verdad y de belleza que va más allá de las contingencias religiosas y culturales La plenitud del hombre constituye el intento de concentrar en pocas páginas el pathos de toda una vida La primera parte de esta obra es una reflexión sobre la figura central de la conciencia cristiana y propone una profundización de la cristología clásica La segunda es un intento de descifrar la experiencia mística de Jesús de Nazaret La tercera se centra en describir en nueve sutras la epifanía cristiana a la luz de una experiencia que ha pasado a través de la criba de la metodología a la que se ha hecho referencia en la primera
