Mixed Families Adopting Across Racial Boundaries:

Mixed Families Joyce A. Ladner, 1978 Race in Transnational and Transracial Adoption Vilna Bashi

Treitler, 2014-07-22 When parents form families by reaching across social barriers to adopt children where and how does race enter the adoption process How do agencies parents and the adopted children themselves deal with issues of difference in adoption This volume engages writers from both sides of the Atlantic to take a close look at these issues Interracial Intimacies Randall Kennedy, 2012-09-12 With the same piercing intelligence as the bestselling Say it Loud Interracial Intimacies hits a nerve at the center of American society race relations and our most intimate ties to each other The best book written on the subject an exhaustive source of deep rich scholarship and surefooted brilliant analysis Seattle Times Analyzing the tremendous changes in the history of America's racial dynamics Randall Kennedy challenges us to examine how prejudices and biases still fuel fears and inform our sexual marital and family choices He takes us from the injustices of the slave era up to present day battles over race matching adoption policies which seek to pair children with adults of the same race He tackles such subjects as the presence of sex in racial politics the historic role of legal institutions in policing racial boundaries and the real and imagined pleasures that have attended interracial intimacy A bracing much needed look at the way we have lived in the past Interracial Intimacies is also a hopeful book offering a potent vision of our future as a multiracial democracy Mapping the Social Landscape Susan J. Ferguson, 2020-08-27 Mapping The Social Landscape is one of the most established and widely used readers for Introductory Sociology Susan J Ferguson selects edits and introduces 58 readings representing a plurality of voices and views within sociology The selections include classic statements from great thinkers like C Wright Mills Karl Marx and Max Weber as well of the works of contemporary scholars who address current social issues Adopting for God Soojin Chung, 2021-12-14 Explores the role played by missionaries in the twentieth century transnational adoption movement Between 1953 and 2018 approximately 170 000 Korean children were adopted by families in dozens of different countries with Americans providing homes to more than two thirds of them In an iconic photo taken in 1955 Harry and Bertha Holt can be seen descending from a Pan American World Airways airplane with twelve Asian babies eight for their family and four for other families As adoptive parents and evangelical Christians who identified themselves as missionaries the Holts unwittingly became both the metaphorical and literal parental figures in the growing movement to adopt transnationally Missionaries pioneered the transnational adoption movement in America Though their role is known there has not yet been a full historical look at their theological motivations which varied depending on whether they were evangelically or ecumenically focused and what the effects were for American society relations with Asia and thinking about race more broadly Adopting for God shows that somewhat surprisingly both evangelical and ecumenical Christians challenged Americans to redefine traditional familial values and rethink race matters By questioning the perspective that equates missionary humanitarianism with unmitigated cultural imperialism this book offers a more nuanced picture of the rise of an important twentieth century movement the evangelization of adoption and the awakening of a new type of Christian mission Shifting the Center Susan J. Ferguson, 2022-11-21 Shifting the Center Understanding Contemporary Families Sixth Edition is a popular anthology of readings used in Sociology of Family and of Marriages Families Intimate Relationship courses Editor Susan J Ferguson brings together carefully selected pieces written by leading family researchers and drawn from a variety of scholarly sources including articles from the leading family journals and excerpts from several classic book length studies She also provides background and context to help students connect the topics in the readings to the broader themes in the study of family sociology The table of contents follows the same scope and sequence as the leading family survey texts The Ethics of Transracial Adoption Hawley Fogg-Davis, 2018-10-18 Transracial adoption is one of the most contentious issues in adoption politics and in the politics of race more generally Some who support transracial adoption use a theory of colorblindness while many who oppose it draw a causal connection between race and culture and argue that a black child s racial and cultural interests are best served by black adoptive parents Hawley Fogg Davis carves out a middle ground between these positions She believes that race should not be a barrier to adoption but neither should it be absent from the minds of prospective adopters and adoption practitioners Fogg Davis s argument in favor of transracial adoption is based on the moral and legal principle of nondiscrimination and a theory of race consciousness she terms racial navigation Challenging the notion that children get their racial identity from their parents she argues that children through the process of racial navigation should cultivate their self identification in dialogue with others The Ethics of Transracial Adoption explores new ground in the transracial adoption debate by examining the relationship between personal and public conceptions of race and racism before during and after adoption Almost All Aliens Paul Spickard, Francisco Beltrán, Laura Hooton, 2022-09-15 Almost All Aliens offers a unique reinterpretation of immigration in the history of the United States Setting aside the European migrant centered melting pot model of immigrant assimilation Paul Spickard Francisco Beltrán and Laura Hooton put forward a fresh and provocative reconceptualization that embraces the multicultural racialized and colonially inflected reality of immigration that has always existed in the United States Their astute study illustrates the complex relationship between ethnic identity and race slavery and colonial expansion Examining the lives of those who crossed the Atlantic as well as those who crossed the Pacific the Caribbean and the North American Borderlands Almost All Aliens provides a distinct inclusive and critical analysis of immigration race and identity in the United States from 1600 until the present The second edition updates Almost All Aliens through the first two decades of the twenty first century recounting and analyzing the massive changes in immigration policy the reception of immigrants and immigrant experiences that whipsawed back and forth throughout the era It includes a new final chapter that brings the story up to the present day This book will appeal to students and researchers alike studying the history of immigration race and colonialism in the United States as well as those interested in American identity especially in the context of the early twenty first century

Addressing Cultural Issues in Organizations Robert T. Carter, 1999-12-15 Changing demographics are forcing organizations in the United States to address cultural issues Addressing Cultural Issues in Organizations analyzes how unexamined cultural patterns influence an organization's culture Organized into three sections this volume was written by a panel of experts with extensive research and publication histories in psychology education and organizational consulting How organizational leaders shape and influence the agenda surrounding culture and how culture matters in the country's organizational life is explored as well as institutional and organizational issues in corporate educational mental health and service organizations Various organizational intervention strategies and approaches are also discussed This book provides groundbreaking conceptual models as well as ideas about how to build practical approaches to organizational interventions

Weaving a Family Barbara Katz Rothman, 2006-05-01 Weaving together the sociological the historical and the personal Barbara Katz Rothman looks at the contemporary American family through the lens of race race through the lens of adoption and all race family and adoption within the context of the changing meanings of motherhood Fixing Families Jennifer A. Reich, 2012-12-06 In Fixing Families Jennifer Reich takes us inside Child Protective Services for an in depth look at the entire organization Following families from the beginning of a case to its discharge Reich shows how parents negotiate with the state for custody of their children and how being held accountable to the state affects a family Being Adopted David M. Brodzinsky, Marshall D. Schechter, Robin Marantz Henig, 1993-03-01 Like Passages this groundbreaking book uses the poignant powerful voices of adoptees and adoptive parents to explore the experience of adoption and its lifelong effects A major work filled with astute analysis and moving truths Adoption - But at what Price?, 2003 Kinship by Design

Ellen Herman, 2009-08-01 What constitutes a family Tracing the dramatic evolution of Americans answer to this question over the past century Kinship by Design provides the fullest account to date of modern adoption's history Beginning in the early 1900s when children were still transferred between households by a variety of unregulated private arrangements Ellen Herman details efforts by the U S Children's Bureau and the Child Welfare League of America to establish adoption standards in law and practice She goes on to trace Americans shifting ideas about matching children with physically or intellectually similar parents revealing how research in developmental science and technology shaped adoption as it navigated the nature nurture debate Concluding with an insightful analysis of the revolution that ushered in special needs transracial and international adoptions Kinship by Design ultimately situates the practice as both a different way to make a family and a universal story about love loss identity and belonging In doing so this volume provides a new vantage point from which to view twentieth century America revealing as much about social welfare statecraft and science as it does about childhood family and private life Rethinking the Color Line Charles A. Gallagher, 2022-01-20 Rethinking the Color Line helps make sense of how race and ethnicity influence aspects of social life in ways that are often made invisible by culture politics and economics Charles A Gallagher has assembled a collection of readings that are theoretically informed and empirically grounded to explain the dynamics of race and ethnicity in the United States Students will be equipped to confidently navigate the issues of race and ethnicity examine its contradictions and gain a comprehensive understanding of how race and ethnic relations are embedded in the institutions that structure their lives User friendly without sacrificing intellectual or theoretical rigor the Seventh Edition has been thoroughly updated to reflect the current debates and the state of contemporary U S race relations

Raising Biracial Children Kerry Ann Rockquemore, Tracey A. Laszloffy, 2005-11-10 As the multiracial population in the United States continues to rise new models for our understanding of mixed race children and how their conception of racial identity must be developed A wide divide between academics who research biracial identity and the everyday world of parents and practitioners who raise and deal with mixed race children exists This book aims to fill this gap by providing an extensive synthesis of the existing research in the field as well as a model for better understanding the unique process of racial identity development for mixed race children Raising Biracial Children provides parents educators social workers and anyone interested in multiracial issues with an accessible framework for understanding healthy mixed race identity development and to translate those findings into practical care giving strategies
