Japan, France, and East-West Aesthetics Jan Hokenson, 2004 Japan France is the first comprehensive history of the idea of Japan in France as tracked through close readings of canonical French writers and thinkers from the 1860s to the present The focus is literary and intellectual the context cultural The discovery of Japanese woodblock prints in Paris following the opening of Japan to the West in 1854 was a startling aesthetic encounter that played a crucial role in the Impressionists and Post Impressionists invention of Modernism

French writers also experimented with Japanese aesthetics in their own work in ways that similarly thread into the foundations of literary Modernism Japonisme the practice of adapting Japanese aesthetics to creative work in the West became a sustained French tradition in texts by such writers as Zola and Proust through Barthes and Bonnefoy Each generation discovered new Japanese arts and genres commented on the work of their predecessors in this vein and broke still more ground in East West aesthetics to innovate in the forms of Western literature and thought To read literary history in this way unsettles Eurocentric assumptions about many of the French writers who are commonly considered the Russian TV Series in the Era of Transition Alexander Prokhorov, Elena Prokhorova, Rimgaila Salys, 2021-12-14 Russian TV Series in the Era of Transition examines contemporary Russian television genres in the age of transition from broadcast to post broadcast television Focusing on critical debates and the most significant TV series of the past two decades the volume s contributors the leading US and European scholars studying Russian television as well as the leading Russian TV producers and directors focus on three major issues Russian television s transition to digital post broadcast economy which redefined the media environment Russian television s integration into global television markets and their genre systems and major changes in the representation of gender and sexuality on Russian television Photography and Collaboration Daniel Palmer, 2020-09-14 Photography and Collaboration offers a fresh perspective on existing debates in art photography and on the act of photography in general Unlike conventional accounts that celebrate individual photographers and their personal visions this book investigates the idea that authorship in photography is often more complex and multiple than we imagine involving not only various forms of partnership between photographers but also an astonishing array of relationships with photographed subjects and viewers Thematic chapters explore the increasing prevalence of collaborative approaches to photography among a broad range of international artists from conceptual practices in the 1960s to the most recent digital manifestations Positioning contemporary work in a broader historical and theoretical context the book reveals that collaboration is an overlooked but essential dimension of the medium s development and potential 1946-1968 Timothy Stroud, 2006 A new title of the 5 volume series covering the fundamental events and pivotal works of international art in the 20th century With the third volume this history of art goes past the halfway mark of the 20th century to enter the contemporary sphere The book relates how artists reacted to the greatest tragedy of the 20th century and responded to the advent of the society of mass communication and consumption to the moulding of the world in which we find ourselves ever more deeply immersed today The collapse and rebirth of Europe the years of the Cold War and the evolution leading to the upheavals of 1968 are fundamental themes of this third volume James Ensor Patricia G. Berman, 2002 The brash young artist James Ensor painted Christ s Entry into Brussels in 1889 during a period of extraordinary artistic and political fomentation in his native Belgium It is one of the most dazzling innovative and perplexing paintings created in Europe in the late nineteenth century rivaling any work of its period in audacity and ambition Huge in scale complex in design and execution and brimming with social commentary the startling canvas presents a scene filled with clowns masked figures and barely visible amid the swirling crowds the tiny figure of Christ on a donkey entering the city of Brussels This insightful volume examines the painting in light of Belgium's rich artistic social political and theological debates in the late nineteenth century and in the context of James Ensor's exceptional career in order to decipher some of the painting's messages and meanings French Paintings of the Fifteenth Through the Eighteenth Century National Gallery of Art (U.S.), Philip Conisbee, 2009 This illustrated book written by leading scholars and the result of years of research and technical analysis catalogues nearly one hundred paintings from works by Francois Clouet in the sixteenth century to paintings by Elisabeth Louise Vigee Le Brun in the eighteenth All these works are explored in detailed readable entries that will appeal as much to the general art lover as to the specialist Book Jacket Poussin and French Dynastic Ideology Judith E. Bernstock, 2000 This book reveals that many of Nicolas Poussin's most renowned mythological and biblical paintings were intended as celebrations of the Bourbon monarchy It now becomes clear that Poussin long considered the greatest painter of early modern France was also preeminent in supporting Bourbon claims and in establishing an early multilayered iconography of absolutism in French painting His rhetorical techniques for exalting the Bourbons correspond to the endeavours of Louis XIII and Richelieu in exploiting the arts to create a public image of dynastic continuity Using an approach of cultural history this book shows that Poussin's art emerges as a fascinating and even witty mirror of seventeenth century French culture Who's who in American Art 1995 - 96 21st Ed Reed Reference Publishing, 1995 Biografisch woordenboek waarin een overzicht wordt gegeven van kunstenaars uit de Verenigde Staten van Amerika Canada en Mexico Richard & Maria Cosway Stephen Lloyd, Richard Cosway, Maria Hadfield Cosway, Roy Porter, Aileen Ribeiro, National Portrait Gallery (Great Britain), 1995
