Eternity Now Wojciech Tworek,2019-07-15 The Habad movement formed in eighteenth century Belarus has developed into one of the most influential streams of Hasidic Judaism Drawing on both mystical sermons and legal writings of its founder Rabbi Shneur Zalman of Liady 1745 1812 Eternity Now provides the first account of the historiosophical dimensions of early Habad doctrine Challenging the commonly held view that Shneur Zalman was primarily concerned with supratemporal transcendence Wojciech Tworek reveals the importance of time and history in his teachings Tworek argues that the worldly dimensions of Shneur Zalman s thought were largely responsible for the rapid growth of Habad at the turn of the nineteenth century and fostered its transformation from an elitist circle into a mass movement Tworek s readings of Hebrew and Yiddish sources demonstrate the implications of these ideas not only for male scholars but also for non scholars Jewish women and even non Jews Philosophical and kabbalistic thought joined together to form a model of religious experience attractive to a broad audience laying an ideological foundation for the missionary messianism that was to become a hallmark of Habad in the twentieth century their prayer on the Scriptures in particular the gospels These short reflections attempt to listen to the gospel text on its own terms while showing how it can continue to speak to our church and our world today The book will appeal to priests in parishes who may wish to prepare a short homily for the weekday Mass as well as to parishioners who wish to prayerfully reflect on the weekday gospel readings as well as Lectio Divina groups in parishes The calendar of the book helps the busy presider as the reflections are linked to the readings by calendar date rather than the church calendar Rhythms of
