Galignani (Firm), 1830 L'Architecture Claude-Nicolas Ledoux, 1983 Few architects have had a vision of architecture as provocative as that of Claude Nicolas Ledoux In 1847 Daniel Rame assembled 300 plates by Ledoux in two volumes The Rame edition is now scarce but has been reproduced here in a one volume format Princeton Architectural Press's Reprint Series was established in 1981 to make rare volumes on architecture available to a wider audience The books beautiful reproductions and finest quality printing and binding match those of the originals while their 9 by 12 inch format makes them accessible and affordable New introductions bring a modern voice to these classic texts updating them to become invaluable contemporary resources These critically acclaimed books are an essential addition to any library A Cultural History of Tragedy in the Age of Enlightenment Mitchell Greenberg, 2021-05-20 The period covered by this volume in the Cultural History of Tragedy set is bookended by two shockingly similar historical events the beheading of a king Charles I of England in 1649 and Louis XIV of France in 1793 The period between these two dates saw enormous political social and economic changes that altered European society's cultural life Tragedy which had dominated the European stage at the beginning of this period gradually saw itself replaced by new literary forms culminating in the gradual decline of theatrical tragedy from the heights it had reached in the 1660s The dominance of France's military and cultural prestige during this period is reflected in the important almost exclusive space dedicated in this volume to the French stage This book covers the tragedies of France's two greatest playwrights Pierre Corneille 1606-84 and Jean Racine 1639-99 which would dominate not only the French stage but through translations and adaptations became the model of tragic theater across Europe finding imitators in England Dryden Italy Alfieri and as far afield as Russia This dominance continued well into the 18th century with the triumph of Voltaire's tragedies This volume also examines how the writings of Diderot and Lessing changed the direction of theatre and how after the Revolution in the writings of Goethe Schiller Hegel tragedy and the tragic were reimagined and became the sign of European modernity Each chapter takes a different theme as its focus forms and media sites of performance and circulation communities of production and consumption philosophy and social theory religion ritual and myth politics of city and nation society and family and gender and sexuality From Plantation to Paradise? David M. Powers, 2014-05-01 In 1764 the first printing press was established in the French Caribbean colonies launching the official documentation of operas and plays performed there and marking the inauguration of the first theatre in the colonies A rigorous study of pre French Revolution performance practices in Guadeloupe Martinique and Saint Domingue now Haiti Powers's book examines the elaborate system of social casting in these colonies the environments in which nonwhite artists emerged and both negative and positive contributions of the Catholic Church and the military to operas and concerts produced in the colonies The author also explores the level of participation of nonwhites in these productions as well as theatre architecture and repertoire seating arrangements and types of audiences The status of nonwhite artists in colonial society the range of operas in which they performed their accomplishments praise criticism and the use of creole texts and white actors singers visages noirs with blackened faces present a clear picture of French operatic culture in these colonies Approaching the French Revolution the study concludes with an examination of the ways in which colonial opera was affected by slave uprisings the French Revolution the emergence of patriotic theatres and their role in fostering support for the king as well as the impact on subsequent operas produced in the colonies and in the United States     The Garrick Stage Allardyce Nicoll,1981     The Gentleman's Magazine ,1809 The Gentleman's magazine section is a digest of selections from the weekly press the Trader's monthly intelligencer section consists of news foreign and domestic vital statistics a register of the month's new publications and a calendar of forthcoming trade fairs     Gentleman's Magazine and Historical Review ,1809     The Colonnade... ,1922     The French Stage in the XVIIIth Century Thomas Edward Lawrenson,1957     The Practical French Grammar ... The Poetical Works of John Trumbull, LL. D. John Trumbull,1922     The Culture of Diagram John Bender,Michael Marrinan,2010-01-20 The Culture of Diagram is about visual thinking Exploring a terrain where words meet pictures and formulas meet figures the book foregrounds diagrams as tools for blurring those boundaries to focus on the production of knowledge as process It outlines a history of convergence among diverse streams of data in real time from eighteenth century print media and the diagrammatic procedures in the pages of Diderot's Encyclopedia to the paintings of Jacques Louis David and mathematical devices that reveal the unseen worlds of quantum physics Central to the story is the process of correlation which invites observers to participate by eliciting leaps of imagination to fill gaps in data equations or sensations This book traces practices that ran against the grain of both Locke's clear and distinct ideas and Newton's causality practices greatly expanded by the calculus probabilities and protocols of data sampling Today's digital technologies are rooted in the ability of high speed computers to correct errors when returning binary data to the human sensorium High tech diagrams echo the visual structures of the Encyclopedia arraying packets of dissimilar data across digital spaces instead of white paper The culture of diagram broke with the certainties of eighteenth century science to expand the range of human experience Speaking across disciplines and discourses Bender and Marrinan situate our modernity in a new and revealing light     Identity and Ideology Julie Candler Hayes,1991 In a study drawing on contemporary and 18th century literary theory and philosophy social history and history of the theatre Hayes presents a reading of the dramas of Diderot and Sade and argues for a new understanding of the genre as a whole     The Reinvention of Religious Music Sander van Maas,2009-08-25 On the basis of a careful analysis of Olivier Messiaen's work this book argues for a renewal of our thinking about religious music. Addressing his notion of a hyper-religious music of sounds and colors, it aims to show that Messiaen has broken new ground. His reinvention of religious music makes us again aware of the fact that religious music, if taken in its proper radical sense, belongs to the foremost of musical adventures. The work of Olivier Messiaen is well known for its inclusion of religious themes and gestures. These alone, however, do not seem enough to account for the religious status of the work. Arguing for a breakthrough toward the beyond on the basis of the synaesthetic experience of music, Messiaen invites a confrontation with contemporary theologians and post-secular thinkers. How to account for a religious breakthrough that is produced by a work of art? Starting from an analysis of his 1960s oratorio La Transfiguration de Notre Seigneur Jésus Christ, this book arranges a moderated dialogue between Messiaen and the music theology of Hans Urs von Balthasar, the phenomenology of revelation of Jean-Luc Marion, the rethinking of religion and technics in Jacques Derrida and Bernard Stiegler, and the Augustinian ruminations of Søren Kierkegaard and Jean-François Lyotard. Ultimately, this confrontation underscores the challenging yet deeply affirmative nature of Messiaen's music.

Apartment Stories Sharon Marcus, 1999. Apartment Stories works from the brilliant premise that urban culture and domestic architecture are indeed related in a number of unpredictable and mutually enlightening ways. Marcus's readings of Balzac and Zola novels in the context of the new urban architecture are absolutely superb and she remains subtle and unexpected at every step. Bruce Robbins, author of Feeling Global.

Youth on Edge Vincenzo Cicchelli, Sylvie Octobre, 2022-10-10. This book explores disrupted youth cohesion in France within the context of multiple ongoing global economic, migratory, social, political, and security-related crises. While these trends can be observed in numerous Western societies, France provides a unique case study of various anti-cosmopolitan and anti-Enlightenment movements shaping youth conditions and reconfiguring relationships between the individual, the group, and society. The authors undertook in-depth interviews with French young people between the ages of 18 to 30 years old to inquire into how they experience vivre ensemble (living together) in a time of rising economic inequalities and multicultural tensions. Through these findings, they invite decision-makers, politicians, educators, and parents to propose a renewed narrative of social cohesion for youth who are not disillusioned but deeply on edge.
