Sight-Translation Preparation Exercise

Reading Lesson: Sight-Translation Preparation

Instructions: This lesson is for you to prepare for the sight translation exercise "Affirmation" that will appear on the next screen.

Scenario

In the following exercise you will be sight translating part of an affirmation being signed in the presence of a notary.

Imagine you need to read this document into your target language to a NES customer.

Terminology

Below are some of the terms that are included in the document. Are you familiar with what they mean? How would you interpret these terms into your target language? Look them up in the dictionary, if you're not sure. Also, remember if you don't know the exact translation of a term, you can explain the term. That's why it's always important to know the meaning of the term before deciding on a translation.

Preparation For Translation Ver 3:

Preparing Parish Liturgies Rita Thiron, 2004 Preparing Parish Liturgies provides historical background synopses and careful outlines of the Church's major liturgical books and documents. Then with easy to understand language helpful charts and sound liturgical principles the author arms both the veteran and the novice with practical tools for preparing parish liturgies that are both faithful to the Church's rich tradition and sensitive to the pastoral needs of their assemblies. Translation as a Profession Daniel Gouadec, 2007 Translation as a profession provides an in depth analysis of the translating profession and the translation industry. The book starts with a presentation of the diversity of translations and an overview of the translation localisation process. The second section describes the translation profession and the translators markets. The third section considers the process of becoming a translator from the moment people find out whether they have the required qualities to the moment when they set up shop or find a job with special emphasis on how to find and hold on to clients avoiding basic mistakes. The fourth section concentrates on the vital professional issues of costs rates deadlines time to market productivity ethics standards qualification certification and professional recognition. The fifth section is devoted to the developments that have provoked ongoing changes in the profession and industry such as ICT and the impact of industrialisation internationalisation and globalisation. The final section is devoted to the major issues involved in translator training. A glossary is provided together with a list of Websites for further browsing. Bible in China Jost Oliver Zetzsche, 2017-07-05 The Union Version China's preeminent and most widely used translation of the Bible had achieved the status of a sacred Chinese classic within the Chinese Church not long after its publication in 1919. Jost Zetzsche's monograph on this remarkable translation traces the historical and linguistic background that led to the decision to translate the Union Version with detailed analyses of the translation efforts that preceded it. Special attention is given to the cooperation and confrontation among Protestant denominations as well as the rising prominence of the Chinese translators as these groups attempted to form a cohesive translation of the Bible. This is set against the background of the development of the Chinese language during the 30 year translation process both in the perception of the translators and in the country at large.
