Student Diversity, Choice, and School Improvement Charles V. Willie,Ralph Edwards,Michael J. Alves,2002-12-30 Diversified schools in which students of various racial ethnic and socioeconomic characteristics are balanced have a positive contextual effect on achievement for all groups compared to schools with homogeneous student bodies that tend to help affluent white students and harm poor students and students of color The authors advise school districts convicted for operating segregated schools on how to make all schools schools of choice that must compete for students who enroll in them And it discusses ways of being fair and just in the distribution of educational resources to affluent as well as poor students and to white students as well as students of color School systems that are reluctant to use racial fairness guidelines in the enrollment process are advised to use socioeconomic fairness guidelines because the absence of any enrollment fairness guidelines tends to result in the return to segregation and a dual school system helpful to a few but harmful to many students This book suggests ways of empowering parents and professional educators and it discusses how to achieve a good outcome for urban as well as rural school districts and for large as well as small school systems Among communities mentioned in this study are Cambridge Boston Brockton MA St Lucie County Lee County Hillsborough County including Tampa FL Santa Rosa County CA Seattle WA New Haven CT Rockford IL Milwaukee WI and Charleston County SC Bringing Schools into the 21st Century Guofang Wan,Dianne M. skills do students need to lead successful lives and become productive citizens in the 21st century How can educators create learning environments that are relevant and meaningful for digital natives How can the school curriculum be made more rigorous to meet the needs of the 21st century This book encourages readers to transcend the limits of their own educational experience to think beyond familiar notions of schooling instruction and curriculum to consider how to best structure learning so that it will benefit future generations It encourages a deeper analysis of the existing education system and offers practical insights into future directions focused on preparing students with 21st century skills Preparing Middle Level Educators for 21st Century Schools Penny B. dilemmas that eastern countries especially China and western countries are facing with regard to teacher education We explore the question by examining teacher education research practice and policy in different countries identifying both common problems and country specific challenges We then try to find valuable experiences theories and practice which can solve specific problems in the process of teacher education also addressing how local and global factors impact it In this regard our approach does not strictly separate pre service teacher education from teachers in service professional development adopting an integrative perspective Further we believe the respective social and cultural contexts must also be taken into account Lastly we call for teachers knowledge and individual character traits to be accounted for in the education of high quality teachers
