Preparing Your Manuscript:

Chicago Guide to Preparing Electronic Manuscripts University of Chicago. Press, 1987 This guide to preparing manuscripts on computer offers authors and publishers practical assistance on how to use authors disks or tapes for typesetting When the thirteenth edition of The Chicago Manual of Style was published in 1982 the impact of personal computers on the publishing process had just begun to be felt This new book supplements information in the Chicago Manual by covering the rapidly changing subject of electronic manuscripts Since the early 1980s more and more authors have been producing manuscripts on computers and expecting their publishers to make use of the electronic version For a number of reasons including the proliferation of incompatible machines and software however publishers have not always found it easy to work with electronic manuscripts The University of Chicago Press has been doing so since 1981 and in this book passes on the results of six years experience with preparing such manuscripts and converting them to type
