Pre-Raphaelite Sisters Jan Marsh, Peter Funnell, Charlotte Gere, Pamela Gerrish Nunn, Alison Smith, 2019 For far too long the male protagonists of the Pre Raphaelite movement have dominated accounts of this revolution in British art This book aims to redress the balance in showing just how engaged and central women were to the endeavour as the subjects of the images themselves certainly but also in their production When the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood the PRB exhibited their first works in 1849 it heralded a revolution in British art Styling themselves the Young Painters of England this group of young men aimed to overturn stale Victorian artistic conventions and challenge the previous generation with their startling colours and compositions Think of the images created by William Holman Hunt John Everett Millais Dante Gabriel Rossetti and others in their circle however and it is not men but pale faced young women with lustrous tumbling locks that spring to mind gazing soulfully from the picture frame or in dramatic scenes painted in glowing colours Who were these women What is known of their lives and their roles in a movement that in successive phases spanned over half a century Some were models plucked from obscurity to pose for figures in Pre Raphaelite paintings while others were sisters wives daughters and friends of the artists Several were artists themselves with aspirations to match those of the men sharing the same artistic and social networks yet condemned by their gender to occupy a separate sphere Others inhabited and sustained a male dominated art world as partners in production maintaining households and studios and socialising with patrons Some were skilled in the arts of interior decoration dressmaking embroidery jewellery making the fine crafts that formed a supportive tier for the higher arts of painting and sculpture And although their backgrounds and life experiences certainly varied widely all were engaged in creating Pre Raphaelite art The Pre-Raphaelites John Herron Art Institute,1964 The Pre-Raphaelite Body J. B. Bullen,1998 Pre Raphaelitism was the first avant garde movement in Britain It shocked its first audience and as it modulated into Aestheticism it continued to disturb the British public In this fresh and original study Professor Bullen traces the sources of that shock to the representation of the human body By examining the discourses which were developed to denounce or to explain the new art forms he shows that the distorted maimed or eroticized body formed the principal focus of anxiety in nineteenth century criticism Using a truly interdisciplinary method he relates the painting of Millais and other early Pre Raphaelites to fears about cholera and Catholicism he demonstrates how the body of the sexualized female became an object of obsessive fascination in the painting and poetry of Dante Gabriel Rossetti and William Morris he locates the writing of Swinburne and Prater in the context of the debate over the Woman Question and he shows how the responses to the Aesthetic painting of Burne Jones were conditioned by the sexual psychopathology of mid nineteenth century mental science The Pre-Raphaelites James Harding,1977 Pre-Raphaelite Vision Allen Staley,Christopher Newall,Tim Batchelor,Alison Smith,Ian Warrell,Tate Britain (Gallery),2004-12 Published to accompany exhibition held at Tate Britain London 12 February 3 May 2004 the Altes Nationalgalerie Berlin 12 June 19 September 2004 and the Fundacio la Caixa Madrid 6 October 2004 9 January 2005 Pre-Raphaelitism and Medievalism in the Arts Liana Cheney,1992 This volume presents an interdisciplinary view of the interpretation of Pre Raphaelite art and literature The current intensifying interest in the relationship between the visual arts and narrative and their critical interpretation justifies a look at the earliest use of such orientation in the works of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood and its followers Particularly in the work of Rossetti Hunt Millais and Burne Jones one can see at work the Pre Raphaelist invention of a personal symbolic language The same holds true for their literary counterparts particularly Tennyson Francis Thompson and Swinburne The contributors essays cover the various methodologies of art history and literature as well as artistic and literary criticisms The main focus is the assimilation of the medieval tradition as well as the interpretation of it With many illustrations Pre-Raphaelite Paintings from the Manchester City Art Gallery Julian Treuherz,Manchester City Art Gallery,1980 The Art of the Pre-Raphaelites Edmund Swinglehurst,1994 The Pre Raphaelites formed in London in 1848 Its chief members were Holman Hunt Millais and Rossetti As a group they lasted for little more than a decade but gave a new direction to Victorian art which lasted into the 20th century They determined to paint from nature with objective truthfulness emulating the work of the great Italian artists before Raphael They turned to the Bible and classical mythology for inspiration and some of their best known works are shown in this book including Hunt s Light of the World and Millais Christ in the House of His Parents Pre-Raphaelites & Their World Rachel Barnes,1998-03 The Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood was founded in 1848 when a group of young artists joined together in an attempt to revitalise contemporary art Barnes discusses the lives and work of the friends and arch rivals including Rossetti Millais and Morris
