Head Start Programs Sherri Doughty,1999-05 Head Start has served over 16 million children at a cost of 35 billion in the 30 years of its existence Funding for Head Start has tripled in the past 10 years Growing out of the War on Poverty in the mid 1960s Head Start was created to provide comprehensive educational health social and mental health services to disadvantaged preschool children This report describes the 1 number and characteristics of those served 2 services provided and the way they are provided 3 federal and nonfederal program dollars received and spent by programs delivering Head Start services and 4 other programs providing similar early childhood services Head Start Programs United States. General Accounting Office,1998 Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1999 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies,1998 Reauthorizing Head Start United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions,2004 Coats Human Services Reauthorization Act of 1998 United States. Congress,1998 Appropriations, Budget Estimates, Etc United States. Congress,2000 Education and Society in Hong Kong and Macao M. Bray,Ramsey Koo,2006-06-28 Hong Kong and Macao have much in common The dominant populations in both territories are Cantonese speaking Chinese both are small in area both are urban societies both have been colonies of European powers and both have undergone political transition to reunification with China Yet in education for reasons that are analysed in this book they are very different The patters of similarities and differences in the two territories make a fascinating basis for comparative study The overarching theme of the book on continuity and change is particularly pertinent following the transition of the two societies of the postcolonial era This thoroughly revised and expanded second edition builds on the widely acclaimed first edition The work has been recognised as a significant contribution to the broad field of comparative education as well as to study of the specific societies which are its main focus Quadrilingual Education in Singapore Rita Elaine Silver,Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng,2016-01-21 This book explores Singapore s language education system Unlike previous volumes which discuss the bilingual requirement for learning it focuses on Singapore s quadrilingual system bringing together articles on each of the four languages English Mandarin Malay and Tamil as well as articles that examine more than one language It highlights past successes current concerns and future directions for language education The book focuses on classroom pedagogy in all four official languages showcasing how languages are taught and learned in Singapore as a basis for better understanding the system from the inside out The authors present empirical classroom based studies on language pedagogy in all four languages as well as updated information on the current socio political context and how it has influenced attempts at pedagogical innovation Consideration is given to the dialectical relationship between policy and practice The chapters also include discussions of pre school age learning influences of language policy home literacy practices and commentaries by international language in education scholars This approach also provides a basis for international comparison especially for those who are interested in fostering English proficiency while maintaining one or more national languages The volume is particularly important in light of the continuing international efforts to integrate English into national educational systems where it is not the dominant language New Jersey Register ,2015
