Presences De Marie:

The Publications of the Huguenot Society of London Huguenot Society of London, 1890 Cherchez la femme Erika Fülöp, 2011-05-25 Throughout history the most fundamental values at the basis of societal organization and culture were determined and sanctified almost exclusively by men including the values traditionally associated with women such as corporeal beauty purity motherhood or empathy However from ancient times and increasingly toward the end of the second millennium women have succeeded in finding ways to overcome such limits and have made their contributions to the revision of values and to the establishment of new ones Cherchez la femme offers a selection of essays inquiring into the nature of aesthetic linguistic cultural and social values created informed or reformed by women in the French speaking world as well as studies on how the discourse of male power used female figures to strengthen its own position With topics ranging in time from Semiramis's ancient legend to today and in space from Quebec to Haiti metropolitan France and New Caledonia the volume shares the richness and fruitfulness of the female perspective in art culture theory and political action Registers of the French Conformed Churches of St. Patrick and St. Mary, Dublin St. Mary's Chapel (St. Patrick's Cathedral). Église française, 1893 The Biography of Mdlle. Rachel John Darcie, 1855 Collections of the Huguenot Society of America Huguenot Society of America, 1886 The Presence of the Word Walter J. Ong, 1967-01-01 This provocative exploration of the nature and history of the word in some of its social psychological literary phenomenological and religious dimensions argues that the word is initially aural and in the last analysis always remains sound it cannot be reduced to any other category Father Ong contends that sound is essentially an event manifesting power and personal presence and his descriptive analysis of the development of the media of verbal expression from their oral sources through the laborious transfer to the visual world and then to contemporary means of electronic communication shows that the predicament of the human word is the predicament of man himself Examining the close alliance of the spoken word with the sense of the sacred particularly in the Hebreo Christian tradition he reveals that in a world where presence has penetrated time and space as never before modern man must find the God who has given himself in the Word which brings man more into the world of sound than of sight Index Medicus ,1913 Index Medicus. Second Series ,1913 Serology of Nervous and Mental Diseases David Michael Kaplan, 1914 Registers of the Births, Marriages, and Deaths of the "Eglise Française À la Nouvelle York," French Church du Saint Esprit (New York, N.Y.), 1968 Of the several Huguenot establishments founded in the United States that of New York is the first in date and in most respects the first in importance The records in this work comprise the existing baptismal marriage and death records of the French Church of New York from 1688 to 1804 together with a few other records belonging to the New Rochelle Annex Although the records have not been translated into English the language of the entries is so simple that even those who do not read French can easily understand it The records of the church cover the important period of immigration after the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685 An extensive index contains every name in the records including maiden names of the brides and names of witnesses sponsors parents and pastors This reprint is excerpted from Collections of the Huguenot Society of America Volume 1 1886 The Diary of the 'Blue Nuns' Conceptionists,1910 The Diary of the "Blue Nuns" Or Order of the Immaculate Conception of Our Lady, at Paris, 1658-1810 Conceptionists,1910 Signs of Devotion Virginia Blanton,2010-11-01 The Byzantine Aristocracy and its Military Function Jean-Claude Cheynet,2023-05-31 The first four studies in this volume by Jean Claude Cheynet specially translated from French for publication here present a broad ranging analysis of the Byzantine aristocracy of the 8th 12th centuries Along with the other articles in the first part they examine the evolution of aristocratic families and the composition of this group the relative importance of landholding and public office the notion of civilian and military families and patterns of inheritance In the second part the focus is on the Byzantine army with studies looking both at the position of aristocrats within it and more generally at the effectiveness of the army itself notably in the campaigns in Asia Minor against the Arabs and the Turks Midwifery and Medicine in Early Modern France Wendy Perkins,1996 An account of the work writings and career of Louise Bourgeois who had a flourishing midwifery practice at the French royal court at the beginning of the seventeenth century Bourgeois was notable as a successful and articulate woman practitioner and author Perkins who is an expert on French literature has integrated into her account recent work of social historians on medicine on the medical market place on patient doctor relations especially between women and medical practitioners and on the social construction of the body Le Nouveau Dogme en presence de l'Écriture Sainte et de la Tradition catholique, ou lettres à Monseigneur Malou ... sur son livre intitulée L'Immaculée Conception ... Par M. L'Abbé . Jean Baptiste MALOU (Bishop of Bruges.),1860 Refugees naturalized in and after 1681 Agnew, David Carnegie A.,David Carnegie Andrew Agnew,1886 Naturalizations of Foreign Protestants in the American and West Indian Colonies Great Britain. Board of Trade,1921 Registers of the French Church of Portarlinton, Ireland Portarlinton (Ireland). Église française,Portarlinton, Ire. Église française,1908 Sacramental Presence after Heidegger Conor Sweeney,2015-01-19 Theology after Heidegger must take into account history and language as constitutive elements in the pursuit of meaning Quite often this prompts a hurried flight from metaphysics to an embrace of an absence at the center of Christian narrativity In this book Conor Sweeney explores the postmodern critique of presence in the context of sacramental theology engaging the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and Lieven Boeve Chauvet is an influential postmodern theologian whose critique of the perceived onto theological constitution of presence in traditional sacramental theology has made big waves while Boeve is part of a more recent generation of theologians who even more wholeheartedly embrace postmodern consequences for theology Sweeney considers the extent to which postmodernism a la Heidegger upsets the hermeneutics of sacramentality asking whether this requires us to renounce the search for a presence that by definition transcends us Against both the fetishization of presence and absence Sweeney argues that metaphysics has a properly sacramental basis and that it is only through this reality that the dialectic of presence and absence can be transcended The case is made for the full but restless signification of the mother's smile as the paradigm for genuine sacramental presence
