London Transport's Last Buses Matthew Wharmby, 2016-02-29 The Olympian was Leyland's answer to the competition that was threatening to take custom away from its second generation OMO double deck products Simpler than the London Transport-centric Titan but unlike that integral model able to respond to the market by being offered as a chassis for bodying by the bodybuilder of the customer's choice the Olympian was an immediate success and soon replaced both the Atlantean and Bristol VRT as the standard double decker of the NBC It wasn't until 1984 that London Transport itself dabbled with the model taking three for evaluation alongside trios of contemporary double deckers The resulting L class spawned an order for 260 more in 1986 featuring accessibility advancements developed by LT in concert with the Ogle design consultancy but the rapid changes engulfing the organisation meant that no more were ordered During the 1990s company ownerships shifted repeatedly as the ethos of competition gave way to the cold reality of big business an unstable situation which even saw London's bus operations broken up The L class was split between three new companies but the backlog of older vehicles to replace once corporate interests released funding ensured the buses up to a further decade in service Finally as low floor buses swept into the capital at the turn of the century Olympian operation at last declined and the final examples operated early in 2006 This profusely illustrated book describes the diversity of liveries ownerships and deployments that characterised the London Leyland Olympians two decades of service

Heritage Dynamics Kalliopi Fouseki, 2022-10-13 How does heritage emerge change stagnate disappear and or revive over time Should heritage be approached as a non renewable resource that needs to be sustained for eternity or as a renewable resource that adapts to change and transformation Heritage Dynamics deconstructs the dynamic nature of heritage Heritage as a socio cultural practice goes through non linear continuous lifecycles where certain factors will be the catalyst for the ending of one lifecycle and the revival for another Kalliopi Fouseki develops a theoretical and methodological framework of heritage dynamics which is used as the analytical thread of six heritage contexts heritage led transformation in historic urban places decision making on energy efficiency and heritage conservation in everyday heritage residential buildings lifecycles of heritage collections exhibition dynamics and the impact of participation with emphasis of difficult heritage dynamics of dissonance on contested museums and the dynamics of intangible heritage with emphasis on flamenco The book offers a new theoretical and methodological framework that will enable heritage scholars and practitioners to unpack the ways and conditions under which heritage changes The new theoretical framework will re orientate current thinking of heritage as a thing a process or discourse towards a new more systemic thinking that captures the complexity of heritage Methodologically Heritage Dynamics introduces the potential of systemic methods such as system dynamics in capturing the dynamic nature of heritage The new theory and method not only opens up new avenues for theoretical explorations but also offers a significant tool for heritage managers and policymakers
