Presidency Is Not A Joke:

The Presidency Is Not a Joke Ernest A. Ndukwe, 2002-04-09 In the 2000 presidential election the then Gov George W Bush ran as the candidate of honesty integrity truth and character That was his claim and his supporters claim After he won the Republican primary by defeating Sen John McCain he and his supporters essentially characterized his Democratic opponent former vice president Al Gore as a liar and an untrustworthy individual That characterization stuck and Gore never fought back vigorously against those charges It was not only after Mr Gore conceded the election many thought he won that his former opponent and many of his supporters saw Gore differently as honorable and gracious Some actually called him a good man When George W Bush became the president I became interested in observing his policies and actions in comparison to his campaign and post campaign rhetoric Simply put by his claims of character during the presidential campaign he invited close scrutiny of his policies I had to observe how his rhetoric matched his actions If you are interested in finding out about the character of the George W Bush s administration so far and how honest his words have matched his deeds this is the book for you Commerce ,1922 Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents ,2000 Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States, Harry S. Truman: 1950 United States. President (1945-1953 : Truman),1965

The Making of the President 2016 Roger Stone, 2017-01-31 In the tradition of Theodore White s landmark books the definitive look at how Donald J Trump shocked the world to become president From Roger Stone a New York Times bestselling author longtime political adviser and friend to Donald Trump and consummate Republican strategist comes the first in depth examination of how Trump s campaign tapped into the national mood to deliver a stunning victory that almost no one saw coming In the early hours of November 9 2016 one of the most contentious polarizing and vicious presidential races came to an abrupt and unexpected end when heavily favored presidential hopeful Hillary Clinton called Donald J Trump to concede shocking a nation that had only hours before given little credence to his chances Donald Trump pulled the greatest upset in American political history despite a torrent of invective and dismissal of the mainstream media Stone a long time Trump retainer and confidant gives us the inside story of how Donald Trump almost single handedly harnessed discontent among Forgotten Americans despite running a guerrilla style grass roots campaign to compete with the smooth running and free spending Clinton political machine From the start Trump s campaign was unlike any seen on the national stage combative maverick and fearless Trump s nomination was the hostile takeover of the Republican party and a resounding repudiation of the failed leadership of both parties whose policies have brought America to the brink of financial collapse as well as endangering our national security Here Stone outlines how Donald Trump skillfully ran as the anti Open Borders candidate as well as a supporter of American sovereignty and how he used the Globalist trade deals like NAFTA to win over three of ten Bernie Sanders supporters The veteran adviser to Nixon Reagan and Trump charts the rise of the alt conservative media and the end of the mainstream media monopoly on voter impacting information dissemination This is an insider's view that includes studying opposition research into Bill Hillary and Chelsea Clinton's crimes and the struggle by the Republican establishment to stop Trump and how they underestimated him. Stone chronicles Trump's triumph in three debates where he skillfully lowered expectation levels but skewered Mrs Clinton for the corruption of the Clinton Foundation, her mishandling of government email and her incompetence as Secretary of State. Stone gives us the inside word on Julian Assange, Wikileaks, Clinton campaign chief John Podesta, Huma Abedin, Anthony Weiner, Carlos Danger, Doug Band, Jeffery Epstein and the efforts to hide the former first lady's infirmities and health problems. Stone dissects the phony narrative that Trump was in cahoots with Russian strongman Vladimir Putin or that the emails released by Wikileaks came from the Russians. The Making of the President 2016 reveals how Trump brilliantly picked at Hillary Clinton's weaknesses, particularly her reputation as a crooked insider, and ignited the passions of out of work white men and women from the rust belt and beyond at a time when millions of Americans desperately wanted change. Stone also reveals how and why the mainstream media got it wrong, including how the polls were loaded and completely misunderstood who would vote. Stone's analysis is akin to Theodore H White's seminal book The Making of the President 1960. It is both a sweeping analysis of the trends that elected Trump as well as the war stories of a hard bitten political survivor who Donald Trump called one tough cookie.

From performing on the Las Vegas strip mingling with Siegfried Roy to fatherhood and ongoing debates with proselytizers of the Christian Right, Penn shares his atheist memoir with outrageous humor. Packed with tales of sex while scuba diving, magic on stage and fearless skepticism, God No offers a uniquely entertaining, life affirming freethinker memoir that redefines belief, morality and laughter. This anthology of stories comprises tales of romance, comedy, horror, revenge, fantasy and intrigue, as well as many situations relating to love, life and prosperity, each one with superb characters that bring them alive and each one with a twist in the tail. You will really enjoy reading them. Networked Media, Networked Rhetorics Damien Smith Pfister, 2014-10-24. In Networked Media, Networked Rhetorics, Damien Pfister explores communicative practices in networked media environments, analyzing in particular how the blogosphere has changed the conduct and coverage of public debate. Pfister shows how the late modern imaginary was susceptible to deliberation traps related to invention, emotion and expertise, and how bloggers have played a role in helping contemporary public deliberation evade these traps. Three case studies at the heart of Networked Media, Networked Rhetorics show how new intermediaries, including bloggers, generate publicity, solidarity and translation in the networked public sphere. Bloggers flooding the zone in the wake of Trent Lott's controversial toast to Strom Thurmond in 2002 demonstrated their ability to invent and circulate novel arguments the pre 2003 invasion reports from the Baghdad blogger illustrated how solidarity is built through affective connections and the science blog RealClimate continues to serve as a rapid response site for the translation of expert claims for public audiences Networked Media Networked Rhetorics concludes with a bold outline for rhetorical studies after the internet A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A PRESIDENT Armiyao Harruna (Folio 48),2014 This is a story that spans from 1955 to sometime about 2045 It is a four part story of a family originating from Cape Coast and Dowyaaniyili in the Northern Region the story of a northern prince Dowbia Zangina that marries a German Fante screen idol called Mercedes Huntman who loves him dearly and agree to move with him to the Dowyaaniyili where he becomes chief after the death of his father A military government throws him into Nsawam Medium Prison for allegedly collaborating with his journalist friend Ernest Dzigbordi to overthrow the military junta and regains his freedom when a democratically elected government takes over Their Granddaughter Raabia Sedzro goes into politics and becomes the first woman president of her country She is a successful president and all her good works are cut short when she is assassinated in 2031 The story of President Lankwei Addison takes the reader into campaign travels to the hinterland of Ghana including some factual events in the governments of Presidents Rawlings Kufuor and Atta Mills Part Four of the story is drum narrations of historical occurrences not told in the first three parts As recorded by a media guru Dowbia Yousif the grandson of Mercedes Huntman The Outlook ,1919 The Law Times ,1907 The Great Impeachment and Trial of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States Andrew Johnson,1868 HEARINGS BEFORE THE SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE COMMITTEE ON MILITARY AFFAIRS UNITED STATE CONGRESS SENATE ,1919 The Ordinance Making Powers of the President of the United States James Hart,1925 The Truth (with jokes) Al Franken,2005-10-25 The 1 New York Times bestseller by Senator Al Franken author of Giant of the Senate Senator Al Franken s landmark bestseller Lies And the Lying Liars Who Tell Them A Fair and Balanced Look at the Right was praised as a bitterly funny assault The New York Times that rang with the moral clarity of an angel s trumpet The Associated Press Now this master of political humor strikes again with a powerful and provocative message for all of us In these pages Senator Franken reveals the alarming story of how Bush barely beat Kerry with his campaign of fear smear and queers and then claimed a nonexistent mandate Casino Jack Abramoff the Republicans nearest and dearest friend made millions of dollars off of the unspeakable misery of the poor and the powerless And also Native Americans The administration successfully implemented its strategy to destroy America s credibility and goodwill around the world Complete with new material for this paperback edition The Truth with jokes is more than just entertaining intelligent and insightful It is at once prescient in its analysis of right wing mendacity and incompetence and inspiring in its vision of a better tomorrow for all Americans except Jack Abramoff Modern Hospital ,1925 Parliamentary Debates ,1890 The Rhetoric of Remediation Jane Stanley,2010-01-31 American universities have long professed dismay at the writing proficiency levels of entrants and the volume of this complaint has been directly correlated to social political or economic currents Many universities in their rhetoric have defined high need for remediation as a crisis point in order to garner state funding or to manage admissions In The Rhetoric of Remediation Jane Stanley examines the statements and actions made regarding remediation at the University of California Berkeley Cal Since its inception in 1868 university rhetoric has served to negotiate the tensions between an ethic of access and the assertion of elite status Great care has been taken to promote the politics of public accessibility yet in its competition for standing among other institutions Cal has been publicly critical of the underpreparedness of many entrants Early on Cal developed programs to teach Subject A Composition to the vast number of students who lacked basic writing skills Stanley documents the evolution of the university s rhetoric of remediation at key moments in its history such as the early years of open gate admissions the economic panic of the late 1800s and its effect on enrollment Depression era battles over funding and the creation of a rival system of regional state colleges the GI Bill and ensuing post WWII glut in enrollments the Red Scare and its attacks on faculty administrators and students the Civil Rights Movement and the resultant changes to campus politics sexist admission policies and a de facto male quota system accusations of racism in the instruction of Asian Americans during the 1970s the effects of an increasing number of students beginning in the 1980s for whom English was a second language and the recent development of the College Writing Program which combined freshmen composition with Subject A instruction in an effort to remove the concept of remediation altogether Setting her discussion within the framework of American higher education Stanley finds that the rhetorical phenomenon of embrace and disgrace is not unique to Cal and her study encourages compositionists to evaluate their own institutional practices and rhetoric of remediation for the benefit of both students and educators
