Administering the Summit NA NA, 2016-04-30 Speaking truth to power demands diplomatic skills This book looks at the way advice which is needed by all executives is provided to the summit of government in twelve advanced industrialized countries Australia Belgium Britain China Denmark France Germany Italy Japan Spain Sweden and the US It examines the increasing pressures for centralization as core executives confront the differentiation and pluralization of government and the interplay of constitutional political and institutional factors

The Process of Political Succession Peter Calvert, 1987-06-18 Choosing the Chief Roy Pierce, 1998 A comparison of two nations France and the United States that enhances the understanding of each By focusing on how presidential candidates emerge and how voters evaluate them CHOOSING THE CHIEF demonstrates how party systems social structures and pivotal historical developments have converged to produce distinctive patterns of presidential politics in both countries

The Rush to Policy Peter William House, Roger Roger Don Shull, Rush to Policy explores the appropriate role of technical analysis in policy formulation The authors ask when and how the use of sophisticated analytic techniques in decision making benefits the nation They argues that these techniques are too often used in situations where they may not be needed or understood by the decision maker where they may not be to answer the questions raised but are nonetheless required by law House and Shull provide an excellent empirical base for describing the impact of politics on policies policy analysis and policy analysts They examine cost benefit analysis risk analysis and decision analysis and assess their ability to substitute for the current decision making process in the public sector They examine the political basis of public sector decision making how individuals and organizations make decisions and the ways decisions are made in the federal sector Also they discuss the mandate to use these methods in the policy formulation process The book is written by two practicing federal policy analysts who in a decade of service as policy researchers developed sophisticated quantitative analytic and decision making techniques They then spent several years trying to use them in the real world Success and failures are described in illuminating detail providing insight not commonly found in such critiques The authors delineate the interaction of politics and technical issues Their book describes policy analysis as it is not how it ought to be Peter W House is the director of policy research and analysis at the National Science Foundation He is the author of ten books on multidisciplinary science and technology policy research and analyses in government private and university sectors including The Art of Public Policy Analysis and with Roger D Shull Regulatory Reform Politics and the Environment and Regulations and Science Management of Research on Demand Roger D Shull is a senior analyst at the Division of Policy Research and Analysis National Science Foundation
