Pretoria The Pride Of South Africa Series:

Monographic Series Library of Congress, A Far-Away War Ian Liebenberg, 2016-01-31 South Africa's armed forces invaded Angola in 1975 setting off a war that had consequences for the whole region that are still felt today A Far Away War contributes to a wider understanding of this war in Angola and Namibia The book does not only look at the war from an old South African Defence Force perspective but also gives a voice to participants on the other side emphasising the role of the Cubans and Russians This focus is supplemented by the inclusion of many never before published photographs from Cuban and Russian archives and a comprehensive bibliography Earth Matters Karen E. Milbourne, 2013-11-12 Featuring more than 100 extraordinary works of art from 1800 to the present Earth Matters reveals how African individuals and communities have visually mediated their most poignant relationships with the land whether it be to earth as a sacred or medicinal material as something uncovered by mining or claimed by burial as a surface to be interpreted and turned to for inspiration or as an environment to be protected Both internationally recognized and emerging contemporary artists are represented from the continent and diaspora including El Anatsui Ghada Amer Sammy Baloji Ingrid Mwangi and William Kentridge Highlights include a pair of rare Yoruba onile figures a one of a kind Punu reliquary from Gabon and 3 bocio figures from the personal collection of legendary French dealer Jacques Kerchache The text includes statements by contemporary African artists including Wangechi Mutu Clive van den Berg Allan de Souza and George Osodi National Museum of African Art curator Karen E Milbourne explores how diverse African concepts of healing the sacred identity memory history and environmental sustainability have all been formed in relation to the land in this pioneering scholarly study Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1977 Migrants and Comparative Education Zehavit Gross, 2020-04-20 Migration is one of the major phenomena that characterizes the modern world and even more post modernity Improved transportation and advanced technology have facilitated transition from place to place and this phenomenon of greater mobility has changed the world and humanity Given the fact that many countries in both the developed and underdeveloped world face similar challenges due to the current mass migration comparative research in terms of the responses of government and non government organizations NGOs both local and international allows for a deeper understanding of ways of approaching the many challenges relating to immigration and education The comparative dimension enables both scholars and policy makers to compare and contrast different approaches and to weigh up what approach is most suitable for their circumstances The aim of Migrants and Comparative Education Call to Re Engagement is to bring together new research and conceptualizations on education's complex and evolving role in the immigration process in different contexts around the world at different levels of education and from different theoretical perspectives It is hoped that by so doing a better understanding will emerge of the issues and challenges associated with immigration that can assist policy makers and practitioners South Africa Reuben Musiker, 1979 South African Digest , 1964 Advances in
