Quincunx The Inheritance Of John Huffam:

The Quincunx Charles Palliser, 1990 The Quincunx is an epic Dickensian like mystery novel set in 19th century England and concerns the varying fortunes of young John Huffam and his mother A thrilling complex plot is made more intriguing by the unreliable narrator of the book how much can we believe of what he says First published in 1989 The Quincunx was a surprise bestseller and began a trend for pastiche Victorian novels It remains one of the best Neo-Victorianism and Sensation Fiction Jessica Cox, 2019-11-11 This book represents the first full length study of the relationship between neo Victorianism and nineteenth century sensation fiction It examines the diverse and multiple legacies of Victorian popular fiction by authors such as Wilkie Collins and Mary Elizabeth Braddon tracing their influence on a range of genres and works including detective fiction YA writing Gothic literature and stage and screen adaptations In doing so it forces a reappraisal of critical understandings of neo Victorianism in terms of its origins and meanings as well as offering an important critical intervention in popular fiction studies The work traces the afterlife of Victorian sensation fiction taking in the neo Gothic writing of Daphne du Maurier and Victoria Holt contemporary popular historical detective and YA fiction by authors including Elizabeth Peters and Philip Pullman and the literary fiction of writers such as Joanne Harris and Charles Palliser The work will appeal to scholars and students of Victorian fiction neo Victorianism and popular culture alike Refracting the Canon in Contemporary British Literature and Film, 2016-08-09 Contemporary works of art that remodel the canon not only create complex hybrid and plural products but also alter our perceptions and understanding of their source texts This is the dual process referred to in this volume as refraction that the essays collected here set out to discuss and analyse by focusing on the dialectic rapport between postmodernism and the canon What is sought in many of the essays is a redefinition of postmodernist art and a re examination of the canon in the light of contemporary epistemology Given this dual process this volume will be of value both to everyone interested in contemporary art particularly fiction drama and film and also to readers whose aim it is to promote a better appreciation of canonical British literature Neo-Victorian Fiction and Historical Narrative L. Hadley, 2010-10-13 Placing the popular genre of neo Victorian fiction within the context of the contemporary cultural fascination with the Victorians this book argues that these novels are distinguished by a commitment to historical specificity and understands them within their contemporary context and the context of Victorian historical and literary narratives Contingencies and Masterly Fictions Lauren Watson, 2020-05-22 This book establishes deconstructive dialogues between texts which are generically chronologically and stylistically very different Each chapter aligns one of Dickens s later novels with a work of contemporary literature and a post structuralist theoretical text Working from the premise of Derrida s contre the relationship developed between these texts is not so much intertextual as countertextual each text re enacts the procedures of its counterparts simultaneously rearticulating and interrogating their status In this triangular mode of reading the contact zone between countertexts becomes the site on which new readings are generated readings that use the ambivalent relationship between writings to mark an analogous self difference within writing itself This productive self difference is described as a negotiation of the contradictory drives of signification a strategic management of the masterly and the contingent This book argues that Dickens s texts perform their negotiations in an acutely strenuous manner amplifying instability and exposing the means of literary production This lack of discipline proves contagious as the reader re enacts the text s spasmodic shifts between mastery and contingency As surrogate Dickensian readers in the countertextual economy the contemporary novel and post structuralist theory also display this instability an effect which allows this study to develop not only a theory of poetics but a poetics of theory This dramatic self difference is not simply restricted to writing however In later chapters this study examines how racial and gender identities are also marked by ambivalence and how their instability is exacerbated after contact with a Dickensian centre In conclusion the work is itself submitted to a Dickensian reading The author examines how the study s own manoeuvres have been exposed through contact with many of the texts analysed within it and how this dialogue deconstructs the ideal of academic writing

Lawrence Durrell, Postmodernism and the Ethics of Alterity Stefan Herbrechter, 1999 This book is of interest for any reader wishing to explore the interface between literature and critical and cultural theory It investigates the notions of alterity which underlie the work of Lawrence Durrell and postmodernist theory

Grass Irmgard Elsner Hunt Neo-Victorian Families Christian Gutleben, 2011 Tracing representations of re imagined Victorian families in literature film and television and social discourse this collection the second volume in Rodopi s Neo Victorian Series analyses the historical trajectory of persistent but increasingly contested cultural myths that coalesce around the heterosexual couple and nuclear family as the supposed normative foundation of communities and nations past and present It sheds new light on the significance of families as a source of fluctuating cultural capital deployed in diverse arenas from political debates social policy and identity politics to equal rights activism and analyses how residual as well as emergent ideologies of family are mediated and critiqued by contemporary arts and popular culture This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of neo Victorian studies as well as scholars in contemporary literature and film studies cultural studies and the history of the family Situating the nineteenth century family both as a site of debilitating trauma and the means of ethical resistance against multivalent forms of oppression neo Victorian texts display a fascinating proliferation of alternative family models albeit overshadowed by the apparent recalcitrance of familial ideologies to the same historical changes neo Victorianism reflects and seeks to promote within the cultural imaginary British Postmodern Fiction

Victorians on Screen Iris Kleinecke-Bates,2014-12-09
 Victorians on Screen investigates the representation of the Victorian age on British television from the mid 1990s to the mid 2000s Structured around key areas of enquiry specific to British television it avoids a narrow focus on genre by instead taking a thematic approach and exploring notions of authenticity realism and identity Rewriting/Reprising Georges Letissier,2009-10-02 This volume comprises sixteen essays preceded by an introductory chapter focusing on the diverse modalities of textual and more widely artistic transfer Whereas the first Rewriting Reprising volume coord by C Maisonnat J Paccaud Huguet its subversive potential is perceptible notably through its many attempts at emancipating the genre from the ideological fetters of gender Over the past two decades Victorian literature and culture has become an inescapable field of investigations to any study on intertextuality in the English speaking world In a second part diversity has been preferred to any single specific angle to approach the Victorian neo Victorian tropism The purpose is to provide as complete a spectrum as is reasonably possible in such a volume The practice of rewriting in the Victorian age is thus studied alongside contemporary appropriations of the Victorian canon The question is raised of whether literary fetishism may not result in a form of counterfeit classicism while the more challenging neo Victorian rewritings would make a claim for the need to choose one s literary heritage and ancestors This is where the post colonial agenda comes in Precisely the third part investigates the question of rewriting reprising as a way of writing back The myth of Frankenstein s creature bent on wreaking vengeance on his creator is of course seminal as it offers a myth of transgression which in its turn becomes a foundation myth Not only are post colonial responses to their disclaimed parent texts highly theory informed but they also evince an awareness of such contemporary issues which are direct consequences of the colonial past In the last section of this volume the scope of what comes within the range of intertextuality per se is widened to cover artistic dialogism In the exchanges between theatrical texts reprise may be construed as a metaphor standing for the pleasure inherent in the process of recreation The interaction between embedded paintings and the embedding canvas offers yet another variation on the reprise motif as does the meta aesthetic discourse of the critic on the work of art What begins as mere repetition is soon colored by the personal inflections of the interpreter In operatic performances updating a classical text to make it suitable to contemporary audiences and in close harmony with the role assigned to music is liable to spur on the creativity of recreation
