The Funniest People in Sports and Neighborhoods David Bruce, 2006-11 This book contains such anecdotes as these: 1. Bob Zuppke coached the football Illini for years. In a discussion of football rules, someone described a play and asked whether the officials had made the right call. Before answering, however, Mr. Zuppke asked, "Which team made the foul, Illinois or the other one?" 2. At a Westminster Dog Show in Madison Square Garden, a woman was selling an expensive coat made for dogs. Saying, "We want her dog to look as smart as madame," the saleslady held up a pink cocktail coat made out of embroidered silk with a lining of mohair. Sportswriter Robert Lipsyte asked her, "When would a dog wear that?" The saleslady replied, "After five o'clock." 3. Shannon Martin was six years old when she won an age 12 and under roping contest for which she was written up in the Roping Sports News. Because she hadn't learned to read yet, she kept saying to her father, "Come on, Dad, read it again." The Baroque Cello Revival Paul R. Laird, 2004 This resource considers the Baroque cello's revival as part of the period instrument movement from the viewpoints of over forty cellists from three generations and four luthiers who have worked on period cellos. What emerges is a nuanced and detailed picture of the cello in the past and present, and the varied instruments now played under the label Baroque cello. Period instruments played with appropriate techniques have become a major presence in classical music in recent decades. For the cello, which changed substantially between the end of the sixteenth and early eighteenth centuries, it is challenging to describe specific traits for certain time periods, let alone how it was played in those periods. By chronicling the searches of over forty top cellists in England, Europe, and North America, the author goes far in revealing the great variety of forms that exist. This is the first study in which the revival of a single period instrument has been considered in such qualified detail and will be of great interest to musicologists, luthiers, and anyone interested in string

Woody, 2019-10-11 Nobody is born a musician Rather people become musical They do so through the right experiences as children and with the right kind of support from the adults in their lives Most teachers and parents believe that music can be a powerful a gift to kids Ideally it becomes a lifelong gift rather than merely a pastime of childhood to be reminisced about later Unfortunately not all music educational experiences produce a lasting musicianship This book shares how learning experiences can be made more relevant practical and real world for young people studying music With such experiences kids can be on their way to becoming real musicians defined as people whose musical skills allow them to lead musically active lives whether music making is their profession or a personally fulfilling part of their leisure time David Bruce, 2006-06-01 Bride of The Funniest People in Religion and Families contains such anecdotes as these When Panamanian salsa singer Rubin Blades married Lisa Lebenzon an Anglo a white American not of Spanish descent non Spanish speaker he asked her to learn Spanish so he could speak his native language at home She finished in only seven months a Spanish course that normally took three years Dr Louis Finkelstein chancellor of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America kept a strictly kosher diet While in Paris he and a group of rabbis ate only in kosher restaurants On leaving Paris Dr Finkelstein joked I can t understand all this fuss people make about French cooking We have the same things at home A Sufi teacher spoke about the virtue of patience As he spoke a scorpion stung his foot repeatedly His followers eventually noticed the scorpion and asked the teacher why he had not moved his foot away from it The teacher replied I was discussing the virtue of patience I could hardly have spoken about patience without also setting an example of patience I would have been ashamed before God Adolf Busch , The Violin Mark Katz, 2006 This book is the only complete and up to date annotated bibliography available on women s activities and contributions in the creation and performance of music through the ages Encompassing major books articles and recordings published over the past five decades the book examines a broad cross section of contemporary thought with each entry with over 500 devoted to resources from countries outside the US including annotation along with a critical description of content
