Retranslating the Bible and the Qur'an Pieter

Boulogne,Marijke H. de Lang,Joseph Verheyden, Despite the lively scholarly discourse on retranslation and its manifest value for uncovering dynamics of cultural change interpretation and reception the retranslation of religious texts has received only fragmented attention in recent years By spanning both historical and current aspects and by treating the Bible and the Qur'an together this book breaks new ground and paves the way for future research on the myriad discursive and religious aspects of retranslation This carefully curated collection of articles compellingly argues that the retranslation of canonical religious texts is a multi faceted phenomenon With cases ranging in time from the early Reformation to the present and traversing linguistic contexts from Russia to Sweden Slovenia to Saudi Arabia the essays capture diverse dimensions of retranslation work The collection demonstrates that retranslations of such texts manifest in different forms depending on the religious political and societal circumstances the targeted audiences and the status of existing translations Their reception too may vary greatly depending on those same circumstances Authored by specialists in the different fields of retranslation of the Bible and the Qur'an each contribution illustrates this complexity and offers a fresh perspective and insight that help lay the groundwork for future research in this area of study

Translatology, Translation and Interpretation - Toward a New Scientific Endeavor

Noury Bakrim,2024-02-07 This book brings together scholarly contributions to question model and reshape translatology as the scientific discipline studying language translation The chapters emphasize the hypothesis of a real domain of observability and objectivity through experimental and applied perspectives The authors offer a balanced view of adequacy and coherence between the empirical and theoretical components of the book The chapters include a good deal of individual language data from both source and target approaches with a focus on typologically and culturally diverse spaces such as the African context Domains of inquiry such as terminology and the cognitive dimension of the process exemplify the ability to create a dialogue between multidisciplinary intersections and translational attempts of laws and generalizations The Sufi Paradigm and the Makings of a Vernacular Knowledge in Colonial India Michel Boivin, 2020-06-01 This book demonstrates how a local elite built upon colonial knowledge to produce a vernacular knowledge that maintained the older legacy of a pluralistic Sufism As the British reprinted a Sufi work Shah Abd al Latif Bhittai's Shah jo risalo in an effort to teach British officers Sindhi the local intelligentsia particularly driven by a Hindu caste of professional scribes the Amils seized on the moment to promote a transformation from traditional and popular Sufism the tasawuf to a Sufi culture Sufiyani saqafat Using modern tools such as the printing press and borrowing European vocabulary and ideology such as Theosophical Society the intelligentsia used Sufism as an idiomatic matrix that functioned to incorporate difference and a multitude of devotional traditions Sufi non Sufi and non Muslim into a complex metaphysical spirituality that transcended the nation state and filled the intellectual spiritual and emotional voids of postmodernity The Routledge Companion to the Qur'an George Archer, Maria M. Thomas Riccio,2024-06-14 This book considers David Hanson's robots as a performative expression of our cultural moment serving as a paradigm for the evolution of humanoid social robots. Mechanical beings have occupied the human imagination since antiquity. Now they inhabit the pop cultural imagination embodying the apotheosis of humanity's technological aspirations and dread. Sophia, Hanson's most advanced robot, anticipates the future as she articulates the mythic pattern, narrative anxieties and hopes as old as humanity. Gendered as an attractive female with a face inspired by Queen Nefertiti and Audrey Hepburn, Sophia is a cipher avatar and turning point that brings humanity and technology a step closer to the emergence of a post-human species. The author is a transdisciplinary artist, scholar, educator working internationally in experimental performance, indigenous performance, ritual, shamanism and social robotics. Hanson's robots and Sophia are examined as performance media and events as characters evolving as post-human narratives of technological beings. The emergent complex and collaborative relationships social robots have with technology, AI, performance, anthropology, mythology, psychology, sociology, popular culture, social media, politics and economics are considered. The Qur'an

Abdullah Saeed,2008-01-15 There is much more to the Qur'an than the selective quotations favoured by Islamic fundamentalists. This book provides a student-friendly guide to the many ways in which the Qur'an can be read. Designed for both Muslims and Western non-Muslim students, it examines the Qur'an in Western scholarship as well as giving an overview of the rich interpretive traditions from the time of the Prophet Muhammad to the present day. This guide is a concise introduction to all aspects of the Qur'an: history, understanding and interpretation, providing coverage of both pre-modern and modern periods, plenty of examples to illustrate key points and aid student understanding, summaries, timelines and a glossary.

The Bloomsbury Companion to Islamic Studies Clinton Bennett,2014-11-20 The Bloomsbury Companion to Islamic Studies is a comprehensive one-volume reference guide to Islam and study in this area. A team of leading international scholars, Muslim and non-Muslim, cover important aspects of study in the field, providing readers with a complete and accessible source of information to the wide range of methodologies and theoretical principles involved. Presenting Islam as a variegated tradition, key essays from the contributors demonstrate how it is subject to different interpretations, with no single version privileged. In this volume, Islam is treated as a lived experience, not only as a theoretical ideal or textual tradition. Featuring a series of indispensable research tools, including a substantial A-Z of key terms and concepts, chronology and a detailed list of resources, this is the essential reference guide for anyone working in Islamic Studies. Unknowing and the

Everyday Seema Golestaneh,2022-12-26 In Unknowing and the Everyday, Seema Golestaneh examines how Sufi mystical experience in Iran shapes contemporary life. Central to this process is ma rifat, or unknowing, the idea that as it is ultimately impossible to fully understand the divine, humanity must operate from an engaged awareness that it knows nothing. Golestaneh shows that rather than considering ma rifat an obstacle to intellectual engagement, Sufis embrace that there will always be that which they do not know. From this position, they affirm both the limits of human knowledge and the mysteries of the profane world Through ethnographic case studies Golestaneh traces the affective and sensory dimensions of ma rifat in contexts such as the creation of collective Sufi spaces the interpretation of Persian poetry formulations of selfhood and non selfhood and the navigation of the socio material realm By outlining the relationship between ma rifat and religious aesthetic and social life in Iran Golestaneh demonstrates that for Sufis the outer bounds of human thought are the beginning rather than the limit
