M. Ismail, 1992 Challenges to Religions and Islam Hamid Naseem Rafiabadi, 2007 Modern Challenges to Islamic Law Shaheen Sardar Ali, 2016-10-06 The diversity of interpretation within Islamic legal traditions can be challenging for those working within this field of study. Using a distinctly contextual approach, this book addresses such challenges by combining theoretical perspectives on Islamic law with insight into how local understandings impact on the application of law in Muslim daily life. Engaging with topics as diverse as Islamic constitutionalism, Islamic finance, human rights, and internet fatawa, Shaheen Sardar Ali provides an invaluable resource for scholars, students, and practitioners alike by exploring exactly what constitutes Islamic law in the contemporary world. Useful examples, case studies, a glossary of terms, and the author's personal reflections accompany traditional academic critique, and together offer the reader a unique and discerning discussion of Islamic law in practice.

Islam and Contemporary Civilisation Halim Rane, 2010-07-15 Islam and Contemporary Civilisation examines the most complex debates and dilemmas facing Islam today, both internally and in its relations with Western civilisation. Halim Rane provides a concise and comprehensive introduction to Islam and modern developments in Muslim thought and tackles questions of Islamic law, human rights, democracy, jihad, and the Israel-Palestine conflict in the context of Islam-West relations. In confronting these challenging issues, Rane proposes a way forward that has far-reaching implications for advancing mutual understanding and finding common ground between the Muslim world and the West. Islamic Studies Series Volume 7

students as well as interested general readers Muslim Societies and the Challenge of Secularization: An Interdisciplinary Approach Gabriele Marranci, 2010-09-08 Scholars from various disciplines worked together to present the first interdisciplinary book to address the issue of Islam secularism and globalization The book has a clear structure which represents its interdisciplinary approach the first section addresses the philosophical and historical discussion about Islam and secularism the second section discusses the topic from an ethnographical and social anthropological viewpoint and the final section addresses Islam secularism and globalization from a political viewpoint This unique collection not only offers innovative research and new material it also provides empirical examples and theoretical debates and could therefore also be used as a textbook for courses on Islam globalization anthropology politics sociology and law Islam and the Contemporary World Golam Wahed Choudhury, 1990 The Islamic community has existed for fourteen centuries and now there are one billion Muslims in some sixty countries In his book Professor Choudhury gives an historical and analytical review of the role of Islam in modern states of the world of Islam The NATION Between Islam and Western models Walid Mahroum, 2025-05-05 In this book I dive deep into the idea that shaped the heart of Islamic civilization the One Ummah That bond that brought people together under the umbrella of faith not under the cloak of language blood or race I reconsider the path in which Islamic identity began to disintegrate replacing imported national and sectarian identities in a political and cultural context imposed by colonialism and adopted by unqualified local elites This work reveals how Western models based on nationalism ethnicity and political pluralism were essentially responses to Europe s internal crises rather than valid prescriptions for a world based on a unified religious reference It traces how these models when imported into Muslim societies contributed to the fragmentation of their unity and fueled conflicts between them The book is not just a historical critique but a call for a radical revision of collective consciousness and for the restoration of the nation s project with what is consciousness mission identity and responsibility
