Reviews research on issues of social inequalities from the fields of race class and gender. Reflects on methodological issues and the strengths of qualitative research. Provides students with an important overview of the development of social stratification studies. The Routledge International Handbook of the Sociology of Education

Michael W. Apple, Stephen J. Ball, Luis Armando Gandin, 2009-12-16 This collection brings together the work of a group of the world's leading sociologists of education to explore and address key issues and concerns within the discipline. The chapters draw upon theory and research to provide state of the art accounts of contemporary educational processes global trends and changing and enduring forms of social conflict and social inequality. The topics which are addressed are of international relevance and significance. War, Identity and the Liberal State Victoria Basham, 2013-07-24 This book critically examines the significance of gender race and sexuality to wars waged by liberal states. Drawing on original field research with British soldiers it offers insights into how their everyday experiences are shaped by and shape a politics of gender race and sexuality that not only underpins power relations in the military but the geopolitics of wars waged by liberal states. Linking the politics of daily life to the international is an intervention into international relations IR and security studies because instead of overlooking the politics of the everyday this book insists that it is vital to explore how geopolitical events and practices are co-constituted reinforced and contested by it. By utilising insights from Michel Foucault the book explores how shared and collectively mediated knowledge on gender race and sexuality facilitates certain claims about the nature of governing in liberal states and about why and how such states wage war against illiberal ones in pursuit of global peace and security. The book also develops post structural work in international relations by urging scholars interested in the linguistic construction of geopolitics to consider the ways in which bodies objects and architectures also reinforce particular ideas about war identity and statehood. Young British Muslims Sadek Hamid, 2016-12-08 Young British Muslims continue to generate strong interest in public discourse. However much of this interest is framed in negative terms that tends to associate them with criminality religious extremism or terrorism. Focusing instead on other aspects of being young Muslim and British this volume takes a multidisciplinary approach that seeks to normalise the subjects and focus on their everyday lived realities.

Structured into three sections the collection begins by contextualising the study of young British Muslims before addressing the sensitive social issues highlighted in the media and finally focusing on a variety of case studies which investigate the previously unexplored lived experiences of these young people With contributions from scholars of religion media and criminology as well as current and former practitioners within youth and social work contexts Young British Muslims Between Rhetoric and Realities will appeal to scholars who have an interest in the fastest growing most profiled minority demographic in the UK Modern Britain Jan Erik Mustad,2012 Sociology James Fulcher,John Scott,2011-03-17 Sociology is relevant to current teaching and courses dealing with sociology as a living subject and incorporating the classic traditions of the discipline This new edition has been updated with a range of new case studies and additional chapters

Sociology Anthony Giddens,Simon Griffiths,2006 This updated edition provides an ideal teaching text for first year university and college courses Ethnicity in the 1991 Census: Social geography and ethnicity in Britain: geographical spread, spatial concentration and internal migration ,1996 Identity Politics and the New Genetics Katharina Schramm,David Skinner,Richard Rottenburg,2012-01-01 Racial and ethnic categories have appeared in recent scientific work in novel ways and in relation to a variety of disciplines medicine forensics population genetics and also developments in popular genealogy Once again biology is foregrounded in the discussion of human identity Of particular importance is the preoccupation with origins and personal discovery and the increasing use of racial and ethnic categories in social policy This new genetic knowledge expressed in technology and practice has the potential to disrupt how race and ethnicity are debated managed and lived As such this volume investigates the ways in which existing social categories are both maintained and transformed at the intersection of the natural sciences and the cultural politics The contributors include medical researchers anthropologists historians of science and sociologists of race relations together they explore the new and challenging landscape where biology becomes the stuff of identity Global Perspectives on Issues and Solutions in Urban Education Petra A. Robinson,Ayana Allen-Handy,Amber Bryant,Chance W. Lewis,2019-03-01 In 2014 The Urban Education Collaborative at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte hosted its first biennial International Conference on Urban Education ICUE in Montego Bay Jamaica In 2016 the second hosting of the conference took place in San Juan Puerto Rico Additionally in 2018 the third hosting of the conference took place in Nassau Bahamas These solution focused conferences brought together students teachers scholars public sector and business professionals as well as others from around the world to present their research and best practices on various topics pertaining to urban education With ICUE s inspiration this book is a response to the growing need to highlight the multifaceted aspects of urban education particularly focusing on common issues and solutions in urban environments e g family and community engagement student academic achievement teacher preparation and professional development targeted instructional and disciplinary interventions opportunity gaps culturally relevant and sustaining practices etc Additionally with this book we seek to better understand the challenges facing urban educators and students and to offer progressive initiatives toward resolutions This unique compilation of work is organized under four major themes all targeted at critically addressing concerns that may inhibit the success of urban learners and providing solutions that have implications for curriculum design development and delivery teacher preparation and teaching diverse populations career readiness and employment and even more nuanced issues related to foster care undocumented students and mental health sustainable consumption childhood marriage food deserts and marine life and urban communities
