Cities and the Politics of Difference Michael A. Burayidi, 2015-01-01 The essays in this collection cover the practical and theoretical issues that surround integrating considerations of diversity in all its forms and guises into planning practice and theory The Politics and Ideology of Planning Tim Marshall, 2020-12-09 Planning is a battleground of ideas and interests perhaps more visibly and continuously than ever before in the UK These battles play out nationally and at every level from cities to the smallest neighbourhoods Marshall goes to the root of current planning models and exposes who is acting for what purposes across these battlegrounds He examines the ideological structuring of planning and the interplay of political forces which act out conflicting interest positions This book discusses how structures of planning can be improved and explores how we can generate more effective political engagements in the future 'Race' and Sport Kevin Hylton,2008-08-01 Critical Race Theory provides a framework for exploring racism in society taking into account the role of institutions and drawing on the experiences of those affected Applied to the world of sport this framework can reveal the underlying social mores and institutionalised prejudices that have helped perpetuate those racial stereotypes particular to sport and those that permeate broader society In this groundbreaking sociological investigation Kevin Hylton takes on the controversial subject of racial attitudes in sport and beyond With sport as his primary focus Hylton unpacks the central concepts of race ethnicity social constructionism and racialisation and helps the reader navigate the complicated issues and debates that surround the study of race in sport Containing rigorous and insightful analysis throughout the book explores key topics such as the origins applications and terminology of Critical Race Theory the meaning of whiteness the media sport and racism anti racism and sport genetics and scientific racism The contested concepts that define the subject of race in sport present a constant challenge for academics policy makers and practitioners in the development of their ideas policies and interventions This innovative and challenging book is essential reading for anybody looking to fully understand this important subject Planning for Ethnic Tourism Li Yang,Geoffrey Wall,2016-04-22 Ethnic tourism has emerged as a means that is employed by many countries to facilitate economic and cultural development and to assist in the preservation of ethnic heritage However while ethnic tourism has the potential to bring economic and social benefits it can also significantly impact traditional cultures ways of life and the sense of identity of ethnic groups There is growing concern in many places about how to balance the use of ethnicity as a tourist attraction with the protection of minority cultures and the promotion of ethnic pride Despite the fact that a substantial literature is devoted to the impacts of ethnic tourism little research has been done on how to plan ethnic tourism attractions or to manage community impacts of tourism This book addresses the need for more research on planning for ethnic tourism by exploring the status and enhancement of planning strategies for ethnic tourism development The book develops the case of a well known ethnic tourist destination in China Xishuangbanna Yunnan It analyzes how ethnic tourism has been planned and developed at the study site and examines associated socio cultural and planning issues The authors evaluate the perspectives of four key stakeholder groups the government tourism entrepreneurs ethnic minorities and tourists on ethnic tourism through on site observation interviews with government officials planners and tourism entrepreneurs surveys of tourists and ethnic minority people and evaluation of government policies plans and statistics This book is unique in its emphasis on planning and in its focus on China rapidly emerging as a major player in tourism with applications for tourism around the world Superdiversity, Policy and Governance in Europe Jenny Phillimore,Nando Sigona,Katherine Tonkiss,2020-10-21 Immigration has transformed the social economic political and cultural landscapes of global cities such as London Melbourne Milan and Amsterdam The term superdiversity captures a new era of migration driven demographic diversifications and associated complexities Superdiversity is the future or in many cases the current reality of neighbourhoods cities countries and regions yet the implications of superdiversification for governance and policy have until now received very little attention First published as a special issue of Policy Politics this insightful volume brings together contributions from experts across Europe to explore the ways in which superdiversity has shaped the development of policy and to consider challenges for the future Unlearning the Colonial Cultures of Planning Libby Porter, 2016-02-24 Colonialization has never failed to provoke discussion and debate over its territorial economic and political projects and their ongoing consequences This work argues that the state based activity of planning was integral to these projects in conceptualizing shaping and managing place in settler societies Planning was used to appropriate and then produce territory for management by the state and in doing so became central to the colonial invasion of settler states Moreover the book demonstrates how the colonial roots of planning endure in complex post colonial societies and how such roots manifest in everyday planning practice continue to shape land use contests between indigenous people and planning systems in contemporary post colonial states Knights and Castles Francesco Lo Piccolo, 2017-11-30 Title first published in 2003 Much has been written about the problems minorities encounter in Western European and North American cities This insightful volume acknowledges the deep rooted nature of inequalities and discrimination but seeks ways of ameliorating and eradicating them from positive stories of minority involvement in regeneration Equity, Diversity and Interdependence Michael Murray, 2017-11-28 If civil society is being encouraged to more fully embrace inclusiveness and respect for diversity then so must the multiplicity of service support organizations with which it interacts This is the key proposition behind this seminal contribution to public policy While legislation can ensure minimum standards of behaviour and outcomes meaningful organizational progression beyond legal imperatives requires authentic dialogue based on principles of equity diversity and interdependence These are essential components for deeper societal transformation Using the divided society of Northern Ireland as a case study and its rural governance arena in particular this book provides an authoritative empirical analysis of and prescriptive agenda for collaborative conversations The insights provided by this book go far beyond this region and have a profound relevance for other societies struggling to emerge from conflict racism and social separation Planning and Urban Change Stephen Ward, 2004-03-08 An accessible yet detailed account of British urban planning This second edition features an entirely new chapter on the key policy changes that have occurred under the Major and Blair governments together with a critical review of current policy trends Planning for Diversity Dory Reeves, 2005 The practical importance of diversity and equality for spatial planning and sustainable development is still not widely understood Using international examples this book shows planners and educationalists the benefits of building in a consideration of diversity and equality at each stage and level of planning Despite being one of the most diverse and gender balanced of the built environment professions complacency has been widespread in planning This book shows why a diverse profession is important and drawing on a wide range of good practice shows how those involved in planning can develop their sensitivity to and expertise in diversity and equality Tensions in Diversity Felicity Hwee-Hwa Chan, 2022-11-01 Urban landscapes are complex spaces of sociocultural diversity characterized by narratives of both conviviality and conflict As people with multiple ethnicities and nationalities find their common destinies in thriving globalizing cities social cohesiveness becomes more precarious as different beliefs practices ambitions values and affiliations intersect in close proximity producing social tensions Tensions in Diversity presents a multi method comparative study that draws on the experiences of 140 residents of native and immigrant origin community organizers and municipal officers in three culturally diverse neighbourhoods of varying income levels in Los Angeles County Using cognitive mapping analysis combined with data from interviews surveys and participant observation this book explores how exactly coexistence is socio spatially experienced and negotiated in daily life Tensions in Diversity identifies the planning and design considerations that enable intercultural learning in the public places within diverse cities In doing so this book foregrounds urban space as an active force in shaping coexistence and convivial public environments Town & Country Planning ,2001 Understanding 'Race' and Ethnicity Chattoo, Sangeeta, Atkin, Karl, 2019-04-10 This new edition of a widely respected textbook examines welfare policy and racism in a broad framework that marries theory evidence history and contemporary debate Fully updated it contains a new foreword by Professor Kate Pickett acclaimed co author of The Spirit Level two new chapters on disability and chronic illness and UK education policy respectively updated examples and data reflecting changes in black and minority ethnic demographics in the UK a post script from a minority student on her struggle to make a new home in Britain Suitable for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in social policy sociology and applied social sciences its global themes of immigration austerity and securitisation also make it of considerable interest to policy and welfare practitioners Understanding 'race' and ethnicity Craig, Gary, Atkin, Karl, 2012-02-22 Many welfare states are now struggling to deal with the issues and tensions raised by the growth of minority ethnic populations and increasing ethnic diversity The fact that most societies in the developed world are now multicultural raises many challenges for policy and for the delivery of welfare services which most states have yet to address retreating into forms of institutional racism to deny minorities the services they need Using the UK as an exemplary case study this much needed book combines historical and theoretical approaches to the issue of race and ethnicity within welfare provision including an examination of how minorities experience welfare in a range of service settings The book inspires new ways of approaching welfare and social policy in anticipation of a society that is equal inclusive fair and just for all and will make essential reading for students researchers practitioners and policy makers
