Riggs, 2017-12-06 The Psychic Life of Racism in Gay Men's Communities engages in the necessarily complex task of mapping out the operations of racialized desire as it circulates among gay men In exploring such desire the contributors to this collection consider the intersections of privilege and marginalization in the context of gay men's lives and in so doing argue that as much as experiences of discrimination on the basis of sexuality are shared among many gay men experiences of discrimination within gay communities are equally as common Focusing specifically on racialization the contributors offer insight as to how hierarchies inequalities and practices of exclusion serve to bolster the central position accorded to certain groups of gay men at the expense of other groups Considering how racial desire operates within gay communities allows the contributors to connect contemporary struggles for inclusion and recognition with ongoing histories of marginalization and exclusion The Psychic Life of Racism in Gay Men's Communities is an important intervention that disputes the claim that gay communities are primarily organized around acceptance and homogeneity and instead demonstrates the considerable diversity and ongoing tensions that mark gay men's relationships with one another A Critical Cultural Sociological Exploration of Attitudes toward Migration in Czechia Bernadette Nadya Jaworsky, Radka Klvanová, Alica Synek Rétiová, Ivana Rapoš Božic, Jan Kotýnek Krotký, 2023-07-10 A Critical Cultural Sociological Exploration of Attitudes toward Migration in Czechia What Lies Beneath the Fear of the Thirteenth Migrant qualitatively deciphers what lies beneath the fears about the imaginary thirteenth migrant and explores how individuals make sense of migration in nontraditional destination countries utilizing critical cultural sociological methods to explore the deep meaning making processes that inform migration attitudes

Racism without Racists Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, 2021-12-09 Eduardo Bonilla-Silva's acclaimed Racism without Racists examines in detail how Whites talk, think, and account for the existence of racial inequality and makes clear that color-blind racism is as insidious now as ever. The sixth edition of this provocative book includes new material on systemic racism and how color-blind racism framed many issues during the COVID-19 pandemic. A revised conclusion addresses what readers can do to confront racism both personally and on a larger structural level. New to this edition: New Chapter 2, "What is Systemic Racism? Coming to Terms with How Racism Shapes All Whites and Non-Whites," explains how all members of society participate in structural racism. New Chapter 10, "Color-Blind Racism in Pandemic Times," provides coverage of racial disparities in mortality, the role of essential workers, and hunger during the pandemic, particularly how public discourse did not reflect how these problems are worse for communities of color. Updated discussion of police surveillance and violence reflects the current salience of police brutality in the U.S. and enhances the conversation on subtle racial discrimination. Chapter 3 addresses the question "What is to be done?" and offers White people ideas on what they can do to change themselves. Chapter 11

Left in the Past Alastair Bonnett, 2010-05-06 This book looks at the role nostalgia plays in the radical imagination to offer a new guide to the history and politics of the left. In Left in the Past, Bonnett reassesses the place of nostalgia within radical politics and, in doing so, provides a new introduction to the history and politics of the left. Bonnett argues that nostalgia has been a chronic but repressed aspect of the socialist imagination. Left in the Past is premised on the idea that in our post-socialist era, the relationship between radicalism and a sense of loss, and the ambivalent position of socialism in and against modernity, can be viewed with greater clarity. In Section One of the book, Bonnett shows the centrality and repression of nostalgia in both 19th-century radicalism and anti-colonial radicalism. In Section Two, he explores the consequences of this inheritance by way of 20th-century and contemporary studies of revolutionary intellectuals and intellectual culture. Bonnett's unique approach in how to understand the left in an age of post-socialism will make the book a needed resource for anyone interested in the history and politics of the left and radicalism.

A Moral Economy of Whiteness Steve Garner, 2015-08-14 A Moral Economy of Whiteness presents a working model for understanding the main ways in which white UK people make race through talking about immigration in the twenty-first century. Based on extensive empirical interviews, Steve Garner establishes four overlapping frames through which white English people understand immigration. This comprises a narrative of unequal treatment where equality is a dirty word because it is seen as an agenda for redistributing resources to undeserving ethnic minorities, non-integrating migrants, and unproductive white people. Political correctness is seen as the ideological glue binding this unfair system. People are thus retreating from Britishness into a more exclusive Englishness. Garner explores the context of these understandings, the dominance of neoliberal market rationales in which the State deprioritises anti-discrimination work. He concludes that these frames only make sense in a social world where Britain's imperial past has no bearing on the present and where racism in popular and media culture becomes purely a story of individual deviancy This book generates numerous international points of comparison that deepen our understanding of the backlash against multiculturalism in the West It will appeal to scholars and students of sociology social policy anthropology political science immigration multiculturalism nationalism and British studies     Bibliography on Racism, 1972-1975 Center for Minority Group Mental Health Programs (U.S.),1978

Dictionary of Race, Ethnicity and Culture Guido Bolaffi,2003 Race ethnicity and culture are concepts that are interpreted in various and often contradictory ways This dictionary provides the historical background and etymology of a wide range of words related to these concepts and ideas     Portraits of White Racism David T. Wellman,1993-09-24 First published in 1977

Portraits of White Racism advanced a distinctively sociological theory of racism Based on five case histories it critically assessed the prevailing social psychological paradigm that equated racism with prejudice and provided an alternative interpretation Racism the book argued could be understood as a culturally sanctioned strategy for defending social advantage based on race it was not simply the product of psychological abnormalities In this revised edition the theoretical perspective is updated taking into account recent theorising in the sociology of racism     Racism, Gender Identities and

Young Children Paul Connolly,2002-01-04 This book offers a fascinating yet disturbing account of the significance of racism in the lives of five and six year old children drawing upon data from an in depth study of an inner city multi ethnic primary school and its surrounding community It represents one of the only detailed studies to give primacy to the voices of the young children themselves giving them the space to articulate their own experiences and concerns Together with detailed observation of the children in the school and local community it provides an important account of how and why they draw upon discourses on race in the development of their gender identities The book graphically highlights the understanding that these children have of issues of race gender and sexuality and the active role they play in using and reworking this knowledge to make sense of their experiences     Identity, Belonging and Migration Gerard Delanty,Ruth Wodak,Paul

Jones,2008 Shows that that liberalism is not enough to oppose the disparate and diffuse xenophobia and racism faced by many migrants today and calls for conceptions of anti racism within and beyond the state     Fundamental Concepts and
