Race Culture And Ethnicity In Psychiatric Practice Working With Difference:

Race, Culture, and Ethnicity in Secure Psychiatric Practice Charles Kaye, Tony Lingiah, 2000 People from ethnic minorities are overrepresented in secure psychiatric care and have been reported to receive differential treatment from staff. It has been suggested that these people, especially Afro Caribbean groups, suffer from prejudicial legal criminal justice and psychiatric systems. This text questions whether Western white oriented practice and systems of belief can or should be applied to service users from other cultural racial ethical or spiritual backgrounds. Psychiatric and Mental Health Nursing Phil Barker, 2017-07-20 The concept of the craft of caring dictates that the basis of good nursing practice is a combination of both art and science encouraging nurses to take a holistic approach to the practice of psychiatric and mental health nursing. Supported by relevant theory research policy and philosophy this volume reflects current developments in nursing practice and the understanding of mental health disorders. The book includes case studies of patients with anxiety schizophrenia and bipolar disorder as well as victims of sexual abuse those with an eating disorder homeless patients and those with dementia and autism. Forensic Mental Health Annie Bartlett, Gill McGauley, 2009-10 This analysis of the forensic mental health system how it operates the people involved the problems inherent in the system and the huge ethical dilemmas brings together a range of specialists who describe the processes involved in dealing with a mentally disordered offender.

Psychology for Social Workers Lena Robinson, 2012-07-26 Social work education has recently undergone major changes with anti discriminatory practice being a high priority area in professional training. Psychology for Social Workers provides an introductory text which will help qualifying and practising social workers to understand and counteract the impact of discrimination work in an ethnically sensitive way demonstrate an awareness of ways to combat both individual and institutional racism through anti racist practice. Drawing together research material and literature on black perspectives in human development and behaviour from North America and Britain it provides a starting point that will inspire discussion and debate in the social work field and will generate future theoretical and research questions. Among the topics covered are black perspectives in group work and the family identity development and academic achievement in black children and mental health issues in relation to black people. Updated throughout to cover recent legislation this second edition is an essential introductory text for all social workers in training and practice and for their teachers and trainers. The SAGE Handbook of Counselling and Psychotherapy Colin Feltham, Ian Horton, 2012-03-05 This long awaited Third Edition of The SAGE Handbook of Counselling and Psychotherapy brings together the fundamentals of counseling and psychotherapy theory research skills and practice. Editors Colin Feltham and Ian Horton address what every successful trainee or practitioner needs to know do think feel and use in a way that is entirely comprehensive accessible and jargon free. Including new material on interpersonal psychotherapy cognitive analytic therapy pluralism and mindfulness as well as body psychotherapy hypnotherapy learning disabilities ADHD and low self esteem this book continues to be essential reading for trainees or Nursing 3rd Edition uses a practical clinical perspective to provide a clear understanding of this often intimidating subject. It provides a foundation in nursing techniques and a guide to psychobiological disorders such as bipolar and depressive disorders, trauma interventions, and interventions for distinct populations such as children and older adults. Adapted to meet the needs of Canadian nurses by Cheryl L. Pollard and Sonya L. Jakubec, this market-leading text prepares you for practice with real-world examples presented within a Canadian legal, ethical, and cultural context. Canadian focus throughout includes key considerations such as our nation's cultural and social diversity with federal/provincial/territorial distinctions. Canadian research and statistics reflect mental health and mental health practice in Canada. Research Highlight boxes are updated with examples of Indigenous research methodologies by Indigenous researchers and settler allies. DSM-5 boxes provide criteria for disorders covered by the American Psychological Association. Learning features include key terms and concepts, learning objectives, key points to remember, critical thinking, and chapter reviews reinforcing important information and helping to apply textbook content to the clinical setting. Assessment Guidelines boxes summarize the steps of patient assessment for various disorders. Drug Treatment boxes feature the most current generic and trade names for drugs used in Canada. Patient and Family Teaching boxes provide important details that should be discussed with patients and care givers. Integrative Therapy boxes highlight the different types of therapy that may be used to enhance treatment. Considering Culture boxes discuss the importance of cultural safety in providing competent care to diverse populations within various clinical situations. NEW Safety Tip boxes highlight important issues of safety for psychiatric mental health care, patient experiences, and nursing interventions. NEW Added mental health content covers Indigenous populations, migrant populations, and gender differences with a focus on cultural safety, equity-informed approaches, relational and trauma-informed practices. Updated Chapter 29 covers recovery, survivorship, and public mental health approaches. Enhanced topics include substance use disorders, harm reduction, and support among nurses; changes related to Medical Assistance in Dying (MAiD) legislation; and mental health in view of climate change and the COVID-19 pandemic.

Best Practices for Social Work with Refugees and Immigrants Miriam Potocky, 2002-04-24. Social work practice with refugees and immigrants requires specialized knowledge of these populations and specialized adaptations and applications of mainstream services and interventions. Because they are often confronted with cultural, linguistic, political, and socioeconomic barriers, these groups are especially vulnerable to psychological problems. Among these problems are anxiety, depression, alienation, grief, even post-traumatic stress disorder, as well as biological concerns stemming from inadequate or underutilized medical services. Best Practices for Social Work with Refugees and Immigrants is the first book to offer a comprehensive guide to social work with foreign-born clients that evaluates many different strategies in light of their methodological strengths and weaknesses. Part I sets forth the context for empirically based service approaches to such clients by describing the nature of these populations, relevant policies designed to assist them, and service delivery systems. Part II addresses specific problem areas common to refugees and immigrants and evaluates a variety of assessment and intervention techniques for each area Maintaining a rigorous empirical and broadly pan cultural approach throughout Miriam Potocky Tripodi seeks to identify the most practical best practices to meet the various and pressing needs of uprooted peoples Racism in the United States, Third Edition Ann Marie Garran, Joshua L.
